CENTRE HALL DEFEATS

REBERSBURG BY 7-4 SCORE

(Reported by Hugh Morrow, Jr.)

Hugh Brininger, former Susquehanna College pitcher, turned in his first win for Centre Hall, Thursday, when he held the Rebersburg slugging aggregation to seven hits, for a total of four runs. The Centre Hall team, having but six hits, put seven runs over the plate during the 7-inning contest. Poor fielding on the part of Rebersburg gave the local team a total of six unearned runs, the total number of errors for Rebersburg being seven. The Centre Hall players were also guilty of six misplays, but not at such inopportune moments as their rivals. Two of Rebersburg's counters were unearned when Walker and Paul Martz erred.

The hitters for Centre Hall were Goodhart, who poked a single and a double; Knarr, who swatted the horsehide for two doubles, and Crawford and R. Martz, who each tallied a single. Rebersburg's "three Bierlys," P. C. P. and S., playing 3rd, 2nd and 1st in the order named, garnered five one-runners from Brininger's offerings, scoring three of Rebersburg's four runs. Boone, of the Babe Ruth physique, clubbed a double to deep center and B. Tyon had a single.

Brininger made four Rebersburg batters wave their war-clubs in the ozone. Weaver, who pitched four innings against the locals, fanned one, and Eager, relief pitcher, struck out three.

This win over Rebersburg advanced Centre Hall to a tie with Orviston for second place in the C. C. League. Millheim is now leading the league, having won ten games and lost four.

LOCALS DEFEAT BELLEFONTE FOR THIRD WIN IN ROW

(Reported by Hugh Morrow, Jr.)

With Paul Martz pitching a beautiful game of ball for the locals, Centre Hall defeated the Bellefonte team in a 9-inning contest on Saturday, at Bellefonte. Striking out ten Bellefonte batters, allowing but nine well-scattered hits, and piling out a triple and single during the game, Paul Martz well deserved this, his third win of the season. "Chic" Goodhart, lead-off slugger for Centre Hall, was the heavy clubber of the contest, having three singles, a three-sacker and a sacrifice hit which scored a run in the eighth inning. Emery and Bradford each had singles, Crawford a double and single, and Rimmey a double.

Jack Montgomery, Bellefonte's ace hurler, was touched for two hits, allowed one walk, and with the aid of a misplay by the third baseman the Centre inning. Miller, the starting moundman, the score had been tied in the eighth inning. Miller, the sartin moundman for Bellefonte, after allowing nine hits during his seven-inning term, was replaced in the 8th by Montgomery, after the score had been tied. Paul Martz drove over the tying run, and scored the winning marker on Goodhart's sacrifice during Centre Hall's "Big Inning," the eighth.

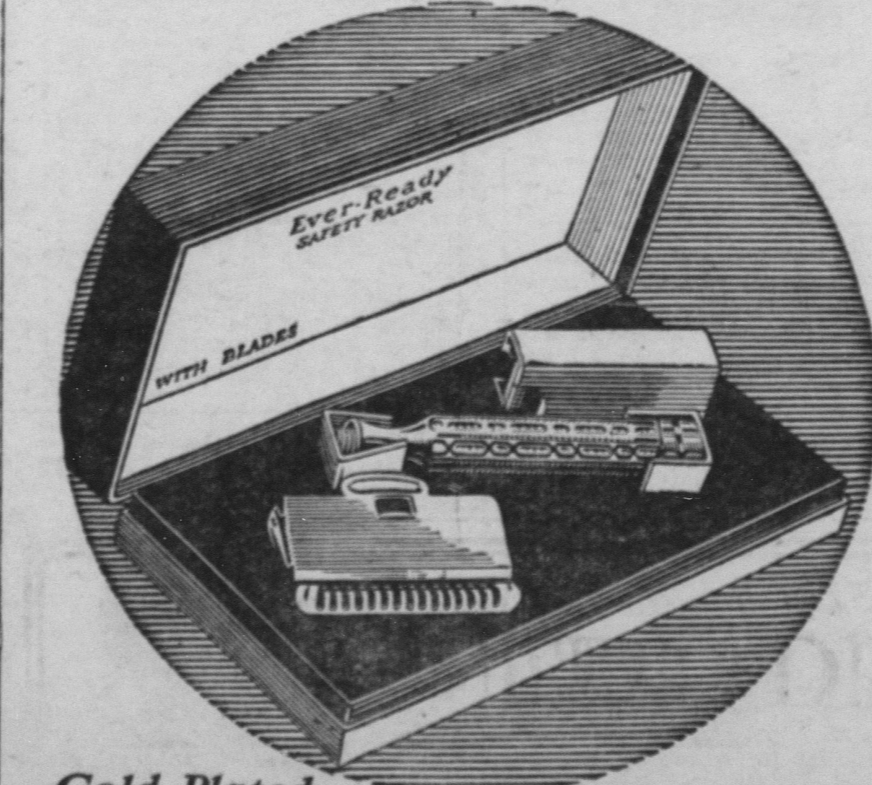

Bellefonte scored singles in the first, third, seventh and ninth innings. Both teams committed three errors each, the guilty persons for Bellefonte being Anderson, who had two and Rossman, who erred once. For Centre Hall, Crawford, R. Martz and Bradford each committed one misplay, allowing Bellefonte two unearned tallies. Box score:

The C. C. C. camp located above Colyer, at the Nevil place, now owned by State Forester T. C. Harbeson, of Milroy, is nicely laid out, neat and clean, and well regulated. The site is about an eighth of a mile south of the Nevil buildings on a grassed spot of about an acre, wholly surrounded by woods. The approach is by a newly built bridge and stoned road built by the boys in camp.

The Grange Fair committee makes the very gratifying announcement that the fee charged for parking cars on the camp ground has been reduced from fifty to twenty-five cents.

Historical Facts

[Under this head will appear one or more historical facts of local interest, to a large extent taken from Linn's History of Centre and Clinton counties, designated for reference as L. P. Martz, p. H., the figures following indicating page. The "Notes," if any, are those of the editor.]

William Kerr, a school teacher and surveyor, came to Penna Valley in 1789, from Ireland, first locating in Carlisle. He died in 1841.—L. H. 465.

(Note: Mr. Kerr is the forefather of the Kerrs, Alexanders, Gillilands, Rands and Loves.)

Joseph Gilliland came to Centre county in 1805. He kept hotel a while at Spring Mills, but spent the most of the time on his farm in Georges Valley. He was a cooper by trade.

Levi Murray came from New Berlin, Union county, in 1801, and located on top of Nittany Mountain. His family consisted of five sons and five daughters.—L. H. 466.

(Note: The late Jared D. Murray told the writer that his forefather had lost all his property in a flood before coming to Nittany Mountain. He vowed he would search for a place where floods would not destroy it again. He was a tanner, and built a tannery at the spring below the Bilger farm house.—L. H. 466.)

Jacob Keller purchased the Red Mill property in 1806. He came from Dauphin county. Later the Potters traded a farm for the mill property.

(Note: The farm referred to is the Keller farm, east of Centre Hall, and adjoining lands now owned by William F. and Christ Keller, and George Shaver.)

John Barber, one of the first associate judges in Centre county, lived along Sinking creek, midway between Spring Mills and Centre Hill.

Uriah Slack came to Penna Valley in 1817 and settled near Potters Mills. John Dauberman located along Penna Creek about the same time. He was an Albright, and his barn was where their religious services were held.—L. H. 467.

As early as 1797, William Early, Esq., deeded the land upon which the present church is built in the "Loop" to Conrad Dillman and Christopher Henney in trust, for the use of the Lutheran and German Reformed churches.

In 1810 a small log church was constructed, and the Reformed congregation formally organized by Rev. Henry Roseman in 1812. In 1837 a new church building was erected. A spire was added in 1879.—L. H. page 407.

(Note: This latter building is the one now in use by the Lutheran and Reformed congregations. It has since been remodeled several times.)

Henry Witmer, in 1846, built a large hotel and store room in Centre Hall, and in 1847 occupied them.—L. H. 469.
