ETHICS OF BANKING

By MELVIN A. TRAYLOR President First National Bank, Chicago

We must not take unfair advantage of our competitors. It is entirely proper for us by legitimate means to obtain all the business that we can, but in doing so we ought to do nothing that will injure our competitors and that will destroy the confidence which the banks must repose in each other and which the community at large must repose in the banks as a whole if we are going to thrive, and remember always we cannot thrive separately. We shall either all thrive together or all suffer disaster.

Sentiment in Banking No sentiment in banking? Will you recall just one day's activity at your desk—what were the problems you considered? Did they apply solely to the cold-blooded conduct of the affairs of your bank, weighing, measuring, analyzing, valuing securities, extending credit, driving the best bargains possible, having in mind only the material return from your day's labor? Certainly such is not the case. I recall many days—happy days, too—in my experience in a very small country bank, in which I am sure not one-tenth of my time was given to the real consideration of the financial returns to my institution.

Open Markets I believe in an open market for the actual purchase and sale both of commodities and securities. But so long as the actual rate for credit in this country swings up and down according to the demand for funds for speculative purposes, little influenced by central or other banking policy, then something is wrong somewhere. Moreover, if business is influenced—as is almost universally charged—by the state of public mind; and if the state of public mind is influenced, as in recent years it most certainly has been, to run the scale from extreme optimism to extreme pessimism according to the characters on a ticker tape, then something is wrong with the public mind, or the conduct of the forces back of the tape. Those responsible must provide the answer.

Air may be free, but it takes a lot of nerve for a fellow to buy an automobile tire from a mail-order house and then go to his home garage and have it inflated.

DEATHS.

NEARHOOD—George W. Nearhood died suddenly at his home at 231 West Beaver Avenue, State College. Interment was made at Centre Hall, Monday forenoon, services in charge of the order of Odd Fellows. He was aged 76 years.

The deceased was a son of Adam Nearhood, who located a short distance west of the present borough line when Centre Hall was in its infancy, and was the last member of that family. He was twice married, first to Miss Sarah Fauber, to which union two sons, Charles and Abner, both deceased, were born. The second wife, who survives her husband, before marriage was Miss Alice Meyer, a daughter, Verna, now Mrs. Dunkle, of State College, and a granddaughter, also survive.

MINEMYER.—Charles Ray Mine-myer died at his home in Coleville, Saturday, following a lingering illness. He was born in Benner township 41 years ago. He is survived by his wife and two children, Marian and Charles, at home. Interment was made Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stamm, of Julian, a son, on May 1st.

While D. A. Booser continues to be a hospital patient, he is reported to be improving and expects to come to his home in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Weaver, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. William Throssel, of Millheim, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Shively, in Millifenburg.

FRUITTOWN.

Bernadine Treaster, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Lewis-town hospital, was brought home and is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Hall, of this place, was taken to the Lewis-town hospital and underwent an operation for appendicitis. Her condition is not satisfactory.

Samuel Coble is on the sick list. A bealed tooth has given Stief Stoner much suffering this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adleman and the children, of Boalsburg, are spending a few days at the Samuel Kin-felder place.

Richard Houtz, of Johnstown, is spending some time with his friend, Wm. Weaver, of this place.

The rainy weather is keeping the farmers from planting potatoes and corn, but the old saying is, a cool, wet May brings lots of grain and hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Storch, of Pottsville, are spending a week at their summer cottage at his place.

Julia Coble, who spent the winter with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Coble, went to her home at Penn Hall.

Eddie Wilkinson, of Oak Hall, is staying with his grandparents, Samuel Cobles, since Mrs. Coble is an invalid on a wheel chair.

Frank Lingle, who is working at Powell on the large tannery job, spent Sunday at home.

Hazel Brown, who had been employed at State College for several weeks, is home again.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donahay, of Tusseyville, took supper at the Daniel Pohringer home on Sunday.

George Cooper and Mr. Gerbes, of Johnstown, made their headquarters at the Fye home while doing a few days fishing in the mountain streams.

PROTECTION! THAT'S What Women Want! Women of Central Pennsylvania (many of your own Centre County people) are coming to the LADIES' BAZAAR for style at low prices and thorough reliability — the perfect protection that is BACK OF EVERY PURCHASE! A dress or a coat for $5.00 at this shop is NOT "a $5.00 garment." It is sold for $5.00 because "our profits are in pennies" The heads of this business punch the time-clock and work right along with the other salespeople. Keeping expenses down keeps selling prices lower. It has built up a splendid patronage—even in the very face of this 1932 depression. LADIES' BAZAAR prices are the kind that EVERY woman appreciates—LADIES' BAZAAR protection the kind that every woman wants. Now, isn't it silly and a sad waste of time to go dashing around for apparel when this policy of PROTECTION and ABSOLUTE SATISFACTION is operating so successfully here!

DENTISTS AND HYGIENISTS IN CONVENTION

Miss Sopenhaver, President of Central Pa. Association, Visits at Potters Mills. Maxie Copenhaver, of Tyrone, Helen Doll and Maxian Tomlinson, of Altoona, visited for a short while Thursday evening with Miss Copenhaver's mother, Mrs. H. E. Foust, of Potters Mills. The girls were returning home from Harrisburg where they had attended the three-day State convention of the Dentists and Dental Hygienists Association. Miss Copenhaver is president of the Central Pennsylvania Dental Hygienists' Association and was sent as representative delegate by that group.

Headquarters were at the beautiful Harrisburg, one of Harrisburg's newest hotels, directly facing Capitol Park which was most lovely in its new spring foliage. The exhibits were displayed in the building with the dental exhibits, the beautiful Zensho Mosque, on Division street.

The Harrisburg group are to be given much credit for the program prepared. The association members were privileged to hear lectures by outstanding doctors and dentists, known throughout the U. S., also brilliant women in the field of dental hygiene, such as Helen Blake Smith, president-elect of the National association.

The social functions were equally enjoyable. Tea at the Governor's Mansion with Mrs. Pinchot as the hostess; a bi-centennial luncheon at the Harrisburg, with the American Legion Quartette furnishing harmony during the meal; a mouth hygiene banquet with the dentists at the Penn Hotel, and dancing until two o'clock as a grand finale, a sight-seeing tour of the capitol, the glorious Education Building, and an hour's bus ride about the city. The convention closed with a formal banquet honoring the newly elected president, and presentation of the gavel.

Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eagle and Mr. and Mrs. Selgenhof of Shamokin, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reitz on Sunday.

Mr. S. A. Reitz, Esther and Alvin Reitz and Mrs. Mary Bohn, Mrs. Ethel Baird and Kenneth Baird attended the Lutheran Missionary convention at Nittany last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Jacob Meyer spent the week-end at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lee Brooks near Spring Mills.

Wilbur Houtz had a telephone installed in his residence recently.

The Young Ladies' class of the Lutheran S. S. held their regular meeting at the home of M. W. Goheen, guests of Miss Catherine R'ahel, on Tuesday evening.

The primary and grammar grades of the town school closed on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dale of Bellefonte spent Mother's Day at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale and Mrs. John Wert.

Mrs. W. W. White of Linden, Hall, was a caller in town, Friday.

Charles Wright, who has been seriously ill with scarlet fever and pneumonia, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burchfield and daughter, Miss Hazel, of Altoona, were guest of Mrs. John Jacobs on Sunday.

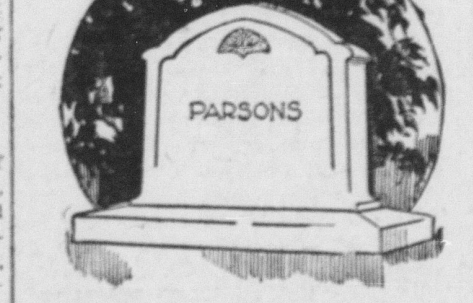

Miss Tabitha Patterson, of State College, is spending some time with her mother at the E. R. Tussey home while convalescing from a recent serious illness.

CAESARIAN OPERATION WHEN TWINS ARE BORN

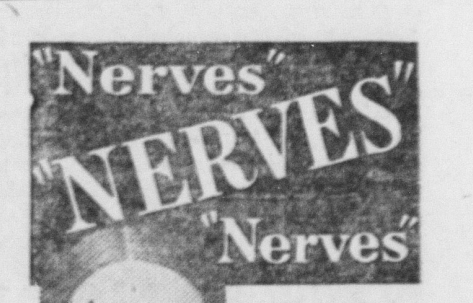

Twins, a boy and a girl, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Truman Meckley at the Lock Haven hospital one morning last week. Mrs. Meckley was Miss Helen Felts, of Jersey Shore and Lock Haven, before her marriage.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE—I have just installed the very latest equipment in my mill at Oak Hall to make chop. I am now making chop as fine and even as any hammer mill ever made it. I have increased my capacity, and I am in shape to make chop while you wait at 4 cents per bushel. Or I will come to your barn and haul a load of 50 to 60 bushels to mill, grind it, and return it home to you, at 5 cents per bu., charging you nothing for the hauling. Try my chop now, and you will like it better than any you ever had. Call phone 3722 Boalsburg, PENNA. CLAYTON ETTERS, Oak Hall Station, Penna. x20

Home Each Week "GOODBYE, SUE—" "Goodbye, Joe!" The car lurched forward, leaving Mrs. Saul alone on the farmhouse porch. A fifty-mile drive lay ahead of the travelers. "It's lonely for Mother," Sue observed as she tucked in the rug. "She ought to give up the farm." "She'd be miserable anywhere else," Joe replied. "All we can do is to visit her oftener." "Oftener!" Sue echoed. "We're there once a month!" Joe smiled. "Well, there's the telephone, you know. We could call her up each week. It wouldn't cost much—thirty-five cents, perhaps." Sue was surprised. "Is that all?" she exclaimed. "Then let's do it! Mother would be thrilled by a regular telephone date every Wednesday night!" The modern farm home has a telephone

Dr. Miles' NERVINE "Did the work" says Miss Glivar WHY DON'T YOU TRY IT? After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles' Nerveine which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter. If you suffer from "Nerves." If you lie awake nights, start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order. Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl. Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.
