WHAT THE BEER BILL AUTHORIZES

The principal provisions of the beer bill:

Legalizes beer and wine of 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight of four per cent by volume. Levies a Federal tax of $5 a barrel of thirty-one gallons. Becomes effective fifteen days after enactment.

Leaves all regulation as to distribution to the states.

Protects dry states by re-affirming the Webb-Kenyon act preventing interstate shipment into those that have laws prohibiting sale of beverages of more than one-half of one per cent alcoholic content.

Provides that brewers must pay an annual Federal license fee of $1000 for each brewery.

Continues existing laws calling for $50 annual fees for wholesalers and $20 for retailers.

Amends dry laws affecting Hawaii, Alaska and Puerto Rico to permit sale of the 3.2 per cent beer and wine.

Makes manufacturers bear the burden of proof that their products do not contain more than 3.2 per cent alcohol.

Reaffirms Volstead act penalties on violators of provisions including the forfeiture of license.

Permits advertising by radio, newspapers and other publications.

The beer and wine may be sold in 14 states as soon as legalized: Arizona, California, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Washington and Wisconsin.

Three other states permit beer to be sold after a specified time: North Dakota, July 1; West Virginia, May 9, and Wyoming, May 15.

SCHOOL TO START IN TWENTY-SEVEN RURAL SCHOOLS

School bells are about to ring for the opening in twenty-seven Pennsylvania rural schools where vacation comes in winter instead of summer. While almost two million other Pennsylvania boys and girls are counting days until summer vacation begins, approximately 500 pupils in the six northern tier counties are preparing to start their eight-month term which will end in November or December.

Need for conducting schools with vacations in winter instead of summer arises from conditions which make the practice more economical or more desirable in the isolated districts where winter snows frequently make roads impassable and children cannot reach the school houses.

Most of the spring-summer-fall school terms start during the first week in April and continue throughout the summer. There are three such schools in Clinton county; Pike county has two. Potter county has twelve, Susquehanna county five, Warren county one, and Wayne county four. Most of the schools maintain a higher average of attendance than the State average of 94 per cent.

LIFE OF A COUNTRY DOCTOR

For more than a score of years Dr. H. C. Dyckke, of Poth, S. D., has been answering distress calls from the sick and injured, and when he looked over his account books he found the amount due him in fees was approximately $29,500. After cancelling all the bills he said:

"Live as you go and save a dollar for a rainy day. If you have more, divide it with the poor and thank God that you have health and are a citizen of the United States of America."

BUCKNELL STUDENTS IN CRASH ON MILLHEIM DIAMOND

Three Bucknell students failed to conform to traffic light signals in Millheim, Monday morning, and messed up matters badly. Their car made contact with three others, upset and struck a brick dwelling house in its swirl. The first car struck was that of a stranger whose car fender was trimmed. Next, Mifflin Meyer's mail truck was struck, which upset the students' car, but before it came to a stop, another mail car, that of George Imel, of Madisonburg, was hit. The glass in the rear of the Imel car was broken, a piece of which hit Mrs. Mary Wise, a passenger, on the arm, cutting a gash requiring six stitches in dressing by a surgeon. The brick dwelling hit was damaged on the outside and on the interior.

The students immediately left the car and unobserved entered the post-office, gave their names to Postmaster Swarn, and beat it. Their disappearance gave rise to a story that the occupants were the escaped prisoners from Rockview.

Gettig, sister of Mr. Meyer, her two daughters, Nellie and Catharine, and son, William Gettig, and wife, and little daughter, Joan Elizabeth, all of Altoona, and Miss Anna Weber, Boalsburg.
