

Wieland and Alexander Families Gather in Annual Reunions

WIELAND FAMILY HOLDS FIRST REUNION, AT GRANGE PARK

An interesting group of the Wieland family, composed largely of the fifth, sixth and seventh generations, direct descendants of Michael Wieland, who with his brother came to this country from Stuttgart, Germany, in 1767, held their first reunion at Grange Park on July 4th.

Michael Wieland settled in New Holland, Lancaster county, and his brother purchased 300 acres of land one-half mile south of what is now West Milton, at that time more or less of a wilderness.

In this gathering were relatives only, the number being seventy-five of which ten were juniors. They hailed from Blair, Bedford, Northumberland, Huntingdon, Montgomery and Centre counties. Dr. W. C. Bartol, a near kin, now 85 years of age, and for 50 years a member of Bucknell University faculty, now retired, was chief historian and honor guest. He brought a wealth of family history and data much of which was first-hand, supplemented by sketches of the pioneer families, and writings in Linn's "Annals of Buffalo Valley," connecting the family history with actual combats with Indians and of service rendered the government in Revolutionary days. Some heirlooms were shown, consisting of old portraits.

Letters of regret were read, received from those too far away to attend. A permanent organization was effected. It is the purpose of the descendants to meet annually at the same time and place.

A complete register of the Wieland gathering follows:

Sunbury—Mr. and Mrs. Daniel T. Wieland, Daniel S. Wieland, Linden Hall—Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Wieland, Mildred Wieland, Norristown—Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Brouse, Fredrick Wieland and Frank Wieland Brouse.

Hellman, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Albert and children, Carl, Eugene, Ross Jr., Cathryn, Calvin Albert; Naomi Hellman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Keeney and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Cemens Fasolt, Conrad Dean Fasolt.

Reading—Mrs. Clarence Fake and daughter Mary Louise.

Bedford—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Garbrick, Winona Garbrick, Catherine Garbrick.

Lewisburg—Wm. C. Bartol, Lewis E. Theiss, Mary E. Theiss.

State College—Blanche L. Wieland, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wieland, Miss Alice Pennington, Donald W. Wieland, Phoebe Wieland, Alfred Wieland, Centre Hall—Mrs. Mary E. Neff, Altoona—John F. Ziegler, Mrs. John F. Ziegler.

Boalsburg—Mrs. W. J. Klinger, Charlotte E. Klinger, John W. Klinger, Kenneth W. Klinger.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Frederick Stamm, Mary O. Stamm, Margaret Stamm.

Huntingdon—Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hall, D. Virginia Hall, E. Chai, Free, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Banks, Wm. R. Banks, Jr., Mrs. J. Frank Schock, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schock, Wm. W. Schock, Jack Schock, Robert Schock.

Cleona—Mrs. J. Wm. Snyder, M. Jane Snyder, James W. Snyder.

ALEXANDERS GATHER IN 18TH ANNUAL REUNION

The eighteenth annual Alexander reunion was held at Kishacoquillas park, Burnham, Sunday, July 3rd. The morning was spent in greeting relatives and at noon lunch was served.

The afternoon was taken up by a business meeting. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year—President, William Alexander, Sr., Harrisburg; vice-president, Harry Harbacher, Sr., Shamokin; secretary and treasurer, Ms. Luella Deckman, Yeagertown.

The oldest member present was W. P. Alexander, Sr., of Harrisburg. The youngest member present was Arlene Harmon, Milroy. The one traveling the farthest in order to attend the reunion was Jay Alexander who came from New York State.

Those attending were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Alexander, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Emerick, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Alexander, Jr., and children, G. Carlisle; Jay Alexander, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Eisenhuth and daughter Grace, of Woodward; Edward McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McMullen and children, of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. George Holbrook and children, of Newton-Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. John Curry and children, Mrs. Luella Deckman and son Marcellus, of Yeagertown; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shirk and children, Spring Mills; Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander and daughters, of Burnham; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lohman and sons, of Lewistown; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harmon and children, of Milroy.

The following visitors were present: Oscar Gumbo State College; Miss Dorothy Knode, Yeagertown; Miss Peggy Taylor, Harrisburg; Albert Banks, of Mount Union.

The next reunion will be held at Kishacoquillas Park on July 4, 1933.

SNOW SHOE MOUNTAIN SCENE OF FATAL ACCIDENT

Bellefonte Man Dies of Injuries in the Centre County Hospital

George Oscar Grubb, of Bellefonte, died at the Centre County hospital Sunday at 7:30 P. M., from injuries received when the automobile in which he was a passenger, overturned on Snow Shoe mountain four hours earlier.

The accident happened near the railroad crossing when James Bird, of Bellefonte, R. D., driver of the automobile, lost control of the car on a straight stretch of highway, and while he was trying to get back on the road the car upset, turning over four times. Bird suffered lacerations of the head.

Mr. Grubb was taken to the hospital by Mack Wetzler, of Milesburg. His injuries consisted of a fracture of the skull, the crushing of his chest, and a puncture of the lungs.

Mr. Grubb, who was a native of Nittany, was aged 49 years. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Estright and Betty Jane, both at home. Two sisters and six brothers also survive, all living at a distance except Mrs. Harry Bloom, of Bellefonte, and Charles Grubb, of Coleville.

Return from Southern Trip.

Misses Ruth Craine, of Juniata, and Anna Mary Hess, of Boalsburg, teachers in Harris township, have just returned home from an extended visit with friends and relatives of Charleston, South Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. M. Stodghill (nee Nelle Kimpert), formerly of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Stodghill have lived in Charleston for the past five years, so were able to show the ladies many historical points and finest beaches, Polly and Isle of Palms, where they enjoyed dancing and bathing.

Taking advantage of their visit they also took an educational tour through parts of Georgia and Florida, visiting some of the oldest cities, Savannah, Jacksonville and St. Augustine. The Fountain of Youth, Fort Marion, Old-set Home in U. S., and orange groves, were also seen.

On their way South via Greyhound bus, their trip was made most pleasant by stopping at Washington, D. C., Richmond, Va., Greensboro, N. C., and other cities of interest. Their return trip was made on the "Malory" of the Clyde-Mallory lines, to New York City.

BELLEFONTE LUTHERAN CHURCH TO BE EXTENSIVELY REMODELED

The Lutheran church, in Bellefonte, will be remodeled at an expense of $5,000, the contract to do the work having been let to Ross Wallace, of Milesburg. Rev. Clarence E. Arnold is the pastor.

According to the present plans the stucco finish of the edifice and the outer casing of brick will be entirely removed and replaced with Watson-town tapestry satin finish brick.

Potters Mills B. B. Club Festival a Success.

The festival held by the Potters Mills baseball club was well attended although weather conditions were most unfavorable. Frank P. Phillips rendered valuable assistance in installing his lighting system on the ground so that here would be nothing lacking in the way of light.

Two chief attractions appeared to be the wrestling match and boxing bout. The contestants in the boxing bout were Wm. Foust, of Potters Mills, and Dick Daley, of Reedsville. The rounds were peppy and applause as wallops were landed. The referee declared the contest a draw.

In wrestling the honors were given George Smith, of Centre Hill, who put down his opponent, Russell Sweetwood, of Potters Mills, three out of five falls. There was a great struggle for causer the last fall, extending over a long period with Smith coming out the victor.

Saturday evening, August 6th, the ball club will complete its festival activities begun with the one beginning of this month.

The club members are grateful for the patronage extended and promise to even better entertain on August 6th.

S. M. Fish and Game Assoc. Meeting.

The Spring Mills Fish and Game Association will hold a regular monthly meeting in the Vocational school building, Thursday evening, July 14, at 8:00 o'clock. The subject of rearing trout will be discussed. Anyone interested in better fishing is invited to attend.

MEEKER-MCKINNEY.

On Thursday evening, June 30th, at 9:00 o'clock, John F. Meeker, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Meeker, of Potter township, and Miss Freda E. McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. McKinney, of Potters Mills were united in marriage at the Reformed parsonage in Centre Hall by Rev. D. R. Keener.

The happy young couple planned to center their wedding trip around Baltimore, Md., and Washington, D. C. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Wrestling proved to be less hazardous to Ted Reylitz '32, a Penn State wrestler, than that of climbing a tree. The former athlete fell from a cherry tree, at his home and broke his back, resulting in his death.

At the Lewisburg hospital an operation was performed last week, on Levi Drink, of Liverpool, for the removal of a shot from the left eye. The shot had entered the eye more than twelve years ago, in a hunting accident, but had not caused trouble until recently.

FOUR-H CLUB CAMP VALUABLE EXPERIENCE FOR FARM BOYS

Someone has said, "If you want to know what kind of a chap he is, camp with him for a week." Plenty of 4-H club boys will find this out for themselves after they have attended Treasurers Valley 4-H Club Camp during the week of July 25th, County Agent R. C. Blaney stated this week.

Mr. Blaney gave some of the reasons for planning this affair which will bring together 4-H club boys from nine counties. Every boy years for an opportunity to camp out, to play "in fun." Cooperation is the watchword for agriculture. Boys who learn to play together will work together too.

How many times has a vexatious delay been caused on the average farm by the tearing of the hay rope? If only someone knew how to splice a rope perhaps several loads of valuable hay could have been saved from ruin by rain that came in the meantime. Rope splicing, knot tying, and halter making will be taught to all those who attend this camp, the county agent stated.

How many farm boys know anything about the value of different trees? The camp program calls for instruction in forestry, too. One whole day will be given over to the study of this subject.

Does your boy know how to swim? Swimming instructors and lifeguards will be on duty at all times the boys are enjoying the swimming facilities at Camp Treasurers Valley. Many farm boys learned to swim while attending 4-H club camps held during the summer of 1930.

County Agent R. C. Blaney is now receiving applications from 4-H club boys for camp. Those interested can get more details from the Agricultural Extension office in the Court House at Bellefonte.

SHEEP AND WOOL GROWERS ASS'N ELECT OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the Centre County Sheep and Wool Growers Association was held in the Court House at Bellefonte, Wednesday evening of last week, with the president, R. P. Campbell, of Penna. Cave, in the chair. This county-wide organization of sheep men, numbering approximately 190 have been active for a period of thirteen years in Centre county.

The organization market on a cooperative plan approximately 14,990 pounds of wool produced by the growers in the county each year. Since the association was organized they have marketed 140,429 pounds of wool at an average increase in return to the growers of 7 1/2 cents per pound or a net increase in profits due to the pool plan of selling their wool of $19,522.92.

Bids on the 1932 pool were opened at the meeting on Wednesday evening. The highest bid was 19.50¢ per pound flat on wool f. o. b. Bellefonte. The members of the association rejected these bids feeling that there is a possibility of the market getting stronger within the next month or six weeks when they will again ask for bids.

The following officers and directors were elected for the coming year—President, R. P. Campbell, Centre Hall; vice-president, J. K. Alexander, Fleming; secretary and treasurer, W. C. Smeltzer, Bellefonte; directors—Harvey Hoy, Bellefonte; P. C. McKenzie, State College; W. E. Weight, Bellefonte; C. T. Sellers, Port Matilda; I. O. Campbell, Penna. Furnace.

MILEAGE RATE REDUCED; APPOINTIVE OFFICERS AFFECTED

Another step forward in the reduction of county expenses was made by the Centre County Commissioners when they adopted a new mileage rate for county employes, effective August 1st, this year. The new rate cuts allowance for traveling expenses from 10 cents to 7 cents a mile, and will result in an annual saving of several thousand dollars, Commissioner John Searly estimated.

Those who will be affected by the new ruling are Deserion, Probation and Parole Officer Roy Wilkinson, County Detective Leo Boden, Juvenile Court Officer Wm. C. Thompson, and Sealer of Weights and Measures W. A. Bowes, of Blanchard.

Ball Club Appreciates Patronage at Festival.

The festival held on the Fourth and the Saturday evening previous, by the local league ball team, although interfered with by excessive cold weather for this season of the year, netted the club a fair sum. Weather conditions forced the removal of the outfield from the school grounds to better quarters, which was found in the Booser storage garage. All cars were removed giving ample room for the various booths, a section for the band and seating capacity for several hundred persons. The I. O. O. F. band of Bellefonte was employed both evenings, and rendered music as pleasing to the ear as the appearance of the personnel of the members was to the eye.

The ball club members are appreciative of the patronage of the public and will endeavor to return the compliment by playing ball to the best of their ability.

The paste on the back of the new 3-cent U. S. postage stamps is not better to the taste than that we licked off the 2-cent stamps for many years back.

NOT TODAY—SOME OTHER DAY, SAYS PROSPECTIVE GROOM

The generosity of Centre Hall's justice, C. W. Slack, failed to meet the requirements of a prospective groom's purse. During the week of the 4th, a car, not of the least expensive, stopped before Slack's seat of justice, and shortly a young man—one of four passengers in it—alighted, stepped into the justice's office, and this conversation took place:

The Prospective Groom: "Do you marry couples?" "Yes," said the justice.

The P. G.: "What do you charge?" "The law allows a charge of $5.00 for this service," said the justice, "but this is Leap year, and because of it, I present the bride with one-half the fee."

The P. G.: "Good; I'll see." The p. g. went to the well equipped car, held a consultation with the prospective bride and companions, and returned to the "court."

P. G.: "We can't raise the money, but we may be back in a few days."

The "few days" are gone, but there has been no return call for marrying services on a fifty-fifty split with the bride.

LOW BID FOR ROAD OVER THE RIDGE IS $117,496

The low bid for the construction of 3.22 miles of concrete road on State Highway route No. 250, is $117,496. This includes a one-span through plate girder bridge over Bald Eagle creek. David Bailey, of Morrisdale, placed the bid.

This section of road is an extension of Route No. 250, beginning at the western terminus of the road where it intersects with Route No. 550 through Buffalo Run Valley, across the ridge to Route No. 229 through Bald Eagle Valley. The intersection of the new road with the Bald Eagle Valley road is a short distance west of Julian.

Three sections of Route No. 250, beginning at Potters Mills, will soon be under construction. The first section begins three-fourths mile west of Potters Mills and extends to Boalsburg, a distance of 8.74 miles. This contract is let to Robert G. Lassiter Company, Raleigh, N. C., for $210,256.

Bids for another section between Boalsburg and State College will be opened on July 22nd.

When these sections are completed there will be a continuous concrete road from Potters Mills to the intersection of Route No. 226, near Julian.

MILLHEIM REDUCES TAXES.

Millheim borough adopted a tax program two mills less than last year: Borough tax—11 mills, same as last year.

Building tax—3 mills, a reduction of one mill.

Poor tax—3 mills a reduction of one mill.

2800 ENROLL AT "STATE" FOR SUMMER SESSION

The enrollment for the Summer Session at Pennsylvania State College was 2800 on Wednesday of last week. The attendance since then has been slightly increased by short-period students. The opening enrollment is about 300 short of a year ago.

For the first time, the number of men registered for the summer courses compares favorably with women with almost a 50-50 ratio established. In former years it was usually a ratio of one man to four or five women students.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

We are now a bit more than half way through 1932.

Miss Marion Ethel Dale, of Bellefonte, is a visitor in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Leister, of near Potters Mills, made a business call at this office on Friday.

The second official automobile inspection for 1932 is on and will continue to the end of this month.

Miss Vera Brungart, of Washington, D. C., attended the funeral of William Meyer, a relative, at Boalsburg.

Miss Marion Spangler, of New York City, recently visited her father, Howard Spangler, in Centre Hall, and also relatives in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Blaine Malone and children, Marie, William and Yvonne, of Coburn, were guests recently of the former's stepfather, R. M. Smith, in town.

The ninth Brungart family reunion is set to take place on Saturday, August 20th, at Woodward Cave. It is in celebration of the 150th year of the Brungarts in America.

Bond O. Musser, of Millheim former manager of the Shaffer store in that place, is now employed in York in the Richey garage. The Musser family will remain in Millheim.

Miss Sarah Benner, one of Bellefonte's oldest residents, celebrated her 88th birthday anniversary recently at her home on High street, where she has lived all her life.

Rev. Edgar R. Heckman, pastor of the Methodist church in Bellefonte, following Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, when a boy lived with his parents in Centre Hall for several years, during which time his father served the Penns Valley Methodist pastorate.

Rev. Robert Thoma, who for almost seven years has been pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church, has received a call to become pastor of the Heidelberg Reformed church, at York. Although the congregation regrets the act, it feels the pastor will accept the call.

The Court, recently, appointed Edward J. Thompson and Philip E. Womelsdorf, of Phillipsburg, and James R. Reish, of Potter township, viewers to assess the damage accruing to the Gambia estate for the seizure of the "island" in Spring creek by Bellefonte Borough.

Mrs. Beers, widow of the late Congressman E. M. Beers, will receive $10,000, a year's salary of a Congressman, which the government provides for the widow of a deceased congressman. The provision is a statutory one, and requires no special legislation for its fulfillment.

Miss Helen Odenkirk, the beginning of this month, completed a course in the Williamsport Business College, and is now at her home here awaiting a call for the line of work she is especially fitted. She is a graduate of the local high school and is well prepared for a position in the business world.

Miss Miriam Mitterling, on Friday, returned from Highspire where she was a guest of Rev. Fred W. Barry and family. When taken to the Dauphin county town by her parents, she was accompanied by Miriam's chums, Misses Hazel Lutz and Thelma Clark, who remained only for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillips and three sons, of Potters Mills, recently made an auto trip to Elmira and Watkins Glen. While in Elmira the family was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheesley. Mrs. Sheesley, formerly Mary Fohringer, being an aunt of Mrs. Phillips. Mr. Sheesley is employed in one of the Sears Roebuck retail stores in Elmira, and like Mrs. Fohringer is a native of this section.

Atlantic City beach was the attraction for Misses Estella Hosterman, Ida Frazier, Martha Yearick, Louise Smith, Elizabeth Bartholomew and Agnes Geary, all of town, during a part of their vacation period. It was the first "dip" in the Atlantic for some of them, and those who repeated enjoyed the sand and water equally as well. The party traveled by train, going and returning by way of Lewistown.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Rumberger and interesting children, Robert and Jean, of Harrisburg, on their way to Hubersburg, the old home of the former, to spend a part of their vacation, stopped for a short time with the Reporter. Mr. Rumberger, formerly a salesman for a firm handling musical instruments, several years ago switched to the sale of life insurance and has built up a nice trade. Insurance companies, he said, proved the means of preventing many financial wrecks in and about Harrisburg by their loan system.

The accounting, auditing and tax consulting firms of D. Earl Fleming, S. C. Greaves & Co., and Robert Atkins, of New York City, announce their consolidation under the firm name of Greaves, Fleming & Atkins, with offices at 225 Broadway, effective since July 1st. Mr. Fleming, a former town youth, although long engaged in business in the great city of New York, retains his interest in the old home section, and there are many of our readers who in turn are interested in his progress as repeatedly noted in the Reporter columns.

Seven Mts. Hunting Camps Entered and Robbed

Nancy Lingel, Kenneth Sibbs and Harry Helms, of Potter township, at a hearing before Justice C. W. Slack, in Centre Hall, pleaded guilty to breaking, entering and larceny, and were sent to jail in the absence of bail for a hearing in court. Later the former was released upon bail being furnished by her father, Frank Lingel, in the Colyer region.

The parties were arrested by Mifflin county authorities. Searches were made of the homes of Roland Fyo and Frank Lingel, where an extensive collection of camp equipment was found, among the lot being four rifles. Members of the Felton camp, who come from York county, and whose camp is located at Heckendorn's gap, west of Colyer, identified a number of articles belonging to them.

It is reported that in the Seven Mt. region within a small area ten camps had been broken into and articles removed. In one instance a stove was brought to the camp door, but could not be gotten through it, and was left stand.

Potter Township Taxpapers Get More Cuts from Officers

Taxpayers in Potter township are in luck in having a generous as well as efficient set of township officials. Some time ago the school board managed to secure refunds, which together with other savings made a net reduction in taxes of about $1000.00, and at a recent meeting of the township auditors the tax collector, Miss Ruth Royer, offered to take a cut of ten per cent on the collection of school taxes. The treasurer of the school board, George H. McCormick, whose term just expired, permitted a like shave on his commission, and M. A. Burkholder, the incoming treasurer, did likewise. The township auditors, Messrs. H. F. Musser, J. F. Treaster and John Bubb, from the meager sum allowed for their services, unhesitatingly chipped a tenth, and to complete the program, $1.00 was deducted from the sum paid each of the three enumerators of school children in the township.

If this idea were carried out in the State, the governor could soon send home his legislators, for there would be little additional money needed to accomplish what the legislature was called together to do.

CENTRE COUNTY RECEIVES $15,295 RELIEF FUNDS

Centre county received a check for $15,295 from the State representing its share under the Talbot bill. Centre Hall received the smallest amount of any of the thirty-six poor districts, which sum was $19.95.

The amounts received by south side districts and the number of unemployed in them, and the three districts receiving the largest amounts are given below:

District	No. unemployed.	Amount
