BASEBALL

Where Centre Hall Plays:

Thursday, August 18—Orviston at Centre Hall.

Saturday, August 20—Bellefonte at Centre Hall.

Howard, 5; Centre Hall, 3.

Impotent bats again spelled defeat for Centre Hall, at home, last Thursday evening when the Howard team fought every inch of the way to a 5-3 victory. Only five hits were made off Kline and Renninger, the latter replacing Kline in the fifth when it appeared the locals had solved Kline. The change was a good one, for the locals were unable to get anything resembling a safe hit off Renninger.

Paul Martz made a home run in the first inning on a drive over the left field fence. In the fourth, the locals had an opportunity for scoring several runs, but paid too heavy a price for a single tally: Crawford opened with a two-bagger; Stover walked, and with first and second occupied, the following two batters sacrificed to bring in a lone tally—purchased at entirely too heavy a cost. The next batter fanned. Jamison opened for the locals and was replaced by Durst in the third. Both were hit with equal effectiveness by the Howard team. The box score:

Millheim, 6; Centre Hall, 5.

Millheim batted out a 9th inning victory over Centre Hall on the latter's grounds, Saturday, winning 6 to 5 in a heavy tussle. Millheim had 9 hits and Centre Hall 8, one of which was a home run drive by "Chick" Goodhart in the 3rd inning, scoring one ahead of him. Details of the game are lacking, but the box score, if studied, perhaps may prove enlightening:
