DEATHS.

FRAZIER—Poster Wilson Frazier died at his home along Sinking Creek east of Centre Hill, in Potter township, Monday evening at 10.30 o'clock. He had not been in good health for some time, and had been confined to bed for several days prior to his death, which was directly due to a heart affection. Funeral services will be held from the home, with interment in the cemetery at Centre Hall, this (Thursday) afternoon, Rev. W. E. Smith, of the Evangelical church, being in charge. Mr. Frazier was a son of Daniel F. and Eliza Emerick Frazier, and was born in Potter township, May 21, 1866, making his age 66 years, 1 month and 27 days. He is survived by a wife, who before marriage was Miss Anna Lee and four children, namely, Lee W., an attorney at Painesville, Ohio; Earl F., on the farm where the father died; Miss Iva and Harriet M., wife of Daniel S. Dupp, Centre Hall. There also survive him two brothers and a sister—Jeremiah Derry; James, Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. David Rimmer, of Pleasant Gap—and two half-brothers and a half sister—Charles and Alfred Frazier, Stockton, Ill., and Mrs. David Knapp, McVeytown. Mr. Frazier was a farmer by occupation and lived on various rented farms prior to purchasing one of the Grove farms along Sinking creek, where he lived until his death. He, however, discontinued farming some years ago when his son took up the work. He was counted a good farmer and manager; where others failed he succeeded, but during his whole life was solely dependent on his own resources.

N. Fry, officiated at the funeral services held in the home. Interment was made in the Lutheran-Reformed cemetery, Rebersburg. Surviving are three daughters, Miss M. Byrd Stover, of Rebersburg; Mrs. D. Blanche Small, of Harrisburg; and Mrs. John Meyer, of Somerset. YOUR LOCAL PAPER AND ITS INFLUENCE. The following was taken from a circular sent to retail merchants by a large wholesale house: The value of your local newspaper to the success of your business cannot be overestimated. It's worth all the support and cooperation you can give it. For the newspaper is a mirror reflecting the life of the community in which you and your store have an important part. Your advertisement is the reflection of your own store in this mirror. If it is not there, the mirror is dark where your store should be seen. Your store is open for business, but "out of sight, out of mind." To keep in step with the progress of your community; to get your share of business, you must advertise regularly. Take your newspaper publisher into your confidence; he can give you invaluable assistance. Establish an advertising budget. Plan a regular schedule for your advertisements. It's a policy that is followed by the most successful stores; it's an idea that will be profitable for you.
