

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Spring Mills.

Ben Hackenberg is visiting friends at Mifflinburg this week.

Squire Jamison is representative from Spring Mills Lodge of Odd Fellows at the Grand Lodge at Erie this week.

C. F. Bartges told the writer that on his recent trip to Bedford, a week ago, he attended services in the Methodist church, and to his surprise the minister happened to be Rev. Walter Williams, formerly of this place, and whom he at once recognized. After services he shook hands with the Rev. and Mrs. Williams, who very kindly invited him to their home for dinner. He accepted the invitation and said he was treated royally and enjoyed the visit very much.

Rev. Pruyn and his brother left for Sidney, N. Y., to visit their old home town.

The Spring Mills lodge of Odd Fellows held their annual Memorial services in the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon. Rev. H. A. Pruyn delivered the address, which was very greatly appreciated. Dolores Condo sang a solo, entitled, "Cover Them Over With Flowers;" Miss Sarah Homan presided at the piano. The attendance was very scant.

The members of the Beaver Dam Sunday school will have their annual picnic and festival on Saturday, July 8. The class of 1934 of the Vocational school is making preparations for their festival this coming Saturday evening.

Rebersburg.

Arthur Cummings, wife and Mrs. Willard Burd and Walter Cummings drove to New York, Sunday. They will visit the Frank McIntyre family, who moved to that State in the spring, for several days. Walter will remain in New York, having secured employment.

The Lester Meek family, from Bellefonte, were week-end guests of relatives.

Miss Sarah Zettle and brother Harold, from Penn Hall, visited their sister, Mrs. John Reish, on Sunday.

Miss Alice Long, who is employed at State College, accompanied her friend, Luella Gephart, to her home here for the week-end.

The Will Torbert family, from Pittsburg, visited the C. O. Mallory home on Sunday. Mrs. Torbert is a daughter of Mr. Mallory.

David Diehl and wife, from Pittsburg, visited their son, Clarence, and family, over the week-end. Mr. Diehl has been fortunate enough to hold his job and has work every day.

The Children's Day program rendered by the Junior class of the Reformed S. S. was an unique and interesting one and was well rendered to an appreciative audience.

Miss Florence Daye of Madsonburg, visited their friend, Anna Ziegler, several days the past week.

The festival at Rebersburg, Saturday night, was attended by only a moderate number of persons. The disappointment of hundreds a week previous was no doubt responsible for the falling off in patronage.

30 Years Ago

Items of news which interested those of a generation ago, taken from the files of The Reporter, year 1903.

June 11, 1903.

The formation of the Philadelphia-sized Centre countians into a permanent organization was an important event in the history of the half thousand Centre county people living in the City of Brotherly Love.

Rev. Daniel Gress, newly elected pastor of the Centre Hall Reformed church, is expected in Centre Hall Friday afternoon.

Lewis Korman, of Penns Cave, captured a California trout in Penns Creek below the cave which measured 21 inches. That is the largest trout ever captured in Penns Creek.

The unusual dry spell was broken Saturday night when .43 of an inch of rain fell.

The Spring Mills Lutheran church will be dedicated Sunday, June 21. Services will be held during the week previous. Ministers who will speak are Rev. Harman, Rebersburg; Rev. W. M. Rearick, West Milton; Rev. B. R. M. Sheeder, Aaronsburg; Rev. J. I. Stonecypher, Boalsburg; Rev. C. T. Aikens, Pine Grove Mills; Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., Shamokin; Rev. J. H. McGinn, Lewisburg, and Rev. J. M. Rearick, pastor.

Will Sandoe, who had been in the Dayton, Ohio, railroad office for the past year, has been transferred by his employers to Cincinnati.

Lightning struck the barn of Adam Krumrine, near Tusseyville, Monday afternoon, but did the building no harm.

John M. Harter, of Coburn, was a caller Wednesday. Mr. Harter thinks he discovered a point south of Rock Grove school house, in Potter township, where there is an abundance of oil.

Prof. John D. Meyer is attending the commencement exercises at Franklin and Marshall college. He is a graduate of that institution.

Frank Lee, of near Bellefonte, driving a fine team of gray horses, passed through town Friday.

Mrs. J. F. Alexander, Mrs. W. F. Bradford, Mrs. D. J. Meyer, Miss Agnes Murray, Miss Emam McCoy and Miss Florence Love, of this place, are many prominent in religious, social and in business circles.

Mrs. Ward, wife of Dr. J. E. Ward, of Bellefonte.

POTTERS MILLS.

Clyde Walker and family, of Bellefonte, Franklin Sharer and family, of near Coburn, spent Sunday at the home of E. B. Palmer.

Miss Caroline McClaskey is spending the week at the home of J. T. McCormick, State College.

Sunday callers at the G. H. McCormick home were Clyde Bible, wife and daughter, of Millersburg; Paul Winklerblech, wife and two children, Lester Feldler, wife and son, of near Woodward.

Miss Amelia Copenhaver, who had been spending some time at the home of her uncle, George Miller, in Tyrone, has returned home.

Chester Knapp and wife, after visiting with friends in Westmoreland county, have returned to town.

Children's Day services will be held in the Spruce town M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mr. Davis and wife, from Spruce Creek, are visiting at the home of their son, Thomas Davis.

ERRORS RUIN BATTLE WITH GAP

A comedy of errors, best described as the ball game between Centre Hall and Pleasant Gap, on the local field, last Thursday evening, in which Pleasant Gap gave a solid trouncing to our boys, the score being 7 to 1. It is seldom that the wrecking is so complete. In the game practically every player on the local team was guilty of one or more errors either of commission or omission. The error column shows ten misplays, while the visitors had a clean slate, and at the same time connecting for 13 safe hits, while Centre Hall could do little or nothing with Whitehill. The locals' only run came in the fifth as the result of a hit by Knarr and a successful squeeze play, with R. Martz dumping the ball in the infield to permit Knarr to score.

Jamison started on the mound for the locals, but was found easy of solution by the opposition. Martz took the mound in the 3rd, and he likewise failed to fool the heavy hitters on the Gap team. Durst pitched the last inning. The box score:

NEW PITCHER FAILS IN DEBUT.

A new pitcher for Centre Hall, Bringer by name, and coming from Susquehanna University, made his debut Saturday against Bellefonte, facing that old master hurler, Montgomery. The youngster appears to be the making of a pitcher, but on Saturday failed to make an impressive showing against the county-seaters who were in a batting mood and drove the newcomer out of the box at the close of the 6th, after having hit for ten safeties. Jamison took up the task and pitched creditably, however the lead Bellefonte had gained was beyond overcoming with Montgomery pitching his best brand of ball. Final score, Bellefonte, 5; Centre Hall, 1.

The locals' only run was scored in the very first inning when Goodhart singled and scored when Emery's hit to center field went for two bases as Rizin slipped on the sod in his attempt at a catch.

Bellefonte in their first turn at bat soon put over enough runs to settle the game before it was rightly started. Bringer walked the first batter, and after retiring the next two, got into difficulty by allowing Confer to hit for two bases, scoring Dale; Anderson followed with a hit, scoring Confer. Two runs, enough to win, with the locals victims of Montgomery's masterful pitching.

The locals' four pinch hitters failed to connect for safe hits. The box score follows:

DROP 3RD GAME IN WEEK.

Centre Hall dropped its third game of the week, Tuesday, when at Bellefonte in a 7-inning twilight game they lost by the score of 4 to 3. Jamison was the locals' pitcher. Details of the game are lacking.

Historical Facts

[Under this head will appear one or more historical facts of local interest, to a large extent taken from Linn's History of Centre and Clinton counties, designated for reference as L. H. The figures following indicating page. The "Notes," if any, are those of the editor.]

Gen. James Potter gave two acres for a church and burial purposes, near Linden Hall to the Cedar Creek church. The logs were used in the erection of a house nearby.—L. H. 404. (Note.—This site is located on the Geiss farm. Reference has already been made of a burial ground there.

The Sinking Creek Sabbath school was organized in 1820, with William Rankin as superintendent.

(Note.—This was at Centre Hill.) The first Sabbath school in the valley was organized at Earlstown a short time previous to the organization of the Sinking Creek school, with Jacob Singer as superintendent.—L. H. 405.

(Note.—The Sunday school may have been held in a school house on the north side of the Earlstown road immediately west of Old Fort woods. It stood ten or more rods from the road.) The population of Potter township in 1810 was 1,554. The county's population then was 10,631.—L. H. 43.

(Note.—Potter township then was much larger than now. This was before Gregg and Harris townships were formed. The townships of Potter, Ferguson, Haines and Miles embraced all of Penns and Brush Valleys.)

In 1775 Gen. Potter recorded the fact that there were only twenty-six families in Penns Valley. Rev. William Linn, who lived where Neville is now located, was the first supply Presbyterian pastor who ever penetrated Penns Valley.—L. H. 404.

The East Penns Valley church at Musers, near Penn Hall, became extinct about 1810, and the building and lot passed over to the Lutheran and Reformed people.

Rev. Wm. Stuart, who became pastor of the Sinking Creek and Spruce Creek Presbyterian churches in 1861, died in 1848 and was buried in the grave yard of the Sinking Creek church.—L. H. 404.

(Note.—The Sinking Creek burial place is that at Centre Hill, now receiving little attention, although there is many prominent in religious, social and political life during their day and generation.)
