CROP PRODUCTION LOAN COMMITTEE OF CENTRE MET

Friday evening the crop production loan committee of Centre county met in the office of County Agent Blaney. The purpose of the meeting at that time was to obtain further instruction from J. Clark Lippart, field supervisor. It appears recent rulings on loans made for crop production have not been thoroughly assimilated by those having the matter in hand. This condition is largely due to the fact that local representatives have not had the time to thoroughly study the most recent rulings.

The committee in Centre county is composed of W. C. Smetzer, chairman, L. W. Biddly and H. L. Ebricht, who have about fifteen applications for loans.

Some of the pertinent regulations in making loans are:

- Maximum amount, $300; minimum, $25.
- No part of any loan may be used for the purchase of livestock or machinery or for the payment of taxes, debts or interest.
- All borrowers must plant at least one-half acre of garden for home use.
- Maximum amount of loan per acre (not including fertilizer) on all crops except truck and potatoes, $3.00 per acre. On crops of truck and potatoes, $12.00 per acre.
- Maximum amount of loan per acre for fertilizer, on all crops except fruit, tobacco and potatoes, $2.00 per acre. On crops of tobacco, truck and potatoes, $8.00 per acre.
- For fertilizer, spraying and dusting materials for fruit, the maximum limit is $25.00 per acre to cover the cost of all such materials.
- Spraying and dusting material for tobacco, not over $2.00 per acre. For truck and potatoes, not over $4.00 per acre.
- Loans may include not more than $2.50 per acre for soil-building crops to be planted on the 30% acreage withheld from cultivation.
- A reasonable amount for repairs to equipment, hail insurance, etc., may be included in application.

A telegram has just been received by W. W. Kerlin, owner and manager of the Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm of this place, advising that his white leghorn pullet, entered October 1, 1932, in the Alabama Egg Laying Contest, is leading all birds in the United States in egg production. In competition with approximately 10,000 pullets the Kerlin bird has produced 202 eggs in the first 212 days of the contest (Oct. 1, 1932, to April 30, 1933), over 95% production of better than standard weight eggs.

PINCHOT'S "SAVING" ON ROADS.

Governor Pinchot in a letter sent to all newspapers in the State declares that if the legislature passes the bill to take over 53,000 miles of road, Centre county taxpayers will save $111,150 in taxes, and that the whole State will save over $18,000,000. Of course, while that is true in a sense, the taxpayers will be obliged to pay exactly that much tax under some other name than road tax. Eighteen million dollars cannot be picked from the air—it must come from the pockets of the people of Pennsylvania. The Governor is an expert when it comes to juggling figures.

Two years ago, Pinchot took over 20,000 miles of road, a large per cent of which has not yet been improved. He has more roads on hand now than he will be able to improve during the remainder of his term. His saving $111,150 is all the bank.

F. M. FISHER HAS INTERESTING COLLECTION OF CURRENCY OF 60'S

Frank M. Fisher, of town, has an interesting collection of currency used during the days of the Civil war, and laid aside by his father, the late J. B. Fisher, who at that time was a prosperous merchant at Penn Hall. The currency is in one-, two-, five- and ten-dollar denominations, and was issued by various banks throughout the country. Printed on flimsy paper, the money shows the effects of time in its disintegration.

A Mr. Motz, who was a "big shot" at Woodward in the Civil war days, had his own money, or scrip, issued over the name of Motz's Bank, albeit there was no bank at Woodward, the man's business sagacity being sufficient to warrant the confidence reposed in his paper promises to pay.

With all the talk of inflation current at this time, the currency of the 60's takes on added interest. It is believed that we have learned through past experiences, so that whatever inflation we may have, will be so controlled that it will behave with benefit to us all.

BASEBALL, SATURDAY.

On Saturday of this week the Centre County Baseball League opens its season, with the teams playing as follows: Pleasant Gap at Centre Hall. Bellefonte at Lamar. Howard at Rebersburg. Orviston at Millheim.

SECOND COMMUNITY SALE $1579; 8 HORSES, 20 COWS

The second community sale held in Centre Hall on Tuesday of last week, Charles Witmer, promoter, like the previous one, was an entire success. The gross sales footed up to $1579.70. The distribution of horses and cattle was wide. One horse went to Muncy, a bunch of cattle to Millfintown, while others found buyers from lower Penna. Valley and Nittany Valley. All sales were for cash.

Eight horses were sold. A single horse passed for $171.00, and a team for $225.00. Twenty cows, two bulls and one heifer were put on the block and sold. The best cow sold for $50. The hogs sold numbered 29.

H. J. Frantz, of Bellefonte, was again on hand with an outfit of handles, garden tools, etc. "Chap John," too, held a group of bidders busy nodding. Both did a smashing business.

The sale was largely attended, bidders and investigators coming from all sections of the county, and in smaller numbers from adjoining counties.

"Jack" Smith was the auctioneer for the general sale, and H. L. Ebricht, of the First National Bank, clerk.

ROOSEVELT'S RETIRING ORDER HITS LOCAL EMPLOYEES

The order of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, coming officially from the White House last week, is going to create quite a stir in the Democratic ranks when it comes to fill the many vacancies that will be created sooner than was expected by the ones eager for patronage.

The President's new order places in retirement all public officials who have served in the government service for thirty years. It places them upon the retired list with pensions, fixed by a rating of their salaries. The new order isn't pleasant news to the thirty-year men and women who liked their employment with the good pay and vacation included. But the order is an official one and the ones affected will have to step out on the 1st of July.

Bellefonte has three postal employees who come under the order: R.H. Woodring and Boyd A. Spicher, rural mail carriers, and Morton Smith, assistant postmaster.

W. F. Keller, carrier on Route 1 from Centre Hall, and J. A. Wagner, carrier on Route 2, from Spring Mills, will both be included in the list, a few months after July 1st.

State College is also likely to have some thirty-year service men.

MEN'S "GET-TOGETHER" SOCIAL, SPEAKER, DR. M. S. KEMP

The address of Dr. M. Stanley Kemp was an outstanding feature of the Men's "Get-Together" social in the Lutheran church, on Thursday evening, Dr. Kemp is pastor of the Lutheran church in Hollidaysburg, and devotes sometime to platform work.

"What is the Church?" might be termed the subject of his address on Thursday evening to about one hundred Lutheran men and their sons.

The church, he said, was a saving institution, first; another function, a school. Speaking of what the church does, he mentioned that it made better homes, better parents, better children, better schools. It is an ennobling character, strengthens the inner nature of man, builds up the finer moral quality of man, and finally, he said, the Church makes the nation.

What men can do for the church, was dwelt on to some length. First, he said, they can be faithful to it by attending regularly, cooperating, contributing, obtaining a broad vision of the Church.

Finally, he spoke of the reward the Church offers: Walk with Christ literally, and have all things. In opening his address, the speaker warmed up his audience by devoting some little time to humorous incidents observed, but was always able to picture a valuable lesson that stood out in bold relief.

After the address, all repaired to the Sunday school room where a committee of ladies served refreshments while the gathering enjoyed a string orchestra and singing under the direction of Harry Barger and his Keystone Melody Boys.

BUILDING SWIMMING POOL AT STORCH LODGE, COLYER

Workmen at present are pouring concrete for a swimming pool under construction on Phillip Storch holdings, west of Colyer, formerly owned by W. A. Jordan. Mr. Storch is a resident of Pottsville, but spends much of his time in the wilds of Seven Mountains and likes the comfortable quarters nearby owned by him.

The swimming pool is of course of considerable size, and while it is for private use, it may be assumed that residents of South Potter will not be denied the privilege of taking a splash.

Port Matilda Wins 4-3.

Port Matilda's High school baseball team, sporting a town team pitcher, was too much for the local High school team, last Friday, on the Centre Hall athletic field, and won a hard-fought game by the score of 4 to 3. Woodring, "Port's" pitcher, although a High school student, has pitched for the town team for several seasons, and his curve ball proved a mystery for the local batsmen. Lawrence Hartley, for C. H. H. S., pitched a fine game, and the loss of the game was due to other factors outside of pitching.

The three young women who completed their course in the Centre County Hospital Training School for Nurses and will graduate on May 12, are Grace Elmira Spicer, Bellefonte, R. D., Margaret Barr Boese and Miriam Beatrice Whitman, both of Snow Shoe.

W. G. Runkle, Esq., who lives on his farm above Tusseyville, has been making daily trips to his Bellefonte office, taking with him several children who attend school in the county seat. Recently he decided to begin light housekeeping with the children in Bellefonte, while Mrs. Runkle will remain on the farm.

The alleged attempt to defraud the taxpayers of Burnside township resulted in the arrest and placing under bond in the sum of $500 of Fred Phibbs and sons, Ivan and Ira, of Pine Glenn, William, another son of the former, secretary-treasurer of the township board of supervisors, is accused of raising checks paid members of the family. About forty persons, mostly from Centre Hall, participated in a "shower" for Mrs. Paul E. Brown, formerly Thelma Brungart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Brungart, of town, on Thursday evening. The "shower" proved to be a veritable rain of useful articles of various description and will go far in equipping the young couple's new home, at the "Green Lantern," five miles south of Bellefonte on State Highway No. 5. The "Green Lantern" is an eating house, the only one between Reedsville and Bellefonte. Gas, oil, etc., are also sold.

13 Sparr Wert, prominent citizen of Haines township, was a visitor in town on Friday and called at this office. Mr. Wert likes any good citizen, is up in arms against the present unjust system of taxation whereby real estate, representing only twenty per cent of the total wealth of the country, is taxed so as to produce eighty per cent of the revenue derived from taxation. Time has made changes; real estate no longer represents our greatest wealth; incomes, especially, should be the target for taxation, and will be once an aroused citizenry says it shall be so.
