Cars driven in Bellefonte by Curt Russell and Charles Houser collided on the corner of Howard and Wilson streets, which resulted in the Houser car upsetting and to some extent injuring a younger brother of the driver. Both cars were badly damaged.

The Kohl brothers are putting down blast holes, opposite the McClenahan farm buildings, at Tussey Sink, where the Shoemaker brothers, who are grading for the new concrete road from Tusseyville to Boalsburg. A cut is being made through a ridge at the place named.

The girls are having a most delightful vacation at grandma's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. F. Lingle and daughter, Arlene, Edward Rickenbaugh, and Mrs. Polly Rickenbaugh, mother of the latter, and Mrs. Lingle, came to Centre Hall on Sunday to attend the From-Peters reunion held at Grange Park that day. The bank robbery at Laporte, Sullivan county, at noon on Tuesday, created some stir among the constabulary and State Highway patrolmen, a number of whom were stationed at Old Fort after receiving information that the bandits were coming this way. They failed to appear. The bandits got but $550. The cashier of the bank, the First National, was alone when the bandits entered. "REGULARS" BEAT "CHEVYS," 5-0

A test of strength on the ball diamond, between two Centre Hall baseball clubs—the "Regulars," connected with the Centre County league, and the "Chevrolet" team, on Wednesday evening of last week, resulted in the former shutting out the Chevys 5 to 0 in 7 innings. It was a good ball game in spite of the shut out, and not one of the "Regular's" run was earned, for the "Chevys" imported a Mifflin county battery—and was it sweet? It was. The trouble was the "Chevys" defense was bad, and balls which should have been easy outs, got away from fielders, turning "outs" into runs.

C. H. Scouts vs. Spring Mills, 9-4

The Spring Mills aggregation is under the management and training of Harold Meyer, with Russell Condo as a help-out, while the Scouts are being drilled by Curt Reiber.
