BASEBALL

Where Centre Hall Plays:

Thursday evening, July 21—Centre Hall at Howard.

Saturday, July 23—Bellefonte at Centre Hall.

Orviston, 6; Centre Hall, 2.

Orviston, the team which took Co-burn's place in the Centre County League, has proved a thorn in the side of the local club. Three times within two weeks they defeated Centre Hall, while the locals have yet to score a victory. Last Thursday evening's game, at Orviston, was a defeat again due to the lack of the necessary punch. Only six hits were registered, while Orviston got nine off Harry Gross.

Page Mr. Ripley for the strangest play of the season: In the third inning, Gray for Orviston, hit a single to left field—a fly ball falling short of the fielder. Fetterolf attempted a catch and Emery left his center field position to back-up Fetterolf. The ball struck Fetterolf's shoe tip and then, as a football player would send a dropkick, the ball was booted for a great distance in the center field direction, which Emery had left open, and the batter circled the bases for a home run, on an ordinary single. The score:

Centre Hall, 4; Lamar 3.

Durst and Goodhart were the pair who were responsible for the victory over Lamar, on Saturday at Centre Hall. The locals took what looked like a safe lead in the very first inning when they scored two runs on Lamar's loose fielding and Stover's 2-bagger. But that was all the scoring for some time. Lamar, under the clever pitching of Jamison for 7 innings, was held scoreless, but in the 8th Jamison yielded three hits which Lamar turned into two runs to tie the score. The ninth saw Durst on the mound but he had difficulty in getting started, passing one, hitting another, and then allowing Hines to hit safely, who scored later on an outfield fly. The locals in their half of the 9th evened the score on Durst's hit and Goodhart's 2-bagger. Durst pitched excellently in the 10th and 11th innings, allowing no hits, and when Centre Hall came up in the last half of the 11th, the Durst-Goodhart combination again clicked precisely as it did in the 9th. Durst got a scratch infield hit, and Bradford, running for him stole second. Goodhart aimed for right field from the port side of the plate, and sent the ball into an uncovered spot in right field, scoring Bradford with the winning run and terminating the game. The score:
