Mrs. H. O. Barr, who went to Harrisburg last fall to visit with her sisters, Mrs. Widder and Miss Harpster, is arranging to return to Boalsburg for the summer.

Henry L. Dale, of Mifflinburg, spent a short time in town on Sunday.

A number of folks about town are ill.

Better Quality in Millinery.

There are many well dressed women who want the better style and quality in millinery. The place to buy is at the Hat Shop. I can sell cheaper than others since I have no rent to pay. Call and see. As a special for Saturday, nice hats at $1.85, and some lower.

MRS. LENORE V. BURD,
Millheim, Pa.

Spring Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKnight, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Jamima Skiles, of McConnelsville, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Skiles.

Little Lera McCool won the prize at the vaudeville show last week for being the most popular baby in town; Miss Ruth Ripka won the prize for being the most popular lady.
Mrs. Ella B., wife of William A. Neese, died last Thursday evening after a siege of sickness of several months. She was a kind and affectionate wife, a good mother and a good neighbor, as well as a faithful member of the Reformed church all her life time. She was also a member of Centre Temple No. 169, L. G. E., and a member of Lady Violet Rebekah Lodge No. 268, I. O. O. F.
More complete details of her death will be found in the "Death" column elsewhere in this issue.

The ladies and members of Spring Mills Camp, No. 293, I. O. O. F., held a very interesting meeting Monday evening, at which time a district president was elected in the person of Mrs. Ethel Wallace of Mifflinburg. The remainder of the evening was taken up in social enjoyment by members of the order from all parts of the county. There were about 125 members present and many others for the entertainment part. There were 19 members from Howard camp No. 155; 13 from Aronsburg Camp No. 183; 12 from Woodward Camp No. 184; 23 from Mifflinburg Camp No. 230; 31 from Bellefonte Camp No. 231, and 29 members from Spring Mills Camp No. 293. The entertainment consisted of recitations, readings and piano solos, which were all well rendered and enjoyed by all present. There was an abundance supply of refreshments which were relished by everybody.

Prof. W. W. Reitz, of Ithaca, N. Y., improved his residence very much during the past week by giving the woodwork a coat of paint and also did other repairing. This house is occupied by H. S. Myer, on Long St. Prof. Reitz has obtained the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy since he left this place. He is located at Cornell University. It will be remembered that Prof. Reitz was one of the first instructors at our Vocational School.

Heckman and children, Franklin and Sarah Heckman, Lancaster; Mrs. Iry Oul, Lamar; Mrs. Mae Weaver, Hubersburg; Ed. Braucht, W. H. Grove, Coburn; Warren Smith and son Westley, Aronsburg; Jacob Krumrine, George Stover, John Candy and several others from State College where Mrs. Neese had been employed for the past three years, were also in attendance.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL WINS OPENER WITH SNOW SHOE

The opening game of Centre Hall High school's baseball season was played at Centre Hall with Snow Shoe, on Friday, the result being a 5-3 victory for the locals. Breen, with two three-base hits, and Spyer pitching an excellent game, were the shining lights of the contest. Spyer struck out sixteen of the Snow Shoe boys and walked two. Breen scored two of the runs. McClellan, with a hit and a base on balls, scored two more, and Rickert's single resulted in his ultimate reaching of the home plate. Walker also hit a two-bagger and was left stranded on third base.

Snow Shoe, with hits by Bloom, Hipple, Renard and Hall, scored one run in the second and two in the third innings.

Each team was guilty of three errors but the game was well played considering that it was the first of the season.
