Fred K. Carter, of State College, was in town on Tuesday. He is 73 years old, but looks spry and active. He is not employed at present, having lost his job as janitor he held a long time.

Mrs. A. M. Riegl, of Centre Hall, was taken to the Lock Haven hospital, on Tuesday of last week, and underwent a minor operation. Her condition since has very materially improved.

Fire destroyed a farm house on the John Keefe farm, several miles east of Tyrone. The house was being prepared for occupancy when one of the workmen upset an oil lamp, starting the fire which at once became uncontrollable.

Misses Catharine and Ella Dale, of Boalsburg, were callers at this office on Saturday. They were traveling in an auto, having come down the Boalsburg-Potters Mills concrete road to try it out. Before returning home they visited their brother, Clement Dale, at Pleasant Gap.

Attention is called to an advertisement in this issue of Chevrolet cars by the Weiser Chevrolet Co., Bellefonte, and the Miller Motor Company, Centre Hall. A talk with these firms on the "octane selector" will be of interest to persons having in mind the purchase of a new car.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of D. W. Bradford, local International Farm Machinery dealer, who is announcing a display of 1933 farm equipment for Friday and Saturday of this week. The display promises to be attractive and interesting, and certain extraordinary features make purchasing of new machinery especially easy. Read the ad.

Mrs. Otto Motter, daughter of Mrs. Leonard Stover, deceased, accompanied by her two children, aged 3 and 12, ran off the Macadam road near the Daniel Colyer farm, about four miles west of Old Fort, on Monday, while on her way to her home in Pittsburgh. She was driving a Graham-Paige sedan. None of the occupants of the car was hurt. A serious accident was averted by a very narrow margin.

A lot of good work was done by the town hall club on their baseball diamond, Saturday, with the use of a scraper, a drag and a roller, hooked up to the rear of motor trucks. The playing field is now in a No. 1 condition, and would compare favorably with many of the big league playing fields. It is doubtful if local ball tossers and fans appreciate as they should the splendid facilities offered here for the great national pastime.

Six-tenths of a mile of Macadam road will be built by the State Highway Department in the near future, which will extend a Macadam road from the concrete road to the Federal Penitentiary property near Lewisburg. The construction of this road will shorten the distance between the institution and Lewisburg by one-fourth. The entire prison property will be inclosed with a seven-foot fence built by prison labor. It will require 5,600 linear feet of fencing.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf, on Tuesday evening, entertained a number of the associates—boys and girls—of the latter's brother, Kenneth Frank, at their home. Among the guests were some of the High school faculty, and members of the freshman class, of which Kenneth is one, and a few other school friends. The event was in celebration of the youth's fifteenth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing various games. Elegant refreshments were also served.

The Musser-Krape auto accident at Spring Mills which happened some time ago on the main highway, was settled by Lawrence Musser, the driver, paying a penalty of $10.00 on a charge of reckless driving, the penalty having been imposed by Justice E. T. Jamison, Mr. Musser, who was a passenger with his brother, was the owner of the new Chevrolet sedan wrecked. He carried a beginner's permit and no doubt gave the car in his brother's care as a matter of safety.

The dwelling house on a farm located several miles west of Livonia and owned by H. C. Straham, of Lewisburg, was totally destroyed by fire a few days ago. The fire was the result of a defective flue. The owner had but one thousand dollars insurance which he carried in the Farmer's Mutual Co. The loss was adjusted Tuesday by F. M. Fisher, secretary. The tenant on the place was Edward D. Ilgen, a son of Mrs. Wm. Stoner, of near town, by a former marriage. No insurance was carried by him.

It costs 1700 optometrists $5 annually, 800 osteopaths $3, 5000 undertakers $2 (their 1000 apprentices pay $1), 500 veterinarians $2, 8000 real estate brokers $5, and 2000 realty salesmen $2.50 each. Insurance brokers pay $10, and agents average $2.

But the barbers, long pointed to as talkative individuals, really have something to talk about when it comes to licenses. There are 25,000 barbers in the State and each pays $2, and the $50,000 a year they turn into the State Treasury outranks all other license classifications under the Department of Public Instruction.

Of course, there are wedding licenses, and the Legislature is working on licenses for beer sellers, photographers, permanent wavers, exterminators, junk dealers in third-class cities, race tracks, garbage disposers, practitioners of naturopathy, second-hand dealers, projectionists, and numerous others.

The lawmakers had no love, however, for a plan to license locksmiths. They rejected such a licensing bill several weeks ago.

The Millheim school board retained all of the former teachers, salaries to be adjusted with new legislation regulations, if any. Paul Zimmerman, of Aaronsburg, who is teaching the 7th and 8th grades, which school was made vacant by the death of M. C. Haines, has been elected to teach a Haines township school at Woodward. This leaves one vacancy to be filled by the Millheim school board.

Mrs. Thressa Smith, of Millheim, has been in ill health during the recent past.
