

“Love Triangle” at Potters Mills Brings Gun Action and Wounds

Mrs. Perry Koonsman and Jim Liddick Take “Pops” at Former’s Husband.—Innocent Neighbor Escapes Death.—Woman Held for Court.

Mrs. Perry Koonsman fired three shots at her husband from a .33-calibre revolver in a family fight staged at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Neff, neighbors, at Potters Mills, last Wednesday afternoon, 4:00 o'clock, Mrs. Koonsman was in jail Saturday when bail was furnished by Earl Smith, also of Potters Mills.

with results already noted, Mr. Neff was not quite so lucky. One of the bullets struck him on the back of his right hand over the knuckles, cutting away the skin and flesh.

Lutheran Church School Institute Discusses Vital Problems

Vital problems, as found in the Lutheran church at large, were discussed Monday afternoon and evening in a Church School Institute held in the local Lutheran church.

of repeating the Lord's prayer. It is a printed prayer. Of course, a prayer made by ourselves or written by another, must become our own before we can pray it.

JOHN RUNKLE, LAD OF 8, HIT BY CAR, SUNDAY

John Runkle, aged about eight years, son of Attorney W. G. Runkle, was hit by a car Sunday morning and became a hospital patient. His injuries were not of a serious nature, no bones were broken and the only abrasion was a slight cut on the chin.

The accident happened Sunday morning at about 9:00 o'clock, on the concrete road close to Attorney Runkle's farm home above Tusseyville. The lad was about to accompany Ed. Shope to Sunday school, and was crossing the road to secure a stone to block the car in which he expected to ride in to the church.

At the instant he crossed the road a car driven by Gilbert Rimmer, a neighbor, came down the road. The snow-fall Sunday night made the roadway very slippery in the morning.

GLENN HARTER, 6, RECOVERS FROM SERIOUS INJURY

Glenn Harter, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harter, of near Centre Hall, was seriously injured about the abdomen on Tuesday afternoon of last week when he fell from the top of a wagon load of wood and one of the wagon wheels ran over him.

On Monday the boy was discharged from the hospital and taken to his home. He has materially improved and at this time is able to walk about the house. His complete recovery is expected.

WHAT BOOTLEGGING COST.

During 1932 eighty-three liquor cases were listed in the county, which cost a total of $10,362.03. Twenty of the cases were not proved, and the costs in these estimated at $490, were paid by the county.

STATE COLLEGE-HUNTINGDON BUS LINE APPROVED

A bus line between State College and Huntingdon, applied for by the East Broad Top Transit company, has been approved by the Public Service Commission and will begin service February 15th.

16 STATE EMPLOYEES FIRED—TWO FROM CENTRE COUNTY

Among the sixteen employees fired by Governor Pinchot, two are from Centre county: Charles L. Packard, State College, salary, $1860, and R. P. Glenn, Port Matilda, salary, $1800. None of the seven new appointments come from this county.

EXPENDITURES—CITY AND COUNTRY—A CONTRAST

If cities like New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, could point to a financial statement such as is put out by the small boroughs as found in Centre county, how happy would be their lot today, instead of their wallowing in the slough of despond in which they find themselves today.

REFORMED CHURCH CLASSIS IN SESSION AT STATE COLLEGE

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed Church is in session at State College as the Reporter goes to press, Wednesday. The first session was called for Tuesday. The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. R. H. Dotterer, former pastor of the Faith Reformed church where the Classis meets.

At the Lutheran parsonage, on Saturday evening, by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, the marriage of Herbert Garis, of Centre Hall, and Miss Roxanna Kline, of Tusseyville, was solemnized.

GARIS—KLINE.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kline, who live on their farm quite near to Tusseyville, and is capable of presiding over a home. The Reporter extends congratulations.

PENN STATE GRADUATE TO HELP UNEMPLOYED

C. D. Morley, of Athens, Pa., a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, on February 13 will assume supervision of the 30,000 thrift gardens grown by the unemployed of Allegheny county.

COUNTY TAX CUT ONE MILL MEANS SAVING OF $17,000

The board of county commissioners—John Speary, J. Victor Brunzart, and Howard Holtzworth—have decided to reduce the county tax one mill, from 8 to 7 mills.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

John E. Shay .....Milesburg Margaret I. Scandrol.....Milesburg Rufus H. Zerby .....Spring Mills Orpha A. Snyder .....Spring Mills Herbert P. Garis.....Pleasant Gap Roxanna V. Kline.....Centre Hall James Lewis Biddle.....Bellefonte Nancy V. Bell .....Pleasant Gap

CHEVROLETS RECEIVED BY THE MILLER MOTOR CO.

The Miller Motor Company recently received two consignments of Chevrolet cars and trucks, as follows: Two sedans, two coupes, sport coupe, three coaches and four trucks.

PENN STATE ANNOUNCES SUMMER SESSION DATES

Preliminary announcement of the Summer Sessions which will be held at the Pennsylvania State College this year are being issued this week. Three terms are now being offered during the summer by Penn State. The first term, a two-week Inter-Session, will be held June 19 to June 30.

LOCAL INSURANCE AGENT PRESENTED WITH SILVER 25-YEAR SERVICE MEDAL

C. D. Bartholomew, of Centre Hall, agent for The Home Insurance Company of New York, in recognition of a quarter century of representation, received a few days ago a Twenty-Five Year Silver Service Medal.

28 ANIMALS AVERAGE $138.57 AT DODDS HORSE SALE

The Dodds horse sale, held here on Friday proved somewhat of a surprise in that the third load of western horses sold in the community should pass for such a high average—$138.57.

Below are given the names of buyers and the price paid for teams and single animals:

Table listing buyers and prices: Warren D. Baker, Lewisburg, team $316.00; W. H. Knarr, Tyrone, team $300.00; F. C. Mench, Millheim, team $325.00; Christ Beezer, (1) $122.50; C. D. Mayes, Howard (1) $147.50; John Wells, Centre Hall, team $312.50; Henry Hoy, Salona, (1) $122.50; John Hayes, Hubersburg (1) $122.50; John Hall & Sons, State College team $395.00; W. P. Stover, Rebersburg, team $240.00; W. L. Confer, Howard, team $275.00; H. W. Hanawalt, McVeytown (1) $140.00; S. G. Nearhood, Warriors Mark team $275.00; Chas. Rebar, Lewisburg (1) $130.00; Geo. Hackett, Spring Mills, (1) $127.50; L. A. Biddle, Pleasant Gap (1) $137.50; L. J. Dummire, McVeytown (1) $122.50; W. S. McKibben, Salona (1) $117.50; Henry Hoy, Salona (1) $120.00; W. C. Kimberling, Tyrone (1) $110.00.

Total $3880.00 Average price, $138.57.

PAST GRANDS ENTERTAINED BY LOCAL ODD FELLOWS

The Past Grand Association, I. O. O. F. of Centre county, was entertained on Thursday evening by the Centre Hall I. O. O. F. lodge in their well-appointed hall. Eleven Centre county lodges were represented in the audience of seventy, and of this number fifty were past grands.

WAR DOCUMENT OF CIVIL WAR DAYS BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Back in 1865, men of draft age were more or less acquainted with "Form 32," entitled "Certificate of discharge on account of the required number having been obtained?"

BRIDGE OVER BALD EAGLE CREEK RAZED FOR NEW BRIDGE

The old bridge over Bald Eagle creek at Flemington was razed during the past week and a new bridge will be constructed on the same site. A new approach 2,300 feet in length on the southwest side of the bridge will eliminate two bad curves, and will pass through the site of a service station erected recently, which has been moved.

“BLIND MAN’S BUFF.”

“Blind-Man’s Buff,” a dramatic story of love, thrills and mystery by the Masters of Detective Fiction, Florence Ryerson and Collin Clements. Begin the First Installment in The American Weekly, the Magazine distributed with next Sunday’s New York American.

The legislature passed a bill last week to relieve the counties of half the cost of land taken from them for the building of State roads. Had a measure of that kind been passed by our legislators ten years ago, the majority of the counties of the State would not have the burden upon them that they have today, and the State Treasury would not be any lower in cash.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

April 17th is the tentative date set for the convening of the extraordinary session of Congress.

W. C. T. U. meets at the home of Miss Grace Smith, Tuesday evening of next week.

Miss Mabel Arney purchased a new Chevrolet sport coupe from the Miller Motor Co.

The past month had an average maximum temperature of 45 degrees. What has become of our old-fashion winters?

Mrs. D. T. Raymond, of Sunbury, on Tuesday, visited her sister, Mrs. Catharine Sommers, and brother, Samuel Geringer, in town.

A Chevrolet coupe, found abandoned along Pine Creek and in a slightly damaged condition, was claimed by a man from Reading from whom it was stolen.

Centre Hall borough school district received $3,192.75 of a total of $106,689.25 paid by the State to Centre county. It was a semi-annual payment.

Frank Koch, a retired U. S. soldier with thirty years service to his credit, is suffering from dropsy at the home of his brother-in-law, John D. Neese, in Millheim, where he makes his home.

Two more Ferguson township one-room school houses have been thrown into the discard. A dwelling is being made of the Branch school house and the Glades school house was torn down last week.

On returning from Sunbury on Friday where they attended a funeral, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Corman became storm-stayed at the home of Mrs. Corman's parents, in town, until beginning of this week.

In enclosing a remittance to the Reporter, H. M. Burkholder, borough manager of Edgeworth, in Allegheny county, says: “We enjoy reading the news in the Reporter and always look forward to its arrival.”

The Centre Hall Business Men’s Association will hold its first banquet Tuesday evening of next week. The banquet will be served at the Mitterling cafe and the meeting will be in the Odd Fellows hall.

Frank Ishler, of Oak Hall Station, circulated among friends in town last week. He is night agent in Lock Haven since leaving the Lemont station, a year ago, where he was the last clerk allowed Station Agent P. C. Bradford.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Neese, of Chicago, Ill., have been out here for some time looking after the affairs of William Grossman, living south of town. Mr. Grossman, whose illness has been mentioned during the past few weeks, continues to grow weaker as the days go by.

The story is going the rounds that quite a number of Democrats are acquiring the contagious disease of glory, the official itch, says the Huntingdon Monitor. There is only one cure for it, and that is a grip on the public crib. The country will be strewn with dying Republican officials after the 4th of March.

While walking on the walk at Beaver avenue and Allen street, State College, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shattuck were knocked to the ground by a car driven by Earle Wilde, Jr., who failed to properly make the turn at that point. The couple were not seriously injured. Earle Wilde was charged with reckless driving.

An effort is being made on the part of sportsmen to have the dam at the Half-Way House in 14-Mile Narrows, also known as Brush Valley Narrows, rebuilt. It is estimated the cost of a log, stone and earth dam would be $2,300, and of concrete, $4,000. The cheaper constructed dam's life is put at but ten years, while the life of the concrete work is known to be very much longer.

The Rev. Charles C. Shuey was the guest of honor at a dinner in the lecture room of the Methodist church, in Bellefonte, Thursday evening. The occasion was in celebration of Mr. Shuey's 76th birthday anniversary. Mr. Shuey will soon enter his 28th year as general superintendent of the Methodist Bible school and is serving his fifth year as president of the Centre County Sabbath School Association.

The Ford panel truck, driven by a representative of the Exclusive Dollar Dry Cleaners, Lewisport, made a spill on the Nittany Mountain road above town, on last Thursday evening, when a rear tire blew out. The truck upset, slightly injuring a passenger with Mr. Jacobs, the driver. A car going in the opposite direction passed but an instant prior to the accident, and another car coasting gave the operator a thrill to see the roadway blocked.

Among the seventeen Penn State students from Centre county who graduated at the mid-year commencement exercises held on Friday, was Miss Emma Bible, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bible, of Fiedler. Always a high ranking student scholastically, from the elementary grades on up through the High school, Miss Bible graduated in Education and was awarded second honors. There were 99 members in the graduating class.