DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

President of the U. S. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT New York.

For Vice-President of U. S. JOHN N. GARNER Texas.

United States Senator LAWRENCE H. RUPP Lehigh County.

State Treasurer L. B. SHANNON Jefferson County.

Auditor General WILSON G. SARIG Berks County.

Judge of the Supreme Court EDWARD C. HIGBEE Fayette County.

Judges of the Superior Court ROBERT H. HENDERSON Blair County.

GEORGE P. DOUGLASS Philadelphia.

GEO. H. McWHERTER Westmoreland County.

Congress FREDERICK B. KERR Clearfield County.

General Assembly ROBERT J. MILLER State College.

Col. Frederick B. Kerr was in town on Saturday afternoon and in the absence of the writer called at this office. Everybody in Clearfield county knows Frederick B. Kerr, like a large number in the adjoining counties, including Blair and Centre, which are joined with Clearfield as the Twenty-third Congressional District. No citizen of the Commonwealth stands higher than does Colonel Kerr. His record as citizen, soldier, business executive, neighbor and friend is all in every respect. He is a native of Clearfield, son of the late Congressman James Kerr, who was so close to the hearts of the people of this part of Pennsylvania for many years prior to his passing in 1908. Colonel Kerr needs no eulogy. Every citizen knowing him can and will attest his honesty, integrity, his general usefulness unselfishly given and manifested in every community endeavor. He is the Democratic candidate for congress and will receive the united support of his party.

It took three pitchers and either a crook or an outright ignoramus for an umpire for the Bellefonte baseball team to win off the local team on the school ground diamond here on Saturday. The most regrettable feature is that the Bellefonte manager was willing to permit his team to profit by such pronounced unfair decisions and that the large number of Bellefonte rooters had no better sense of good sportsmanship. And the rooters, by the way, were men from the common walks of life to the high circles of officialdom.

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME ANNIVERSARY AT WOMELSDORF

The 69th anniversary of Bethany Orphans' Home, at Womelsdorf, will be held today (Thursday). A pageant entitled "The Hope of the World," will be given by the children. Rev. Henry J. Gebhard, superintendent, announced a very special feature of the anniversary this year will be permission of the public to view the Ira S. Reed Baby Cottage. Baby cottages are never open to public visitation at any time, but for very special reasons this year this grant will be made, but the rigid rule will be strictly adhered to in the future, when the building will be closed to the public.

Beautiful new Fall Hats in at The Hat Shop, Millheim.—Mrs. Lenore V. Burd.

DEATHS.

WERT.—Isaac William Wert died at his home at Franklinsville, Huntingdon county, as the result of an attack of acute indigestion, although he had not been in good health for some time.

He was a son of M. L. and Polly Ann Wert and was born at Milroy almost 54 years ago. He was a farmer by occupation and at his death held the office of township auditor. He was a member of the Evangelical Church at Milroy, the Boalsburg lodge of Odd Fellows, and the Typing lodge of Moose. He was also an ardent sportsman. On March 3rd, 1903, he married Miss Carrie Davis, of Pennsylvania Furnace, who survives with three children, Ellsworth and Gladys, at Home, and Mrs. Hazel Gilliland, of Warriorsmark. He also leaves his father, one brother and a sister, J. B. Wert, of McClure, and Mrs. Arthur Page, of Milroy. Funeral services were held at his late home at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon of last week, by Rev. Samuel R. Brown, burial being made in the Graysville cemetery.

HAFFLEY.—Benjamin F. Haffley, aged Aaronsburg citizen, died at his home in that community following an illness of a complication of diseases that kept him indoors for some time past.

He was a son of Christian and Sarah (Höhn) Haffley and was born at Madisonburg March 10, 1844, hence was aged 88 years, 5 months and 1 day.

Surviving are his wife and these children: Henry, of Renovo; Mrs. O. W. Weaver, of Sparta, Wis.; Mrs. N. W. Meyer, of Boalsburg; Mrs. D. P. Ream, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. L. E. Barigos, of Millheim; and Wm. Haffley, of Salona.

Funeral services were held in St. Peter's Reformed church at Aaronsburg, the Rev. G. A. Fred Griesing officiating. Interment was made in the Aaronsburg Reformed cemetery.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sklar, of Philadelphia, were recent visitors at the Nieman home, in Millheim.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Dunlap, of Tyrone, arrived on Grange Park Monday to remain to the end of the 1932 Encampment and Fair, officially opening on Saturday.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Moore and son Ronald, of Yeagerstown, have been spending the past week at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Moore.

Clay W. Reesman, a Camden City Commissioner, was a guest on the Manhattan on its trial trip along the coast north to Maine. The Manhattan is the last word in passenger ships.

Two babies were born in Millheim during the past week—one to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans, the first addition to the family, and the other to Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Gamley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Vhey and two children and Mrs. M. Moore, of Altoona, motored to Centre Hall on Sunday and spent the day with the Samuel Shoop family. The ladies are granddaughters of Mrs. Shoop. Mrs. F. M. Cronnauer, of Patton, a daughter of Mrs. Shoop, was also a week-end guest there.

Miss Marie Brungard, R. N., and Mrs. H. E. Caswell, nee Sara Brunzard, formerly of here, but now located at Aurora, Illinois, are visiting with their aunt, Mrs. B. G. Grove. The ladies came east with Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Brungart and son Dean, and Mrs. K. J. Beane and son Donald, of the same place, who are also visiting with relatives in the valley.

Miss Nellie Smith, Superintendent of Ohio Valley Hospital, Steubenville, O., and Miss Spear, who holds a similar position in the Wilkinsburg hospital, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hosterman, in town. The latter returned to the Pittsburgh district on Monday, but Miss Smith will remain here until the beginning of next week in order to meet old friends on Grange Park.

Wilbur McClellan and Miss Fay Bradford drove from here to Philadelphia in the latter's Ford, returning home on Saturday, a week later. While in the city a number of side trips were made, among them one to Atlantic City, and another to Camden where Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reesman were visited. Mr. McClellan is now on a short vacation, which will be spent at his home here.

Merchant D. J. Nieman and daughter, Mrs. M. M. Mamolen, of Millheim, just returned from a buying trip to New York City. The merchant is pleased in having been successful in selecting a line of goods adapted to his trade at prices that will prove profitable to his customers. Penna Valley is indeed fortunate to have a clothing merchant with the business acumen of Mr. Nieman, especially so when he shows the unselfish business spirit to give his customers their just share of benefits from buying at bottom cash prices.

A number of members of the Wagner family gathered in "Locust Grove Park," Seven Mountains, on Sunday evening, where they ate their supper in one of the pavilions. Social contact was the main object in mind, and this in the minds of the participants was impossible without dipping into each other's dishes. The Wagners and descendants present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Plink, Harvey Plink, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller and children, Evelyn, Lynn, Alta and Charles; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McClellan, and sons Wilbur and Vincent; Miss Fay Bradford, all of Centre Hall; Michael Smith, Mrs. Ruth Thomas and son William, Potters Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith and children, Roy and Bette, of Lewistown; Mrs. Frank Long and sons Walter, Eugene, and Herbert, of Washington, D. C.

GREGG TWP. VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NOTES.

(Received too late for last week) Schools Open Monday, Sept 5—

The schools in Gregg township will open for the 1932-1933 term on Monday morning, September 5. The teaching staff has but few changes from that of last year. In the High school the same faculty as last year will teach with the exception of the teacher for the position as assistant in home economics. This position has been eliminated and all home economic work will be taught by the supervisor of home economics. The change will in no way effect the home economic course of study, and it is felt that the work in this department of the school will be just as effective as under the former management.

The following are the teachers and schools:

Spring Mills Primary—Orle Wagner. Intermediate School—Eva Bailey. Grammar School—J. Russell Condo. Decker School—Sara Foreman. Beaver Dam—Sara Vonada. Penn Hall—Adelaide Bradford. Cross Roads—Bessie Zerby. Hoy—Renna Wise. Logan—Tacy White. Vocational School—

Supv. of Voc. Agr.—J. W. Decker. Supv. Home Economics—Meriam B. Tachuday. Academic—LeClaire Fetterolf. Ass't Supv. Agr.—H. C. Hayes. Supv. Principal—C. M. Watts.

Teachers' Meeting, Sept. 2nd—

There will be a meeting of the Gregg Township teachers in the Vocational school building at Spring Mills on Friday, September 2, at 8 P. M.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A number of news items and correspondence were omitted this week, but will appear next week.

J. W. Evans of Spring Mills, is preparing for an exhibit of Barred Plymouth Rocks at the Grange Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lykens and daughter Grace, of Philadelphia, arrived in Millheim on Saturday and will remain there for some time. They are close friends of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Gramley.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Bitner, who only recently returned from their trip to Alaska and through Canada, on Monday afternoon left for Baltimore by automobile to attend the National convention of Rural Mail Carriers. In session there this week, Ralph H. Shook is acting substitute carrier for Mr. Bitner on Route No. 1 from Spring Mills.

Rev. Aul, a member of the Susquehanna University faculty, filled two appointments on the Aaronsburg Lutheran charge on Sunday—in the morning at Aaronsburg and in the evening at Millheim. His audiences were much pleased with the discourses. Rev. L. V. Leshar, the pastor of the congregation named, is on his summer vacation.

Miss Carrie Sweetwood, of Philadelphia, has been visiting among friends in town for a few days, and reports her parents as being well and that the head of the family is regularly employed as a road builder by the State Highway Department. Miss Carle is a graduate nurse, and after having filled various positions in several of the Philadelphia hospitals, is now employed by Dr. McFarlane, in the Medical Arts building, Philadelphia. She has held the position for three years and finds the work connected with it more desirable than regular hospital work or private nursing.

While riding a motorcycle in Brush Valley, on Saturday, Franklin Colyer, of Smulton, was thrown from it with such force as to result in rather serious injuries. A cut on the face needed several stitches in the dressing. Several teeth were broken out of a jaw, and one shoulder severely bruised. The accident happened for no other reason than that the rider wished to save the life of a rabbit, and to do so the machine was given a quick turn—too quick for the safety of the cyclist. Dr. McQueen was the surgeon in attendance.

Rev. I. N. Demy says: "I have found nothing in the past 20 years that can take the place of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They are a sure relief for my headache."

Sufferers from Headache, Neuralgia, Toothache, Backache, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neuritis, Muscular Pains, Periodic Pains, write that they have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills with better results than they had even hoped for.

Countless American housewives would no more think of keeping house without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills than without flour or sugar. Keep a package in your medicine cabinet and save yourself needless suffering. At drug stores—25c and $1.00

FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from Pennsylvania State College School of Agriculture

Select Uniform Exhibits—Vegetables selected for exhibit are most likely to win prizes when the specimens are uniform in size, color, and shape, in the best marketable and edible condition, cleaned thoroughly, free from insect and disease injury, and attractively arranged.

Hen Care Essential—Before laying flocks are culled severely they should be given every opportunity to lay. Provide a comfortable, well-ventilated house, fresh water often, dry mash, grain, and green feed. In addition, a wet mash once daily will prove to be profitable.

Use Proper Lights—Wall bracket lights are largely for decoration as they give little light out in the room. Their best place is on each side of the bathroom mirror, placed 66 inches from the floor. They should be shaded.

Eat Tomatoes Often—Tomatoes, like oranges, are a good source of vitamins. In the summer tomatoes are cheaper and they should find frequent use in the diet.

Move Popples Now—Oriental popples should be moved now. The roots are dormant at this time of the year, but when the fall rains begin they will start to grow. The plants cannot be safely moved at any other time of year.

Good Bull Improves Herd—A good purebred sire is an effective means of improving a dairy herd in both type and production.

Produce Quality Eggs—The quality of an egg is best when first laid. The poultryman should gather eggs 2 to 3 times daily, cool them at a temperature of 55 degrees, pack each day, and market at least twice each week.

Sweeper for Sale Cheap—$10.00 takes a Torrington Electric Sweeper, with all attachments, in good working order; recently entirely overhauled at factory.—Apply at this office.

Clover Farm Store CENTRE HALL

LOOK FOR OUR CIRCULARS ON GRANGE PARK.

We will distribute our Store Circulars in the several hundred tents on Grange Park on Friday of this week. You will find listed thereon numerous items suitable for Picnic Dinners and Lunchees, which will afford those in charge of tents a maximum amount of pleasure because preparation of food will thus be reduced to a minimum. No one wants to stand over a hot stove spending the greater part of the day in the preparation of meals.

Our Store is ready to serve you and help you in enjoying a pleasant week on Grange Park. No attempt will be made here to list items or quote prices. Suffice it to say that we can take care of your needs at prices which will meet with your approval.
