ETHICS OF BANKING

By MELVIN A. TRAYLOR
President
First National Bank, Chicago

The function of a bank is, after all, a quasi-public one, and the banker who has no regard for the ultimate prosperity of his customers and his community will be very quickly condemned by the common sense of the latter, and will ultimately destroy not merely his own reputation but also bring about the downfall of his community.

Banker in Strategic Position
The banker has always held a strategic position in the business world, and obviously the first requisite necessary is that the banker shall be honest. I do not mean with "honest" merely that he should be honest to the extent that he would not embezzle funds or swindle his customers and clients. The honesty to which I refer must be of a much higher and greater type. He must be willing to forego momentary advantages because in the long run the specific action may bring harm to his customers or possibly to business generally.

Sentiment in Business
Sentiment in business? Yes, there is nothing else. What is it that prompts agitation for reforms in every avenue of life? Why is it we are interested in better agriculture, better roads, better schools, better community life? It is sentiment; it is affection; it is pride; it is sense of duty.
It is faith, confidence, hope, the intangible that forms the very woof and warp of modern business, and nowhere in so large a degree is this true as in banking, and in no sphere of banking to so great an extent as in the country bank.
Truly the work of the country banker touches the life of the community at every point, from the wedding chance to the cemetery, and at no point does it touch so lightly as at that of cold-blooded business consideration. It is sentiment from the opening hour until the closing hour, and many hours when no banking can be done.

DEATHS.

KENNELLY.—Mrs. R. Gates Kennelly passed out of this life on Friday afternoon after an illness of fifteen weeks due to complications which finally ended in a paralytic stroke, at her home at Spring Mills. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the home and later at the Georges Valley church with interment in the cemetery at that church. Rev. S. F. Greenhoe was the officiating minister, having been the pastor of the deceased, who was a member of the Spring Mills Lutheran church.

The deceased was Miss Minerva, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Kreamer, both deceased, and was born and reared in Rebersburg. She had attained the age of 72 years, 7 months and 5 days. Her husband, previously named, survives her, but no children. There also survive two sisters—Mabel, Mrs. Charles Gramley, Millersburg; and Fara, Mrs. Wm. J. Bierly, Emporium.

ROSSMAN.—Mrs. Susan Rossman died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Rebecca Cupp, in Bellefonte, on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, death being attributed to a complication of ailments. She was a native of Bellefonte and was born July 14, 1852. Surviving are the following daughters and sons—Mrs. Elizabeth Cohan, Mrs. Minnie Watson and Elmer Rossman, of Warren; Charles, of Franklin; Mrs. Rebecca Cupp, John, Isaac and James Rossman, of Bellefonte. She is also survived by two brothers and a sister, Milton and William Reed, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Margaret Mills, of Tyrone. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of her grand-daughter, Mrs. Wm. Morrison, Bellefonte, in charge of the Rev. G. E. Householder; interment in the Trezulyntz cemetery, Millsburg.

MAN SHOOTS SELF WHEN FACED WITH ARREST

While his sons awaited his arrival at Court in Bellefonte, Tuesday, Geo. Harris, 45, of near Phillipsburg, killed himself after an attempt to escape from a State highway patrolman.

Harris, together with his sons, George, Jr., 18, and Fred, 23, was indicted last week for receiving stolen goods. The sons appeared in court alone, and when the father did not arrive, an officer was sent for him. Harris saw Patrolman Finkbinder, of the Phillipsburg highway patrol detail, approaching. The patrolman reported the man fired one charge of a double-barreled shotgun at him during a chase in a field near Hale's Mine.

Harris then turned the gun on himself and fired the other charge through his heart.
A coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

C. C. LEAGUE RESULTS.

Centre Hall, 8; Lamar, 2.
Centre Hall went to Lamar Saturday and got into the "W" column by capturing the game by a 8-2 score. Snyder, a cub pitcher for the locals, started out to win a place in the hall of fame by not allowing a hit in 5 2-3 innings. He "blew" in the sixth, and after two runs had been scored by Lamar, Durst was called to the rescue. He prevented further scoring. No further details of the game are available, and because of the failure of the score keeper to present us with the box score, the same fails to appear.
Other games in the league played on Saturday, resulted as follows:
Howard, 13; Coburn, 0.
Millheim, 14; Rebersburg, 4.

Pleasant Gap, 8; Centre Hall, 6.
A five-inning twilight game, at Pleasant Gap, Tuesday evening, was won by the "Gap" team, 8 to 6, after Centre Hall apparently had the game in hand, leading by 6 runs to 2 at the close of the second. In this inning, the bases were loaded when Emery's single scored one; Gross fanned, but Stover's double to left emptied the sacks.
Kerstetter, who started on the mound for Pleasant Gap, was as wild as a March hare, and issued free passes so liberally that he was yanked and Fisher took his place. Stover's wallop which produced three runs, was the only effective blow against Fisher. He kept the locals from scoring in the last three innings.
Paul Martz, for the locals, pitched a good game, but his support was, in plain words, rotten. Infield and outfield errors contributed to the downfall. The game was as bad a one as a ball game could possibly be, and we trust the locals have worked all the bad stuff out of their systems and will get down to real work.

The score by innings:
Centre Hall—1 5 0 0 0—6
Pleasant Gap—2 0 6 0 0—8
Tuesday evening, Coburn defeated Millheim, 9 to 7.

This (Thursday) evening the Pleasant Gap team will play here, and on Saturday the highly-touted Howard team will make their first appearance. The Howard team, many believe, bids fair to win the league championship, in spite of the fact that such conclusions are a bit premature.

Children's day services will be held in the Lutheran church, Spring Mills, Sunday evening, June 14th.

WILBUR McCLELLAN SEATED IN INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Wilbur McClellan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McClellan, of town, on Monday entered the service of the Pennsylvania Department of Insurance, at an annual salary of $2160.00. His special work, it appears, is to assist in examination of insurance salesmen. He is in what is known as the Philadelphia office, in Harrisburg.

The young man is a graduate of the Centre Hall High school, and later took a course in a Harrisburg institution preparatory for the class of work he is now engaged in. He is the second C. H. H. S. graduate to land an appointment under Governor Pinchot within a month, the other fortunate youth being Clayton McKinney, recently made an assistant forester.

REBEKAHS HELD MEETING HERE ON MONDAY

Thirteen Rebekah lodges in Centre county were represented at a county meeting held here on Monday afternoon and evening. The evening session showed an attendance of 230 members. Mary McVay, of Brownsville, president of the State Rebekah Assembly, was present at both meetings. The degree team from the State College lodge put on the degree work. In the afternoon a school of instruction on degree work proved very beneficial to officers and degree teams present. Mrs. J. H. Knarr is district deputy of the Southern District in Centre county, to which district the local lodge belongs.

SPORTSMEN'S ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED AT SPRING MILLS

A meeting of sportsmen was held at Spring Mills on Thursday evening of last week, for the purpose of forming an organization consisting of individuals interested in outdoor life. The outgrowth of which was the forming of the Spring Mills Fish and Game Association. About thirty-five enrolled as members at this time which is considered a good showing.
The purpose of the association is that of rearing trout, in large numbers, and ring neck pheasants, as well as securing various other game for liberation throughout this section of Centre county. A committee has already inspected pools where small trout are now being reared and are now negotiating for a site to begin the project at the earliest possible date.

The next meeting of the association will be held June 16, in the Vocational School building, at which time it is hoped a goodly number will be in attendance from other sections of the county, as it is the purpose of the association to increase its membership as rapidly as possible, for the larger the membership the greater the accomplishments. Information relative to the association as well as membership therein, can be secured at Meyer Brothers Garage, Smith and Corman Furniture store, or B. G. Meyers. If you are an outdoor enthusiast, you should be a member of the organization.

WEST PENN POWER REDUCES ELECTRIC RATES

Effective June 15th, the West Penn Power Company will put into operation a new schedule of rates considerably lower than that in force at present. The reduction is voluntary on the part of the company, and although the present rates for domestic and commercial uses is very reasonable compared with that in other companies, similarly situated, the reduction will be appreciated. The company anticipates an increase in the use of current consumed and in this way expects to cover the difference between the two rates. The company states the cost of production of electricity has not lessened during the past two years, except as its use has increased.

FARMERS, TAKE NOTICE—I have just installed the very latest equipment in my mill at Oak Hall to make chop. I am now making chop as fine and even as any hammer mill ever made it. I have increased my capacity, and I am in shape to make chop while you wait at 4 cents per bushel. Or I will come to your barn and haul a load of 50 to 60 bushels to mill, grind it, and return it home to you, at 5 cents per bushel, charging you nothing for the hauling. Try my chop now, and you will like it better than any you ever had. Call phone 2TR2 Boalsburg.—CLAYTON ETERS, Oak Hall Station, Penna. x20

Home Each Week
"GOODBYE, SUE—Goodbye, Joe!" The car lurched forward, leaving Mrs. Saul alone on the farmhouse porch. A fifty-mile drive lay ahead of the travelers.
"It's lonely for Mother," Sue observed as she tucked in the rug. "She ought to give up the farm."
"She'd be miserable anywhere else," Joe replied. "All we can do is to visit her oftener."
"Oftener!" Sue echoed. "We're there once a month!"
Joe smiled. "Well, there's the telephone, you know. We could call her up each week. It wouldn't cost much—thirty-five cents, perhaps."
Sue was surprised. "Is that all?" she exclaimed. "Then let's do it! Mother would be thrilled by a regular telephone date every Wednesday night!"
