Mrs. Coleman Wingart and daughter, Gloria, last week visited friends in Bellefonte.

Dr. and Mrs. George C. Thomas, of Spring Mills, on Sunday, drove to Sunbury and Danville by Auto where they visited friends.

Mrs. Bright Bitner, of Spring Mills, is delighted with her pleasure trip to Philadelphia where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Johnston.

J. Herbert Gobble became a resident of Spring Mills, having moved from Georges Valley to the John D. Lingle home, near Long's store.

Mrs. C. J. Finkle, of Spring Mills, continues to be a patient in the Gelsinger hospital, Danville. Reports as to her improvement are not very favorable.

The pupils of the local grade school will present a Christmas Operetta entitled, "The Miser's Money Bags," on Thursday evening, December 22, at 7:30 o'clock. The place will be announced later.

Miss Miriam Tschudy, one of the Gregg Township Vocational School teachers, was called to her home in Lebanon on account of the illness of her mother, who suffered a paralytic stroke. She returned home Monday morning in time for the day's school session.

Mrs. Lloyd Stover, of Phoenixville, called to Coburn on account of the death of her father, J. W. Kerstetter, returned to her home Sunday afternoon. The Stovers, a short time ago, became the tenants in a new house recently taken over by the bank in which Mr. Stover is engaged in the capacity of cashier.

Mr. and Mrs. Pealer Rossman, and young son, Hayes, from Pittsburgh, were week-end guests of Mr. Rossman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.F. Rossman, in Spring Mills. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Stoops, of Landsdale, were also guests at the same home. Mr. Stoops is engaged with a company operating an ice plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Harshbarger, of Altoona, drove from their home to Pottery Mills, on Sunday, and after calling on friends in that section went on to Spring Mills where the remainder of the day was spent. The Harshbarger brothers are engaged in the distribution of milk in Altoona, and are operating one of the largest plants, of its kind in the city.

After having been a patient in the Gelsinger hospital, Danville, for three weeks, Mrs. Andrew Dunlap was brought to her home in Spring Mills a few days ago. Her condition is not very materially improved. It will be recalled that while suffering from complications she also sustained injuries in a fall, and examination at the hospital revealed a broken shoulder blade.

The Millheim fire company is about to buy a new pumper fire truck with booster tanks to take the place of the chemical outfit now in use. The Underwriters will establish an eleven-mile radius fire zone with reduced rates following the introduction of the proposed equipment. A demonstration of the equipment will be made on Friday at Spring Mills, Coburn, Aaronsburg, Woodward, Rebersburg and Millheim.

A car containing four passengers upset when it ran into an embankment, near Lewistown, on Monday, injuring all of them. Mrs. Currience Allen, 24, of Lewistown, suffered broken legs and internal injuries; Mrs. Randall Kerstetter, 20, of Milroy, left arm broken, while Mrs. Ellen Berrier, of Lewistown, and Edward Brent, 21, of Milroy, were injured to some extent. All are hospital patients, but are expected to recover.

The Misses Mary A. Reiber, of town, and Edna R. Hegele, of Wellsboro, visited during the past week at Miss Reiber's home. The young ladies are students at Sanford's Private Hospital, Jersey Shore, the former graduating in December of next year, while the former will complete her work in the month of March, next. Two of the principal classes in which the young ladies are being instructed at present are Medicine and Obstetrics. They are both on night duty at the present time, thus permitting them to make short visits to Miss Reiber's home here.

Ward Keller, proprietor of the Penn Roller Flouring Mill at Farmers Mills, is carrying his left arm in a sling, following his return from the Centre County hospital where he spent a week or more having a badly infected hand cared for. The injury was the result of a bruise inflicted with a wooden mallet. The bruise resulting did not show up for several days, but when it did it nearly put Mr. Keller down for the count. The finger and palm of the hand were slit and tubes inserted to drain the pus. The pain has now subsided and he is on the way to recovery.

W. W. Kerlin, of this place, has recently purchased a Scott DeLuxe all-wave radio receiver. The chassis is heavily chromium plated throughout and is installed in a Wellington console of English burl walnut, with overlays of English oak. Special Scott designed twin speakers are a part of the installation, which assures faithful reproduction and blending of all tones. The short-wave feature is so constructed as to eliminate the necessity of plug-in coils. During the past week, in addition to the usual amateurs, police reports, airport stations, ship phone stations, etc., programs have been received with loud-speaker volume from GSW, Chelmsford, England; EAQ, Madrid, Spain; YK3ME, Sidney, Australia, and an unidentified station in Germany. An entirely concealed phonograph, with automatic record changer, is also a part of the equipment.

Representative Kurtz introduced a bill in Congress restoring the two-cent letter postage.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. C. T. U. will meet on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Miller.

Thomas Fleisher and daughter, Miss Orpha, of Pottery Mills, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sparr Wert, Aaronsburg, where they will remain until Christmas, and perhaps for a longer period.

Boyd Smith, of Pottery Mills, last week made a trip to Pittsburgh, where he underwent a physical examination before a Federal board. Mr. Smith is a World War veteran, who did valiant service in France.

The first few days in December furnished us delightful fall weather. The conditions were especially favorable to young wheat plants, which sprang well into the earth under a temperature close to zero a few days previous.

Veterinary surgeon P. C. Frank, of Pottery Mills is laid up with stomach trouble and a severe cold. While the eighty-four and one-half year old surgeon and constable is tied up, brutes will be obliged to suffer and violators slip free.

Mrs. T. F. Farmer, of Philadelphia, attended the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Annie Eliza Palmer, at Pottery Mills, an account of whose death appears in this issue of the Reporter. Mrs. Farmer's father, Thomas Palmer, was a Civil War veteran. The family lived at Pottery Mills for many years.

Messrs. Frank Wetzler and Malcolm Wetzler, of Milesburg, and F. V. Goodhart, of Centre Hall, on Monday evening attended a meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Funeral Directors Association held in Mt. Carmel. The meeting was largely attended, and speakers were no less personages than the presidents of the National and State Associations, and the State secretary.

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drugstore—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.
