

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

E. T. Jamison, Esq., of Spring Mills, was a guest of friends in Altoona on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Weir, Jr. have decided to name their baby daughter Joanne Barbara. Paul A. Noll, now located in Williamsport, was a week-end visitor at his home at Spring Mills. Rufus Strohm, of Scranton, and Mrs. Lola Person visited their mother, Mrs. Margaret Strohm, last week. After spending the week-end at Millheim, Mrs. Myra Winegardner returned to her home here Monday morning. Mrs. Laura Wenrich, of Sunbury, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Siegal, her parents, for a week. C. M. Watts and J. Russell Condo, both connected with the Spring Mills public schools, witnessed the football game on Bucknell field Saturday afternoon. Mrs. A. J. Creeger, of Altoona, daughter of the late John B. Dunkle, expects to remain at Spring Mills for a month or more at the late home of her father. Miss Isabel Goodhart, of Altoona, after visiting her mother in Millheim, came to Centre Hall on Monday and became a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart. Mrs. William Rossman is now living with her late husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rossman, in Spring Mills. Her two young daughters, Jane and Dorothy, are also with her. Mrs. Letzell, wife of Clifford Letzell, of Milton, track foreman succeeding Levi Hartley, was here with her husband during last week. The couple boarded with Mrs. Clyde Bradford. Walter S. Auman, a recent acquisition to the population of Spring Mills, on Monday went to Baltimore and from there will go to Pittsburgh on a combined business and pleasure trip for ten days. Misses Minnie Stockman and Minnie Price, Mrs. Mary Herring and Mrs. Lizzie Mullen, all of Altoona, formed an automobile party who visited Mrs. Laura Lee, a sister of the latter two, in Centre Hall on Sunday. Mrs. Paul Fetterick was rushed to the Centre County hospital Monday afternoon, and immediately underwent an operation. Her condition up to this time has been gradually improving. By the end of the week she hopes to return home. Mrs. W. C. Meyer, of Spring Mills, an appendicitis patient in Mary Packard hospital, Sunbury, continues to improve following an operation. She was visited on Sunday by Mr. Meyer and sons Harold, Bruce G. and their wives, and Mrs. Randall Meyer. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fuller and Mrs. H. L. Ebright were in Harrisburg for a day last week. Mr. Fuller is an assistant secretary of the Lassiter Construction company, now building the Potters Mills-Balsburg road, and went to the State capital on business pertaining to road building. A fall from the porch of her home in Spring Mills, the latter part of last week, very much aggravated a case of diabetes that for a long time has been reducing the vitality of Mrs. Andrew Dunlap. No bones were broken, but the shock and bruises resulted in a general detrimental effect on her. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Carson, of Potters Mills, were Sunday guests of their daughter, Mrs. Coleman Wingart, and husband and little granddaughter, Gloria. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wingart drove to Lock Haven where they visited Walter Wilkinson, a student in Lock Haven Teachers College. Bobbie Bradford, who was stricken with scarlet fever Friday a week, has recovered, but, of course, is not able to leave the house on account of a quarantine. To date none of the other members of the Bradford family have contracted the disease, and no other cases in town or nearby have been reported. Edgar Miller, of the Miller Motor Co., has been partially laid up from the effects of successive injuries to one of his knees, dating back to a time when he was obliged to ask permission of his parents to go out nights. Since the hunting season opened he remained for a day and has since been regretting it. He is back to work again, but the limb acts awkwardly. Mrs. Cloyd Brooks is feeling very sanguine that her arm, injured more than a year ago, is now showing signs of complete recovery. She visited the surgeon in Altoona who operated on it several times and he, too, gave most encouraging words. The arm now gives Mrs. Brooks little or no discomfort, whereas for months she suffered pain and had no use of the member. Rev. and Mrs. E. Roy Corman, of Williamsport, were at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, during a part of last week. Mr. Corman spent most of the time in fields and woods in quest of game and succeeded in making a kill to be proud of. He happened to be hunting days in which pheasants were not legal game and this reduced his sport prospects to some extent. Harry McClenahan, after engaging in hauling milk for the Sheffield plant here for four years, sold the route to Bruce Krumrine, a Buffalo Run farmer, who expects to become the tenant on the Emerick farm at Potters Mills, next spring, and continue operating the milk route from that point. The route extends from Centre Hall to Baileyville, a distance of twenty-seven miles, which is about half the length of the entire route. Mr. McClenahan retained the truck used in hauling milk.

THE DEMOCRATIC RALLY, THURSDAY NIGHT, SUCCESS.

The election is over, and the question of who shall be the head of this great nation is settled, yet it is proper to refer to the great success of the Democratic rally, held in the Court House on Thursday evening. It was the largest gathering in the temple of justice, political or otherwise, in many years. All seats and chairs were filled as was also the lobby, back and side aisles. Former Judge Ellis L. Orvis was chairman and with very brief remarks introduced the speakers. The first speaker was Hon. Lawrence Rupp, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, whose address held out the possibilities of a coming Democratic administration and at the same time pointed out the failures of accomplishments of the Hoover regime. Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston, was substituted for by James A. Carney, also of the Hub city. He is a former member of Congress and Representative to the Imperial Russian Government, and a distant relative of Pennsylvania's War Governor, Andrew G. Curtin. Mr. Carney was followed by Robert M. Henderson, an Altoona barrister and Democratic candidate for Supreme Court. Other speakers were Robert J. Miller, candidate for the Assembly, and Col. Kerr, candidate for Congress.

CENTRE HALL HIGH WESTERN SOCCER BALL CHAMPIONS

Centre Hall High school won the Western Division championship in the Centre County Soccer League for the second successive years, last Friday, by defeating Spring Mills 3-0. The locals will compete with Rebersburg, Eastern Division champions, for the county championship. This will be decided by a three-game series between the two schools. The Spring Mills game was more closely contested than the score indicates. The defensive work of Burton Snyder, John Spiker, Ken Frank, Lawrence Hartley, and Donald Clodron thwarted many goal thrusts made by Spring Mills. On the offensive Centre Hall score three times, but failed in a great many attempts to tie the opponents' defense. Leroy Horner, Vinton McClellan, and Jack McClenahan contributed the scores for Centre Hall. McClellan starred on the offense by dribbling the ball nearly half the length of the field and scoring unassisted.

The first game for the county championship will be played at Rebersburg, Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. Second game at Centre Hall, Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. Third game, if necessary, on some neutral field to be selected later.

Girls Dodge Ball Team Defeat S. M.

The girls' dodge ball team defeated the Spring Mills girls 24-16, last Friday. This was an interesting game and a gratifying victory since Spring Mills defeated the locals by a close score earlier in the season.

NEW RULES FOR SEEKING

REVIEW OF VERDICTS

Judge M. Ward Fleming has issued two new court rules relative to the practice of seeking a review of a verdict after the same has been rendered. In forwarding the rules to this office, the Court says: "The purpose of these rules is to save both actual financial outlay, made necessary by the transcription of the testimony, as well as to save the time of the Court, thus speeding the final determination of each case and causing more substantial justice to be done. The Court has observed that it has come to be habit among attorneys to make some sort of a motion subsequent to verdict, regardless of the actual merit of their contentions. This has resulted in the expenditure of money in transcribing the testimony, oftentimes to no purpose. The determination of issues has been delayed for months, and sometimes for years, by useless and purposeless motions of this sort, field only to bring delay. "The watch book will be abandoned. All such motions will be by separate paper as prescribed by the rules. Upon presentation of such motion the Court will, after consideration, dismiss the motion without directing the testimony to be transcribed, unless the application is shown to bewith merit, and presented in good faith, and not for the purpose of delay only."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Jennie Bartholomew is visiting among friends in Lock Haven, Mackeyville and Salona. Mrs. Christine, mother of Mrs. T. L. Moore of town, is seriously ill at her home. Mrs. Mary Roush, of Aaronsburg, was admitted to the Williamsport hospital to undergo observation. Mrs. G. B. Bitner, of Spring Mills, on Tuesday morning, underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lewisport hospital. William Breen, of the Penns Cave district, recently purchased a building lot in Ferguson township, along the main highway a short distance from the western boundary of State College. Mr. and Mrs. Merton Pruyn and family, of Hollidaysburg, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Pruyn at the Spring Mills parsonage. The Rev. Dr. W. C. Terril, of Portuguese East Africa, was also a Monday guest there. Mrs. Margaret Godshall and daughter, Miss Eva Bailey, last week attended the funeral of Homer Reagy, at New Enterprise, Bedford county. The deceased was a relative of Mrs. Godshall by marriage. Mrs. T. L. Smith and daughter, Miss Louise, and Mrs. C. D. Bartholomew and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, in the Smith car, drove to Philadelphia on Tuesday leaving immediately after casting the first four votes in Centre Hall. They expect to visit in and about the city for about a week. L. W. Frazier, Esq., of Painesville, Ohio, was a Democratic candidate for Assembly from Lake county. He made a valiant fight for the election, and we hope he won, but since his county is normally strongly Republican his chances to become one of the Ohio lawmakers was not too rosy. Mr. Frazier is a son of Foster W. Frazier, of Potter township, deceased.

BUT ONE VOTER SHY OF TAX RECEIPT IN BORO

Centre Hall borough voters have a record for payment of taxes necessary to qualify for voting that will be met by few boroughs in Pennsylvania. Every voter in the borough, with but one exception, has a tax receipt or was entitled to one that qualified him or her to vote. The exception is a single young man, who has been out of the borough for nearly all of the time during the past year, and it is possible that he has declared himself a resident in another section, and was qualified voter on Tuesday.

Democrats are carrying their honors without demonstrations.

The Penn State-Sewanee football game, on Saturday, was witnessed by W. W. Kerlin and son, Misses Bettie Ebright and Sarah Odunkirk, and William Campbell.

Retaliation Hurts Pennsylvania Trade

Pennsylvania business interests are becoming concerned about the prospects of active efforts to hamper deliveries of Pennsylvania merchandise in other states. The last legislature passed a law practically putting an end to reciprocal use of state highways by commercial vehicles. Under the reciprocity arrangements Pennsylvania permitted commercial vehicles from other states to enter this state, and the other states accorded the same privilege to vehicles licensed by Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania's withdrawal of this privilege from other states, which became effective October 15, of course means that they will retaliate by compelling Pennsylvania vehicles to take out licenses in other states; and it is announced that such retaliatory measures are being drafted by Maryland, Ohio, New Jersey and New York. This means a particularly severe imposition on Pennsylvania business because, as the foremost industrial state, Pennsylvania's distribution of commodities extends all over the country. In a time when competition is severe and prices have to be cut to the bone to get business, this is a particularly serious matter. Such restrictions on the distribution of Pennsylvania products, agricultural and industrial, mean more unemployment, greater difficulties in overcoming the effects of depression. How these conditions affect Pennsylvania distribution is illustrated by the fact that vehicles carrying commodities from New York, for example, to Maryland and the South can avoid Pennsylvania, passing through New Jersey and Delaware; but Pennsylvania carriers will presently find themselves unable to cross the state line in any direction unless they carry license plates of whatever states they enter. This is what the retaliatory movement means, and it is suddenly being recognized as a severe handicap to Pennsylvania manufacturers and distributors. The situation is the more serious because so much of Pennsylvania's trade territory is in other states. From Pittsburgh a truck carrying goods westward must cross a strip of West Virginia before entering Ohio, Kentucky, or states west and south. From Philadelphia, similarly, distribution to the east, northeast and south means a wide multiplication of license taxes.

Work Weary "NERVES"

Do they make you Restless, Cranky, Tired, Sleepless, Dyspeptic, Head-achy? Do they spoil your pleasure and interfere with your work?

Tens of thousands have found a way to get relief from over-worked nerves—a way so simple, so pleasant, so low in cost, that we are constantly receiving letters that say, "If I had only found Effervescent Nerve Tablets sooner." Simon Brandt writes: "I was very nervous from over-work. I couldn't sleep well, appetite was poor, and I felt weak for a long time. "Used Dr. Miles' Nerve and now feel fifteen years younger and I am working the same as I did before—fourteen to fifteen hours daily. "Sorry I did not learn about this wonderful medicine sooner as I had tried everything I could hear of, without results, until Dr. Miles' Nerve put me back on my feet."

When you are nervous, try this—put a Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up like sparkling spring water—drink it—enjoy the feeling of calm and relaxation that follows.

In Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablets a splendid formula for soothing overworked nerves is combined with bicarbonate of soda and citric acid which tend to correct hyper-acidity—a frequent cause of nervousness.
