SCHOOL PRINCIPAL AND MINISTER GET SALARY CUTS

The salary of Prof. O. R. Wagner, principal of the East Penns Valley High school, east of Millheim, was cut $600. The institution is supported by Millheim borough, Penn and Haines townships. Penn township, it is understood, some time ago made application for a part of a special fund set aside by the State to aid school districts hampered financially.

Rev. A. C. Paulhamus, pastor of the Millheim Evangelical church, at a meeting of the officers of the conference held in Coburn, had $450.00 struck from his salary.

30 Years Ago

Items of news which interested those of a generation ago, taken from the files of The Reporter, year 1903.

April 23, 1903.

The Hospital Aid Society met at the Presbyterian Manso Monday, April 20. Five new members were added, making a total of eighteen.

Wm. Reber, of Colyer, advertised elsewhere in this issue 20 colonies of Italian bees for sale. Mr. Reber is an experienced apiarist and finds the business profitable.

Jacob Sharer recently purchased 80 acres of timberland from the McNitt Bros. & Co., being a part of a tract of 180 acres purchased by the latter from the estate of Samuel Huston. The land purchased by Mr. Sharer adjoins the farm owned by him.

Mrs. Maggie Love and daughter, Misses Cora and Wilma, and son Clement, on Monday started for Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, where they will live in the future.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. John Spangler and Mrs. Charley Stoner, and the latter's two little children, all of Tusseyville, narrowly escaped a serious accident. The ladies and children were driving a buggy and on reaching the railroad crossing at the Centre Hall station, did not notice the approach of the freight train from the east, and escaped collision only by the bravery of Harvey Glass, a grocery agent of Sunbury, who caught the horse as the animal was making a short turn to keep out of the engine's way. But for this act of Mr. Glass the occupants would have been thrown from the vehicle and possibly onto the railroad tracks.

Mrs. Lizzie Durst has been seriously ill for several weeks.

John T. Lee has been in Pittsburgh since Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs visited her sister, Mrs. John Stuart, in State College, this week.
