A SUCCESSFUL CALLING.

Some time ago a farmer's boy, in faded overalls, stood in the fields his father owned. And shouted lusty calls. That 'woke the neighbors far and near. And prompted yelping dogs, but unperturbed the lad walked on—calling home the hogs. Today he wears no overalls, but pants that have a crease, and off he smiles a secret smile at Fortune's strange caprice. For now he sings before the mike, in faultless evening togs. Acclaimed and famous, richly paid—still calling home the hogs. —N. Y. American

GRANGE FAIR PAYS OWN WAY; 1933 FAIR OPENS AUG. 26

At the annual settlement of the Grange Encampment and Centre County Fair, reports summing up the activities, receipts and expenditures for the year 1932 proved extremely gratifying to the committee in charge. All expenses were paid and a small reserve fund as surplus will be available to begin necessary repairs and improvements for the year 1933—no small achievement.

The committee at this same meeting set the dates for the 1933 fair as opening on Grange Park, Saturday, August 26, closing Friday, Sept. 1. Reorganization of the committee with the new members present will take place early in March when plans for the coming fair will be made.

STATE HIGHWAY ENGINEERS WORKING ON 7 MTS. ROUTE

State Highway engineers on Monday again began working on a route to avoid the short dangerous curves on Highway No. 53, at Brownie's Place, Seven Mountains. The route east of the creek at that point is being surveyed more completely. The change begins at a point some little distance south of the Shamokin club house, and leads farther to the east than the original route made a year ago, which requires an immense fill near Brownie's Place. The surveyors, four in number, are all party chiefs: H. M. Boynton, Warren; Joseph Nicely, Bellefonte; Oran Thompson, Philipsburg; Nye Mains, Clearfield; John Apple, Smethport, and Gilbert McCrosson, Irvana.

Governor Pinchot is making a fight for his additional 53,000-mile township road program. Two years ago he took over 20,000 miles of the same kind of road, and it is reasonable to think that this program should be completed before another one two and one-half times as large is undertaken. The 20,000 miles of Pinchot roads are at this time a long way from being completed. By the time they are, the first constructed will need rebuilding.

DEATHS.

SNARELY.—Harry Irvin Snarely died Tuesday evening at his home in Spring Mills after an illness of several years from Bright's disease. He sought relief at several hospitals but only temporary benefit followed.

Funeral services will be held at the home on Saturday morning with burial in the Georges Valley cemetery, Rev. W. E. Smith officiating. The deceased is a son of John I. and Mary Royer Snarely, and was aged 81 years, 6 months and 6 days. He is survived by his parents and a wife, whose maiden name was Beulah Ripkin; also a son, Walter, aged eleven. Mrs. Joseph Hartley, of Centre Hall, is a surviving sister.

Mr. Snarely engaged in farming up to a year ago. A few years ago he lived on the Gferrer farm, west of town. He was a young man of sterling qualities, and his passing out in the prime of life is deeply regretted by his many friends.

ISHLER.—Bruce Ishler, who had been ill for several weeks, died at the State Hospital, Danville, Friday morning, in his forty-third year. Interment was made at Tusseyville, Monday forenoon, services having been conducted by Rev. D. R. Keener, pastor of the Reformed church.

The deceased was a son of J. William Ishler. He began life as a school teacher, having had acknowledged ability as a schoolmaster. His educational foundation was laid in the Potter township schools and was further built up in Valparaiso (Indiana) College. He devoted much of his attention to penmanship and drawing, acquiring proficiency in both lines. With these special qualifications he had before him a bright future. About ten years ago his mind began to fail him. The malady proved unyielding to treatment, leaving care in the institution named the only course open. Last fall his condition improved to such an extent that his father felt he could care for him in the family home near Colyear, but after a brief trial the plan was abandoned. His death was due to an abscess on the lungs. He was unmarried, but beside the father there survives him a sister, Mrs. Calvin Coble.

BOAL.—Benjamin Franklin Boal, of Peru, died suddenly at the Geisinger hospital, on Sunday, from pneumonia following an operation for gallstones a few days previous. The body was brought to the Goodhart funeral parlors on Sunday and later conveyed to the home. Thursday the body, accompanied by Mr. Goodhart, was shipped to Pittsburg for cremation, religious services having been held at the home on the evening previous. The deceased was the son of John Boal and Mary McGinley. He lived with his parents in Potter township when above, and later located at Peru where at the time of his death he was employed as a guard at the Penitentiary. He is survived by a wife, who before marriage was Miss Ella Decker, a daughter of the late John D. Decker. There were no children. Two brothers, Thomas Boal, Houserville, and John Boal, Jr., Peru, and a sister, Mrs. Elliot, Peru, also survive him. The deceased was aged almost fifty-eight years. Several years ago Mr. Boal aspired to become recorder of Centre county, but was unsuccessful in obtaining the nomination by his party.

CASSELBERRY.—A son, born in the Centre County hospital on Monday of last week, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Casselberry, of Mt. Eagle, died on Saturday. Burial was made at Howard, Monday. The mother, before marriage, was Elizabeth Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jewett Brooks, of near Lemont, formerly of near Centre Hall.

TAYLOR.—Mrs. Della Taylor, widow of William Taylor, died at her home at Bonauburg early Tuesday morning of last week, after a long illness with carcinoma of the stomach. She was born in Pennsylvania, a daughter of William and Leah Campbell Colyer, and was aged 67 years. Six children survive, namely: Jesse Taylor, of Colyer; Orvis Taylor, Linden Hall; Annabelle, at home; Mrs. Elsie Harpster, Mrs. Mary Flory, and Mrs. Sadie Decker, of State College. The brothers and sisters surviving are Frank Colyer, of Millheim; Mrs. Catharine Kline, State College; Mrs. Sarah Zong, Oak Hall; Daniel Colyer, Centre Hall; R. D. I.; Samuel Colyer, Lewistown; Charles of Mill Hall; Arthur, of Hecla Park; and Mrs. Clara Bitner, Ohio.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the home, Rev. A. C. Ruth, pastor of the Evangelical church at State College, officiating. Interment was made in the Zion Hill cemetery, near Tusseyville.

RUHL.—Mrs. Lillian Ruhl, wife of Harry Ruhl, of Lewistown, a former resident of Bellefonte, died at her home of complications following a lengthy illness. She was a native of McKees Rocks and was about 45 years of age. In addition to her husband she is survived by seven children, all at home. Burial was made in the Spring Mills cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl and family resided in Bellefonte for a number of years, Mr. Ruhl conducting a barber shop underneath the First National Bank building.

About seven years ago the family left there for Lewistown where Mr. Ruhl engaged in a similar occupation. Two years ago she was injured in an automobile accident on the Centre Hall mountain, at the intersection of the Greens Valley road and the concrete road, and her health since had been impaired.

WHITE.—Mrs. Clara Speary White, wife of Andrew Z. White, of Huntingdon, and only sister of Centre County Commissioner John Speary, died at the J. C. Blair Memorial hospital following an illness of six weeks with complications.

She was the daughter of the late Charles and Anna Speary and was born at Snow Shoe on October 6, 1874, making her age 59 years, 3 months and 28 days. In addition to her husband she is survived by two sons and a daughter, Andrew White, of Huntingdon; Louis White, at home, and Mrs. Pearly Everly, of Lewistown. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the Brown Funeral Home at Huntingdon, the Rev. E. B. Davidson officiating. Interment was made in the River View cemetery.

HOMAN.—The grim reaper death entered the home of O. C. Homan, at Cowan, near Millburg, Tuesday afternoon of last week and called to her eternal resting place, his wife, Ira May Homan, who had been ill just six days with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Homan was the daughter of John and Mary Breen, and was born in Gregg township, this county, March 19, 1873. She is survived by her husband, four children—Leo J., in the west; Dwight and L. M. Homan, of McEwensville, and Mrs. W. K. Paige, R. D. 2, Millburg; two sisters, Mrs. H. B. Frankenberg, State College; Mrs. Harry E. Eyer, Centre Hall; and two brothers, Willis P. Breen, of Millheim, and John F. Breen, State College.

Mrs. Homan was a member of the Lutheran church at Cowan, and her pastor, Rev. Bottger, had charge of the funeral services which were held at her late home Friday afternoon, with further services at the church at Cowan at 2 o'clock. The Breen family, prior to locating in Union county, lived near Centre Hall, on the Krape farm, and later in Gregg township.

SNARELY.—Lewis Snarely, of near Zion, was found lying on the floor at his home, dead, by a member of the household. Death was due to a stroke. Lewis Snarely was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Snarely and was born near Clintondale 55 years ago. He was twice married, his first wife preceding him to the grave. His second wife was Miss Alice Tate, of Pleasant Gap, who survives with two children, Mildred and Lewis, Jr., at home. A sister, Mrs. Charles Kling, of Bellefonte, and another sister, address unknown, also survive. Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon at the Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap, the Rev. Mr. Wagner officiating. Interment in the cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

GRAY.—G. Oscar Gray, a former State College resident but of late years living in Bellefonte, where he was well known in church and club circles, died Wednesday night of last week following an illness of less than two days. He was taken suddenly ill with angina pectoris just after arising Tuesday morning.

Mr. Gray was the son of the late John F. and Mary Mattern Gray and was born in Half Moon Valley June 23, 1882, hence was aged 50 years, 7 months and 15 days. He was graduated from Penn State and twenty-eight years ago was united in marriage to Miss Mary Judge. Surviving are his wife and two sons, Carl and Richard, both at home, as well as two sisters and one brother, Mrs. Harry Carl, of Philadelphia, Mrs. James Fegan, of Altoona, and Spencer Gray, of Julian.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, past exalted ruler of the Elks club, and an active member of the Kiwanis and Nittany Country clubs. He was an ardent Democrat and was the county chairman of the party for five years. He engaged in the sale of insurance, doing business under the firm name of John F. Gray & Son, a firm name carried by father and son and continued after the death of the father.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon and interment made in the Pine Hill cemetery. News comes from the home of Rev. J. P. Bingman, in Loganville, and is to the effect that Mrs. Bingman is again in her home and is recovering nicely. She was a York hospital patient, having entered the institution February 16, and the following day passed thru a successful operation. The readers of this paper who personally know the Bingman family will be pleased to learn that mother is apparently on the safe road to recovery.

Next regular meeting of Progress Grange will be held Saturday evening. Some news items are omitted this week, owing to lateness of their arrival, but will appear next week.
