The Bureau of Motor Vehicles says one-fifth of the motor vehicle operators are women. Judging from the way a lot of men take their share out of the middle of the road, makes one think a much larger majority of auto drivers are of the opposite sex.

A distribution of $7,000 is to be made among the 939 depositors of the defunct Snow Shoe bank. If equally divided, less than ten dollars would go to each depositor, indicating that the percentage of the money to be repaid is very low.

Mrs. Emeline Coldron is having her dwelling house roofed with composition shingles. The work is being done by her son, J. M. Coldron. Mrs. H. G. Strohmeier is also having her cottage improved by having an asbestos shingle roof laid on it.

Cars driven by Fred E. Lauder, of Lewisport and Richard Barger, of Spring Mills, came together with a light crash on Nittany Mountain Barge. It is alleged, was crowded off the highway by Lauder, who was driving a sedan. The drivers were uninjured and damage to cars was light.

The hog price in June was the lowest in fifty-two years, while at the same time the number of hogs marketed was the lightest since 1883. The price has since increased more than two dollars per hundred, a little more than the usual increase in the period from June to September. A further increase is looked for before September.

W. H. Bartholomew, Mrs. Rebecca Romig, and Miss Jennie Bartholomew, with Miss Helen Bartholomew at the wheel, on Friday, drove down through Nittany Valley, and took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smull, at Mackeyville. On Sunday the same persons together with C. D. Bartholomew, motored to Curwensville and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kittleberger.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Burkholder and children, two daughters and a son, of Edgworth, were guests of the former's brother, M. A. Burkholder, and family, near town. Mr. Burkholder stopped here on his way to State College, where he spoke before an "Institute of Urban Problems," being himself a borough manager. Brief reference is made to his talk in another column in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Catherman and three children are here from Minot, North Dakota, and for a few days last week were guests of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Slack. Mr. Catherman went West from Union county twenty-five years ago and worked his way up to the position of engineer on the Great Northern Railroad. He manages to get back to Pennsylvania every four or five years.

Guests of Miss Laura Runkle at the Centre Hall hotel, during the past week were: Mrs. Katie Miller, of Pittsburgh, over the week-end; on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Runkle and son, of Shamokin; on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Gross R. Miss Mildred Smith, a graduate of the institution, holds a responsible position in the same institution.

The State Department of Health goes to some considerable effort to inform the public that an offensive odor, the foulest smell, may be no real danger to health. A smell may be so unpleasant as to cause nausea, and still be free from harmful germs as a zephyr from a flower garden. Now that we know that we ought to feel relieved when we pass through some sections.

Ralph Ziegler, tenant on one of the Allison farms, north of Spring Mills, will become the tenant on the Baird farm, near Centre Hall, next spring. The former lived on the Allison farm for fifteen years, and will succeed Michael Delaney, who has a record of nineteen years on the Baird farm. This information was obtained from Mr. Baird, who with his good wife stopped at this office on Friday on a visit to the former farm home.
