

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

There were 49 patients in the Centre County hospital at the beginning of the week.

Mrs. Harry Davidson, of Milroy, is a guest of her brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lutz.

John D. Meyer and mother, Mrs. Eliza Meyer of Tyrone, were in Centre Hall the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Strohm, of Scranton, were week-end guests of Mr. Strohm's mother, Mrs. Margaret E. Strohm.

H. S. Limbert, of Gregg township, secretary of the school board in his district, was a business caller at the Reporter office on Saturday.

The detour used when the concrete road over Seven Mountains was under construction, is said to be in very fair condition and is affording a delightful mountain drive.

Thomas Keefer and two children, motored to Centre Hall from Youngwood, Saturday, and remained in town until Sunday morning, guests of Mrs. Emma Emerick and family.

The commencement speaker omitted mentioning fanatics as being responsible in part for a condition he so greatly deplored. And why assume that the devil ever spoke the truth.

The national prohibition director says that at least 50,000 speakshakes have been driven out of business since beer was legalized. Lacking proof that this figure is not correct, it cannot be disputed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stover and two children, of Akron, Ohio, visited with Mrs. Stover's sister, Mrs. Harry Zerby, and family, in Millheim, and Mr. Stover's parents, in Aaronburg, over the week-end and Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alexander and children and Mrs. Lella Magee and children, all of Wenonah, N. J., arrived here the latter part of last week. Mr. Alexander returned home Monday and to others by train on Wednesday. While in town they were guests of the Alexander and Huyett families.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore with Mrs. Stanley Brooks as a guest, on Saturday motored to Hershey and on returning that evening brought with them Miss Miriam Moore, who finished teaching in the Derry township school. Miss Moore was re-elected to teach during the coming school year.

The heavy storm that swept over Philadelphia Wednesday afternoon of last week, did considerable damage to the apartment house owned by Mrs. Virginia Geiss Miller, at 2011 Mt. Vernon street. Hall that accompanied the storm broke window lights while the wind did damage to a large chimney and roof to the main portion of the house.

On a trip to Pittsburgh, on Friday, to secure a new Ford car, Edward Vogt, the local dealer here, was accompanied by Mrs. Vogt, Mrs. Harold Hanson, Miss Lona Hanson, and Russell Slack. The car became the property of Mr. Hanson, manager of the Dairyman's League milk plant at Spring Mills. The latter witnessed a game of ball played by Pittsburgh and the Giants.

Forests will soon begin to bloom with clusters of pink and white laurel, the State flower of Pennsylvania. The laurel abounds along the State highway from Nittany Mountain top to Pleasant Gap. There were also many beds in the Seven Mountains, notably between Potters Mills and Sunset Club house. Along the forest roads in Seven Mountains laurel may also be found in abundance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stahl, of Narberth, made their annual trip here at this season, arriving here on Friday. They returned early Wednesday morning. While here they were guests of Mr. Stahl's mother, Mrs. Mary Stahl. Other guests at the Stahl home over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Snyder and daughter Miss Maudella, and Frederick Stahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asher Stahl, of Altoona.

The only Japanese cherry tree in this section is found to the right of the main entrance to Grange Park, and was planted there a few years ago to beautify that section. The tree this season bore an abundance of blossoms, but they came much later than similar trees at Washington, yet no less attractive. A. H. Spayd, superintendent of grounds, found much pleasure in pointing out the rare ornamental tree in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huprich and Edward Bohn, the latter a brother of Mrs. Huprich, all of Akron, Ohio, were among friends in this vicinity over the week-end including Memorial Day. Mrs. Huprich, formerly Miss Fay Bohn, has many admiring friends about here where she was once a school girl, who are always glad to see her return. Her husband is one of the fortunates at this time, having had and continues to have employment regularly with the Armour company.

LIGHTNING FATAL TO BALL PLAYER AT PENN STATE

Charles E. Lee 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lee, of Lock Haven, a freshman at Pennsylvania State College, was instantly killed at 4:15 o'clock Monday afternoon when struck by lightning on the baseball diamond at Penn State when he was about to catch a fly ball.

Two other players with Lee were stunned by the lightning. The youth's parents were summoned from Lock Haven. They awaited the arrival of the Centre county coroner before taking their son's body home.

MAY COURT CASES HEARD AND DECIDED BY JURIES

Women More Lenient Than Men In Betrayal and Parental Cases.

Women jurors showed more leniency for defendants in betrayal and parental cases, in court at Bellefonte, than is usually extended by men. This was exemplified in two cases, one against Keith Walker, of Milesburg, in which the prosecutor was Celsa E. Jodon, and the other Wayne Boob, of Halfmoon township, the prosecutor being Evelyn Fisher.

Nine men and three women constituted the jury in the Walker case and they were out eighteen hours, which included an entire night. During the long deliberation rumors seeped from the jury room that the women were holding out for acquittal, and when the verdict was finally returned it was "not guilty but pay the costs." The costs in the case were $38.18.

In the case of Wayne Boob, seven women and five men constituted the jury, and a "not guilty" verdict was returned in that case. Defendant, however, was required to pay the costs, $38.25.

David A. Bennett, of Lewisburg, plead guilty to operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, and was sentenced to pay the costs, $25.00 fine and placed on probation for two years.

Robert Hartsock, president of the school board of Huston township, was accused of assault and battery by Mrs. Minnie Rowan, who testified that he hit her three times on the breast and once on the jaw in ejecting her from a meeting of the board. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and divided the costs between the defendant and prosecutor.

Allen A. Dunlap, who two weeks ago stole a team of horses from Mrs. Minnie Stine, in Buffalo Run valley, plead guilty to larceny and was sentenced to pay the costs and placed on probation for two years.

Paul Waite, of Bellefonte, who was before the court on a desertion and non-support charge, was ordered to pay his wife $10 a month and give bond in the sum of $200 within ten days or go to the Allegheny county workhouse.

NOTICE TO BONDHOLDERS.

Notice is hereby given to the bondholders of Gregg Township School District that bonds of the First Issue, Numbers 47, 13, 18, 50, 17, 33, 36, 51, 20, 11, 39, 43, will be redeemed on July 1 1933, at The First National Bank at Spring Mills, Pennsylvania.

Interest will cease on above mentioned bonds after above date.

By order of the Board.

H. S. LIMBERT, Secretary.

SENIORS OF C. H. H. S. GO TO NATION'S CAPITAL

The Senior Class of Centre Hall High School, accompanied by the Senior classes of Hubersburg, Boalsburg, Spring Mills and East Penns Valley, composed a party numbering about one hundred and ten which went to Washington, D. C., on the fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth of May on a sightseeing tour. The students and their chaperons stayed at the Hotel Roosevelt while they were in the city.

During the trip many points of interest in the city were visited, including the Capitol Building, White House, Washington Monument, Mount Vernon, Arlington Cemetery, Fort Myers, the Smithsonian Institute, Zoological Gardens and the Corcoran Art Gallery.

On the evening of the sixteenth the group took a twenty-five mile boat trip down the Potomac. The next day a bus load of boys went to a big league ball game.

The annual trip to Washington has been made by the Senior Class of C. H. H. S. for the past seven years. The funds for the trip have usually been raised by class dues and by earnings of the class.

LOCAL STUDENTS DISPLAY TALENTS AT PATRON'S DAY

The annual Patron's Day at the Centre Hall Schools was held on Friday,

May 12.

The exhibits of the work done through the year were displayed in both the grade and high school buildings. A display of machines and notebooks was produced by the Freshman Science class. The health groups exhibited health projects. The Manual Arts Club had a display of leather work consisting of billfolds, belts, pocketbooks, scissor-holders and nail file cases. They also had Prang tempera work in the form of doorstops, hot-mats and letter-holders, and several trays woven of reed.

The Sophomore English class exhibited the "Fontainebleau Reporter," which was a newspaper based on Shakespeare's "As You Like It."

Grades Display Work.

The first and second grade exhibits consisted of many drawings and instruments of the rhythmic band.

The third and fourth grade exhibits consisted of drawings and health posters showing proper methods of eating and exercising. The fifth and sixth grades exhibited maps of different sections of the United States.

The exhibits of the seventh and eighth grades included pictures, of the presidents of the United States and their life records, pictures of President Roosevelt's cabinet, displays of writings, notebooks, and maps of Europe.

A. A. Serves Supper.

The day was concluded by a ham and egg supper served by pupils of the high school for the benefit of the Athletic Association. The net receipts were approximately twelve dollars.

Graduating Class Has Pictures Taken.

The Senior class of C. H. H. S. went to State College to have the class picture taken on Friday evening, May nineteenth, at ten o'clock.

Mr. Robert Breen, of the Penn State Photo Shop, was the photographer. The twenty-nine graduates and four teachers are on the picture.

Girls of Tri-Hi-Y Club Observe Mother's Day.

The Tri-Hi-Y girls held a party in honor of their Mothers, May 11. The program was opened by Isabel Bradford's reading the Scripture and offering a prayer. Mrs. Wetzel and Mrs. Goodhart then sang a duet, "Songs My Mother Taught Me." Hazel Smith gave a "Toast to Mother," and Mrs. George McCormick responded with "To Our Daughters." This was followed by a solo by Sarah Odenkirk '34, "An Old-fashioned Mother." Miriam Mitterling '35 gave a reading, "Mother."

Last on the program was a play, "How the Story Grew." Those who took part in it were:

Anne Wert, Isabel Jodon, Laura Belle McCormick, Laura Breen, and Loraine Brungart, all seniors, and Freda Burkholder '35, Roberta Smith '36, and Doris Moltz '34.

Members of the Club then served refreshments. Eighteen mothers and other guests attended this meeting.

The Sophomore biology class took a trip to Kockey's Meadow for wild flowers, on May 4. Many different species found there are scarce in other places; for example, wild ginger, Jack-in-the-pulpit, and trillium.

Miss A. E. Geary and Prof. J. F. Wetzel accompanied the class on the trip.
