The occasion is looked forward to with great interest by the men of the congregation named.

DEATHS.

SMITH.—Mrs. Elmira Smith died on Friday evening at the home of her son, Lloyd Smith, in Milesburg, where she had been living for some time. The body was taken to Turbotville to the home of Mrs. Gideon Hartman, from where funeral services were held and burial made in a nearby cemetery, on Tuesday.

The deceased was the widow of John T. Smith, who died about twenty-six years ago while living near Colyer. Her maiden name was Elmira Bidler, and with her husband came to Turbotville from Schuylkill county, and later located in Potter township. She was the last member of the Bidler family, but there survives her eight of her eleven children, namely, Mrs. Charles McClenahan, Centre Hall; Jacob, Glen Iron; Jonas C. and Stephen, Philadelphia; Benjamin, Colorado; Raymond, Detroit, Mich.; Adam, Boolsburg; and Lloyd, Milesburg.

Mrs. Smith was aged eighty-three years, and had been in fair health until a few weeks before her death the immediate cause of which was due to a paralytic stroke received the day previous.

CONFER.—Jacob Confer died in the Lock Haven Hospital Friday night following an operation. He had formerly lived in Spring township, below Pleasant Gap, but more recently in Altoona.

Funeral services were held from the home of a daughter, Miss Senia Confer, in State College, on Tuesday, with interment in the Zion cemetery. Mrs. Confer, who before marriage was Miss Nora Gingerich, was killed when struck by an automobile three years ago on crossing the road to the home of a sister, Mrs. Wallace White, at Axemann. There survive him these children: Sue, Philadelphia; Roy and Mildred Meyer, Montour Falls; Senia State College; Alton, Pine Grove Mills; Heley and Lee, State College; William Frederick, Altoona. William Confer, a brother, and Mrs. Pink, a sister, both of Altoona, also survive the deceased, who was aged about 60 years.

KORMAN.—Wm. A. J. Korman, native of Haines township, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Penkert, Beaumont, Texas. Mr. Korman was a son of David and Elizabeth (Stover) Korman. He was married to Catura Hosterman, who survives with the following children: Russell D., of Vidor, Texas; Mrs. Martha Rae, of Galveston, Texas; Mrs. Stella Rehovitch, of Vidor, Texas; and Mrs. E. A. Penkert, of Beaumont, Texas. Also surviving are two brothers—Lewis Korman, of Penna Cave, and David Korman, of Poo Creek.

Decensed to Texas from this section twenty-two years ago. He was aged 59 years. Burial was made near his home.

ATTAINED 86th BIRTHDAY.

W. H. Bartholomew, of town, was receiving congratulations on Tuesday on his 86th birthday anniversary. Mr. Bartholomew, who is a Civil War veteran, celebrated the day quietly, engaging in his usual occupations about his home. He is quite active, takes a keen interest in everything worthwhile, and enjoys life immensely. Congratulations.

MARRIAGE QUESTIONED.

The marriage of former commissioner James W. Swabb, now a justice of the peace in Harris township, continues to be a question. The supposed bride is Mrs. Viola Snook, of Lewis-town and the wedding is reported to have taken place the latter part of August.

When the marriage question was put bluntly to the supposed groom, Mr. Swabb began to recite an incident that took place in Centre Hall about forty-five or fifty years ago. It referred to the question by a parishioner put to the new pastor of a particular church in town and involved making public his politics. The parson's answer was this: "If anyone asks you what my politics is, tell them you don't know."

Our conversation with Mr. Swabb was over the telephone, but the way "Jimmie" chuckled when we told him we "know the rest" after he had made the introductory to the forty-five-year-old incident, we are inclined to believe that he is guilty, and here we extend congratulations.

MRS. J. T. McCool HAS BACK SERIOUSLY INJURED

In a 14-foot fall from a loft in the barn, Mrs. John T. McCool, of Beaver Dam, below Spring Mills, sustained a serious injury to her back. She was taken to the Centre county hospital by her physician, Dr. Thomas, where an X-ray examination is said to have revealed that the spinal column had been injured.

Mrs. McCool, who is now more than fifty years of age, was in the barn alone when she fell, and although suffering greatly, managed to creep to the house, where she was found lying on the floor by her husband, who at the time of the accident was some distance from the buildings.

The Yankees and either the Cubs or the Pirates will open the world series in New York, Wednesday, September 28th.

The enrollment of all Teachers' Colleges in Pennsylvania will be reduced ten per cent. from last year to keep costs within reduced appropriations.

The West End Fair, on Lincoln Park, Laurelton, will be a two-day affair this year and will open the last day of this month, Friday, and continue over Saturday.

CENTRALIZED GOVERNMENT AND EXCESSIVE TAXES OPPOSED

From the speaker's stand on Grange Park on Thursday forenoon of the Grange Encampment and Fair, Robert F. Hunter, treasurer of Centre county, spoke for a short time on evils due to the centralizing in Harrisburg of the government of counties and municipalities, and the continual mounting of taxes.

The speaker opened his remarks with the statement that "we have been voting ourselves out of any say in our local government during the last 45 years. The local management has been moved down to Harrisburg. Centralized government has been the curse to taxpayers and while I do not like to pose as 'told you so,' I have been fighting it ever since I have been old enough to think for myself in matters of government, and so has every other straight-thinking, straight-shooting Democrat, and plenty of the same kind of Republicans, too."

Other expressions along the same line were: "Politics in Pennsylvania has gradually but surely become so one-sided that the party in power can do practically as it pleases—put in the public's face and say, 'what are you going to do about it?' The school code has been passed and the highway code has been enacted, allowing these departments to establish their own regulations and interpret their own laws. Today, as has been recently shown, the highway department can pre-empt property along its highways, placing what amounts to a lien on private property, and take it over and pay for it when it pleases."

Take for example the filing of blueprints and surveys in the county recorder's office, after which if an individual owner makes any improvement, he does so at his own risk for he will not be paid for it when the property is finally taken over. Look up the Act of Assembly and see for yourselves.

Taking up the matter of shearing the power of local officers, Mr. Hunter continued: "We have so lost every vestige of control of local government that today, school directors are unwittingly and unwillingly mere rubber-stamps; supervisors of roads are much the same. The seat of government at Harrisburg controls the salaries paid your teachers, and every other detail of the department of education. Putting up a little cupboard behind the door in the little red school house, must be submitted to Harrisburg for the approval of engineers and drawing of blueprints; every detail of every transaction must be submitted to the powers higher up. Little culverts in side roads and in unimportant locations must be submitted to the engineers for blueprints and details of its construction, go through the inspection of perhaps a half dozen highly paid so-called experts. And yet we wonder why in the name of Jehovah our taxes are mounting year by year BRING YOUR GOVERNMENT BACK HOME and have a little old-fashioned home-grown honesty; forget, for a while, partisan politics in local elections, too; put men in to run your local affairs known for their honesty and good judgment."

"You elect a board of county commissioners to run the business affairs of your county, and under more and more legislation for centralized government, they are being eliminated from any say in county affairs," the speaker said, and gave a very recent and very practical illustration of this in the refusal of the former board of commissioners to yield the point in a borough voting in favor of the voting machine, providing no way to finance the purchase, and then agree that this borough could within its own voting precincts place a financial obligation on the entire county. But, that board of commissioners was waived aside and the Secretary of the Commonwealth BOUGHT THE VOTING MACHINES AND NOW IS JOINING THE VOTING MACHINE CO. in threatening suit against the County for the $5,000 to $9,000, the purchase price of the machines. "How in the name of all that is holy," Mr. Hunter said, "can you expect a board of county commissioners to have any control over your taxes and your county's business when things are run in this way? And this powers at Harrisburg seem to have the laws to back 'em up."

The next thing considered was who helped to pass such laws? And this was answered in this way: "I am not here to tell you; I am not here to try to heap abuse on any political party. I am trying to show you cause and effect. Do your own thinking. You are a thousand times justified in complaining about high taxes, but get awake and begin to analyze conditions and responsibilities for those conditions. We cannot get anywhere by sucking our thumbs and complaining. I am not here to tell you that any party in power by any other name, with a half million votes of a majority would be one whit better. But I AM telling you that when a party in any State gets so strong that it's drunk with a sense of its own power, then you are up against a serious situation. Just close enough margin to let the party in control understand that it is being held to a strict accountability for its control is a mighty sight better balancing of our tax budget."

CENTRE COUNTY GRANGE FAIR, CENTRE HALL, 1932.

For fifty-nine years the Grangers here, Have built for you and me.

A city of beautiful tents, That we may enjoy, both young and old, Just one week of fun and good cheer. As you jostle along, through the merry throng, From the fakir's stand to the merry-go-round, Where you dole out your nickels and dimes, And with never a frown as your cash goes down In a wallet at the hot dog stand, Then you dig for more for the Bingo man, Who greets you with his broadest smile, And the fortune teller tells you some more, Of your lucky day to come, while the Indian brews his tea, At last; you walk down main to your own sweet refrain, Happy and broke; but, holy smoke, What would we do, we'd be in a stew Without our Grangers' Fair.

CRIMINAL COURT OPENED MONDAY; 49 CASES FOR TRIAL

Criminal court opened Monday with Judge M. Ward Fleming on the bench and all court officers in attendance. The forty-nine Commonwealth cases returned by the grand jury will be disposed of before adjournment. A number of cases have already been heard, among these of interest locally are mentioned briefly the following:

George Immet, Miles township; liquor law violation; guilty; $50.00 fine, court costs, two years probation.

Thomas Packer, charged with aggravated assault by Fred W. Zettle. Jury returned a verdict of guilty, but it was not in proper form; new trial granted.

Homer Hillan, State College, perjury; guilty; fine of $1.00, court costs, one to two years in Allegheny Work House.

Charles Bigler, Nitany Mountain; liquor law violation; case postponed until next court.

BURGLARIES AT REBERSBURG.

A series of burglaries have been perpetrated in the vicinity of Rebersburg during the recent past, but there is but slight suspicion as to who committed them. It was only last Saturday night that the home of John Hubler, west of Rebersburg, was entered, the burglar carrying away with him three guns valued at more than $50.00, two cans of lard and a pair of high-top shoes. John Wert was robbed of a gun and gun case the same night, and Meyer Brungart, who is remodeling one of the abandoned Miles township school houses into a dwelling house, is lamenting the loss of a full kit of carpenter tools and a tool chest, valued at $100. John Graden of Rebersburg, who was working with Mr. Brungart, is also minus the carpenter tools he was using on Saturday.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Allison, of Spring Mills, were guests on Sunday of friends at Woodward.

Mrs. Harriet Olmstead and son, Walter Olmstead, of Williamsport, for a few days this week were guests of Frank D. Lee.

Miss Lizzie Fredericks, a maiden lady of Spring Mills, who suffered a paralytic stroke several months ago, is not improving in the least.

Utah Auman, living about midway between Coburn and Spring Mills, reports a pretty severe frost visited that section during the past week.

A number of Millheim baseball fans find pleasure in witnessing the games played by a league covering Snyder, Union and Northumberland counties.

E. Gates Kennelly, of Spring Mills, whose illness was noted in last week's issue of the Reporter, has since recovered to such an extent that he can be up and around.

The Joseph Korman property in Rebersburg, acquired some time ago by Robert Bieri, was sold by him to Andrew Rishel, of Texas, near Millheim. The sale price has not been made public.

Dr. H. L. Kline, of Youngstown, Ohio, was in town on Monday. A week or more ago he took his mother, Mrs. Adeline V. Kline, of State College, to his Ohio home and on Monday brought her back to State College.

It is reported on good authority that the Egg Hill road between Spring Mills and Potters Mills, a Pinchot road taken over last spring, which became intolerable through neglect, will be put into proper condition by State road workmen.

A number of fire fighters under warden Miles Bressler, of Spring Mills, did efficient work in extinguishing a forest fire in the Green Brier section Saturday evening and again on Sunday. It is thought by many that both the fires were the work of some miserable wretch.

Three young people, all graduates of Spring Mills Vocational school returned to Lock Haven Teachers' College to continue their class work there. The youths are Rosella Heckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Heckman, Walter Wilkinson and Harry Condo, the latter a son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Condo.

The men's choir of the Lutheran church in Millheim, on the first Sunday in October, will furnish the music for the dedicatory services of a new pipe organ in the McClure Lutheran church. The organization sang in that church heretofore, and it is the result of the pleasing service rendered then that a return call was made for this more important event.

Ray Stover, who for three years operated a truck for the National Biscuit Company out of Williamsport, will take up farming again next spring when he will return to a farm near Rebersburg, the same farm he left on going to the Lycoming county city. The only difference is he is now owner of the farm, instead of a tenant for his father, William Stover. The sale of the farm by the father to the son is said to have involved a cash consideration of $1.00.

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drugstore weeks in but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.
