DEATHS.

GALBRAITH.—Mrs. Cora Karstetter Galbraith, wife of Frank Galbraith, of Bellefonte, died at the Broad street hospital, Philadelphia, on Saturday, of complications following an operation. She was born in Clintondale and was aged 66 years. She is survived by her husband, one daughter, one sister and a brother.

Interment was made at Bellefonte on Tuesday.

HALL.—Mrs. Freda Hess Hall passed away at her home at 928 Mifflin street, Huntingdon, Monday morning after a prolonged illness. She had undergone several operations and last Thanksgiving day she suffered a light paralytic stroke, which affected her heart. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from her home, with burial in Huntingdon. Her pastor, a Presbyterian minister, officiated.

She was the wife of George M. Hall, who survives her, as does also a daughter, Miss Virginia Hall, a clerk in a Huntingdon bank. She was born at Linden Hall, having been an only child of Edward and Laura Tressler Hess, both deceased, and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hess, both long deceased. The family has been living in Huntingdon for a number of years.

She grew to womanhood at the place of her birth and had a wide circle of friends. She was a graduate of Moravian College for Women, at Lititz, Lancaster county.

MYERS.—Mrs. Hannah Myers, widow of the late Stephen Myers, a Civil War veteran, was laid to rest in the Millheim cemetery Wednesday afternoon. She died on Sunday at the advanced age of 87 years.

The deceased's maiden name was McKinney; she was born in the vicinity of Tyrone, but she came to Penns Valley with her parents many years ago. The late Mrs. Mary Goodhart of Centre Hall, was a sister. She was the last survivor of her generation of McKinneys.

There survive her two daughters—Mrs. Dan Koch, Sunbury, with whom the mother lived and at whose home the death occurred, and Miss Mary Etta, who also is a member of the Koch household.

WEBER.—William Weber died at his home in Howard and his remains were interred in Schenck cemetery.

Mr. Weber was a native and lifelong resident of Howard and was the last of the Weber family that dated back to the founding of Howard. He was a son of Balser and Annie Weber, and was aged 63 years.

Mr. Weber was a prominent citizen of Howard. Until the time of his death he conducted a general store, and was a director of the Howard National Bank. He married Miss Blanche Hensyl, of Howard, who died a year ago. One daughter survives, Mrs. Dorothy Koch, of Lock Haven.

LAND.—Mrs. Sarah M. Land, wife of the late Rev. Thomas S. Land, D. D., died suddenly at the home of her son, John Nevin Land, Hamburg, Pa., on Sunday morning, 21st ult. She was the oldest daughter of Rev. William R. Yearick and his wife, Susannah, nee Hackenburg, and was born at Snyderstown, Nittany Valley, November 19, 1848. She attained the age of 84 years, 6 months and 2 days. Her husband was pastor of the Reformed church in Centre Hall during the latter eighties.

TREASURER VALLEY SITE OF SECOND C. C. C. IN MIFFLIN

Another C. C. C. camp was opened in Mifflin county Tuesday morning when more than 20 boys came in a special train over the P. R. R. and detained at Milroy from where they were transported into Treaster Valley where the camp is located.

BARNYARD CRASHER IN CENTRE CO. HOSPITAL

Thomas B. Reeves, of Port Carbon, who crashed into the T. F. Delaney barnyard, near Old Fort, with a five-passenger Chevrolet coupe, on Monday evening, was taken to the Centre County hospital in an unconscious condition. X-ray pictures show no skull fracture. His condition Wednesday morning was very favorable.

The car was owned by Kenneth Reeves, State College son of the driver. He came east from Boalsburg over a Pinchot road and on approaching the intersection with the State highway Route 53, dashed by the stop sign over the highway, through a new wire fence into the barnyard, where the car upset and turned over one or more times before coming to a rest.

GROVE—NEFF.

A forenoon wedding took place Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mary Neff, near town, the principals being Samuel C. Grove and Miss Sarah M. Neff, Rev. D. R. Keener using the well-known ring service of the Reformed church in joining the couple in holy wedlock. The hour was eleven o'clock, after which a buffet dinner was served. The guests were confined to members of the immediate families of the parties concerned, and one of two others.

After the congratulations and the dinner, the couple at once left on a honeymoon trip by auto to Canada, to be extended over a period of ten days.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Neff, the former deceased, and is a graduate of Penn State College. Since graduating she engaged in teaching in high schools, first in the State of Maine, later in Centre Hall and in East Penna Valley, and for two years in Delaware, at Millville. At the latter place she expects to continue following her profession at the opening of the 1933-1934 school term, English being her principal subject.

The groom is a son of H. E. Grove, of town, and for several years has been in charge of the Neff farm, and has been able to make it show a profit, and contemplates making it continue to do so.

The wide circle of friends of the couple join with the Reporter in wishing them the best things in life throughout the future.

ARTHUR—FLEISHER.

The marriage of Dr. Alexander B. Arthur and Miss Margaret V. Fleisher took place in Philadelphia, Saturday. The bride is a daughter of the late Isaiah Fleisher, formerly of Potter township, and is well and favorably known in Centre Hall.

Dr. Miles' NERVINE "Did the work" says Miss Glivar WHY DON'T YOU TRY IT?

After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles' Nerve which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves" If you lie awake nights, start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl. Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.
