

Overseers Delinquent In Reporting the Unemployed

Overseers of the poor in the several boroughs and townships in Centre county are delinquent in making reports of the unemployed in their respective districts. This is a duty to be performed by them before the county commissioners can allocate the $10,000 paid into the county by the Commonwealth under the Talbot bill, which provided $10,000,000 for direct aid to the unemployed. The only exception to the delinquency referred to is the poor board of the borough of Philipsburg, whose report was made almost immediately upon notification.

Poor boards should act at once. Make a survey and report findings to the board of County Commissioners.

Information may be had through any of the commissioners, or their efficient clerk, Charles Freeman.

PHILIPSBURG BAKERS DEFEAT LOCAL TEAM, 8 TO 5

The baker men from Hagerty's Bakery, Philipsburg, put up a fine product on the baseball diamond at Centre Hall, Saturday afternoon, and defeated the local team, 8 to 5. Centre Hall had hoped the baker boys' cake would come out of the oven flat by the time the ninth inning rolled around, but a liberal amount of yeast (pep) injected by the youthful bakers guaranteed a finely finished product, and their victory cake emerged high, wide and handsome.

The game was a return match and was played in preparation for the opening of the Centre-County League, on Saturday, when Centre Hall meets the Rebersburg team on the local field.

FOUR INJURED IN HEAD-ON CRASH OF AUTOMOBILES

Griffith's Turn, Between Bellefonte and Axe Mann, Scene of Serious Accident When Driver Attempts to Pass Another Car.

A head-on collision occurred Friday at Griffith's turn, between Bellefonte and Axe Mann, when a car driven by W. L. Gussallus, of Rockview, attempted to pass another car, ran ahead on into a car driven by Mrs. Annie J. Armstrong, of Lemont. Mrs. Armstrong suffered injuries of the head and legs. Mr. and Mrs. Shuey, occupants of the Armstrong car, received bruises about the body. Mr. Gussallus suffered a fracture of the leg. They were taken to the Centre County hospital. On Sunday Mr. Shuey was discharged from the institution. The occupants of the Armstrong car had been to the funeral of Henry P. Shuey, at Pleasant Gap, and afterward had driven to Bellefonte.

Another accident happened at Axe Mann, a few days previous to the above, when Alfred W. Tompkins, of Brockway, was driving at a high rate of speed and in attempting to make a turn ran into a guard rail and down an embankment. DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT PORT MATILDA, THURSDAY A. M.

Port Matilda had the misfortune of having had a bad fire early Thursday morning of last week. Along between one and two o'clock the unoccupied house belonging to Dennis Reese on the south side of the railroad, near the railroad station, was found to be all on fire and an alarm was sent in for the company, which responded quickly, relates the Philipsburg Journal.

Adjoining this house was a one-story frame house owned by William Robinson and occupied by Jonah Walk and family, which also caught fire. George Warner, who lives nearby, noticed the lights from the fire shining through his bedroom window and immediately got up and spread the alarm and at the same time ran down and aroused the Walk family. He went to the side window which he smashed in and shouted to Mrs. Walk to get out. Mrs. Walk handed the baby out through the window to Mr. Warner and together her other child and husband escaped from the burning building in their night clothes. All their household effects were consumed by the flames.

The fire company was somewhat handicapped for a sufficient water supply to use their large hose and had to use their chemical tank on the side of Mr. Spotts' house nearby, and use the small hose from W. C. Shay's reservoir. It was impossible to save either of the houses from burning down. The origin of the fire is unknown.

George Lowe, one of the State officers, will bring the message in the evening session which will begin at 7:30.

Everybody come and bring along Christian Endeavor hymnal. Please notify Miss Nellie E. Williams, Howard, not later than May 10, how many from your society will be at the supper. If you cannot attend the supper come for the evening session at 7:30.

The defeat of the Pinchot candidates at the primaries will save the thousands of Pinchot appointees a pretty sum, for the self-righteous Governor will see to it that his henchmen on the State pay roll will not be made pay a campaign assessment, for the benefit of political enemies. It would be very wicked, this fall, to permit even a voluntary contribution of two per cent on salaries for campaign purposes.

Former Congressman Benjamin K. Focht at last found a dead man as an opponent for the nomination for congress in his district, the 18th, and beat him.

Republicans are asking each other whether this is the second or fifth time the Hon. Holmes is up in the running for assemblyman.

Surface Wins In Snyder.

Dr. Harvey A. Surface, representative in the legislature from Snyder county, won the Republican nomination for re-election by six votes, complete Absalom D. Gougler, of Middleburg. The vote was 1,350 to 1,374. Gougler was announced a winner on the basis of almost complete returns, but straggling returns from the late precincts changed the result.

DEMOCRATS HAVE COMPETENT CANDIDATE FOR ASSEMBLY

Robert J. Miller, of State College, who was Unopposed for the Democratic Nomination for General Assembly at the Primaries.

The Democrats have chosen as their candidate for general assembly an able young man whom they confidently expect to elect to the seat now occupied by Hon. John L. Holmes.

This man is Robert J. Miller, a resident of State College, a business man of recognized ability and a civic leader in the community.

Mr. Miller was born and raised in Philipsburg. He attended Philipsburg schools and was graduated from the high school in that town. Later he attended the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy from where he was graduated with the degree of Doctor of Pharmacy.

He is an ex-soldier, a veteran of the World War, having served his country in France and Germany.

Since 1920 he has been proprietor of a drug store in State College, and is now conducting the Rexall Drug Store in that town.

Always an active man, he became interested in fraternal and civic organizations in his adopted town and was subsequently elected to the borough council. He was chosen for this office primarily because of his straightforward method of dealing with local problems in a way that was understandable and approved by the rank and file of taxpayers.

He is past president of the State College Kiwanis club, the holding of the high office being indicative of the esteem in which he is held in the community.

He thinks straight, plays straight, and is not deaf when his constituents are to be considered.

And last, but not least, he has never learned to dance to the tunes played by the political parasites who now dominate our legislative halls.

EIGHTH ANNUAL KIWANIS REVUE SCORES TRIUMPH

Bellefonte, Philipsburg and Tyrone Clubs Entertain on Benefit of Crippled and Underprivileged Children—Patronage at Bellefonte Up to Previous Years.

The benefit show put on at Bellefonte Thursday night for the crippled and underprivileged child was liberally patronized by persons charitably inclined from many sections of the county. Centre Hall's contribution to the audience being a considerable number. It was the eighth annual Kiwanis Revue by the clubs of Bellefonte, Philipsburg and Tyrone.

Initiating the evening's program, the Philipsburg Kiwanis club ably handled the minstrel end, during which excellent talent in musical numbers and dance specialties combined with the minstrel feature to make this part outstanding.

With Attorney E. J. Thompson as interactor and James Reppert, Mahlon Hagerty, Andrew Boggs and Gene Fleckenstein as end men, some high class entertainment resulted both in the way of musical numbers and wholesome jokes, while from the chorus numbers emitted much melody.

Dressed in appropriate togery, Miss Frances Burns, of Houtzdale, presented a dance specialty that emphasized unusual talent and grace, and as ever her efforts received great applause. Miss Burns is well known locally as she has a dancing class each Saturday afternoon at the Philips, says the Philipsburg Journal.

Perhaps more charming than ever appeared Mrs. Ethel France Smith as she sang "I'll Come Back to Me," the rich quality of her marvelous contralto voice bringing out the charm of this beautiful number to a marked degree. Especially lovely also was the orchestra accompaniment.

In the medley of songs by the McCamley brothers the audience enjoyed some rich melody, their presence on the program being a big asset.

Other soloists deserving of praise were Messrs. James Reppert, Jack Thompson, A. T. Boggs, Mahlon Hagerty, and Reuben Stone, who brought forth rounds of applause.

Mahlon Hagerty served as revue chairman; E. J. Thompson, director, and Mrs. A. T. Boggs, pianist.

With the parting of the curtain for the second act a uniquely improvised sketch figured as the center for the Bellefonte Kiwanis end of the program for the presentation of "Before the Mast."

As Captain, Doctor Richards H. Hoffman proved master of the situation and piloted the seamen through a series of fun provoking experiences, both in song and jest, the whole setting being unusual and accomplished by means of the vessel's port holes.

With Andrew G. Beshore as humorist, the spirit was contagious and the "boys" pepped up to the fullest, caused considerable merriment, while their singing, solo and chorus, afforded genuine pleasure.

The seamen were composed of Cecil A. Walker, Jack Yeager, Bernard Holland, Doctor Richard P. Noll, Bernhard S. Kingsley, Albert Grove, Earl V. Campbell, Samuel M. Shalcross, Herman Hazel, Earl S. Orr, Arthur C. Hewitt, while Earl V. Campbell served as director, Floyd Ammerman, pianist, and Albert Grove, scenery.

Dressed in striking costume of orange, velvet trousers and white silk blouse, the tap dancers, Miss Marion Bessinger and Wells Daggett, scored a big triumph in their well accomplished number.

Bellefonte's contribution showed considerable preparation, and their efforts were loudly commended.

Featuring the Blue and Gold orchestra of Tyrone the final part of the program given under supervision of the Tyrone club, held considerable enjoyment for all, the musical selections being of sufficient variety to satisfy.

Miss Sue Glasgow, danseuse, was marvelous in her dance specialty, her accomplishment in toe tapping elicited wonderment and high praise as did all rhythmic movements.

Another exceedingly enjoyable feature was the portrayal of "The Wooden Soldier and the China Doll," by Miss Glasgow and Wilb Van Scoyoc.

As each club presented the grand finale, the audience expressed its enjoyment in a tangible way at the superb entertainment.

WIELAND-DASHIELL

D. Alexander Wieland, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wieland, of State College, and Miss Virginia Dashiell, of Philadelphia, were united in marriage at the Colonial Dames in Philadelphia. The Wieland family attended the wedding. Don Wieland, a brother of the groom, was best man at the ceremony on Saturday. The groom is a young lawyer in Philadelphia.

The highest price team sold was a pair of sorrels to the Western Penitentiary for $297.50. A redeeming feature was that settlements were made in cash. Sales were as follows:
