Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

*By WILL ROGERS

BOARDING houses are about the most interesting places in the world, I guess, and there's been a lot written about the romances that start there. When a boarding house bachelor marries a girl from outside the house, he generally brings her to dinner a few times at his old boarding house, just to show her off to the other boarders and make the boys all jealous.

Well, there was an old-time bachelor boarder at a good boarding house in Indianapolis. He was one of these Indiana poets you hear so much about, and he made a lot of friends at the table by not reciting his poetry.

One day he had a friend who was a boarder at another boarding house. The friend was a poet, too, and he was a little bit of a show-off. He was always trying to get the attention of the other boarders, and he was always trying to show off his poetry.

One day he was at a dinner at the boarding house. The poet friend was there, and he was trying to get the attention of the other boarders. He was always trying to show off his poetry, and he was always trying to get the attention of the other boarders.

The waitress kinda blushed a little, and then she says, "Oh, you mean Clara, the blonde you was sweet on! Excuse me, I'd forgot you was used to call her honey! She's on her vacation today." And the bride says, "I reckon I'll be going along. I don't feel like eating dinner today anyhow."

The Pennsylvania Greyhound lines are picking up patronage. When they first began passing through here, traffic was extremely light but now passengers are as plentiful as fleas on a greyhound kept in a pound.

School and hospital boards will share in the National Recovery Act for building purposes, is the belief of many who have made the act a study. Under the act only seventy per cent. of the loan need be paid back, and this in easy instalments, the remaining thirty per cent. being a gift.

The Millheim Spinning Mill, the Millheim Hosiery Mill, at Millheim, and the Groce Silk Mill, at Spring Mills, are all working under the new hour and wage system recently adopted by the National Government. The Millheim Spinning Mill wage schedule is thirty cents per hour and forty-hour week. The Hosiery Mill is bound to a $13.00 minimum wage, two shifts—eight hours each, forty hours per week. The earning capacity of the workers will vary but slightly from the former wage schedule. The Groce Silk Mill will operate on a forty-hour week with a $12.00 minimum weekly wage.

Four or five of the State constabulary force, Bellefonte, on Friday night after the midnight hour, stopped all traffic as it approached the diamond here. A stop sign was erected in the center of the diamond and the State authorities stationed themselves at convenient nearby points at either side of it. In addition to the usual side arms carried, one or two rifles were observed. Operators were asked to show operator's and owner's cards. It was given out by the officers that they were looking for a stolen Pontiac car.

The Decker reunion will be held in the woods of James Decker, east of Centre Hall, on Thursday, August 13. All families and relatives of the clan are invited to attend.—J. W. Decker, secretary.

GRASSHOPPERS DESTROYING CROPS IN NORTH DAKOTA

Antler, N. D., July 13, 1933.

Editor Reporter: The grasshoppers are making a clean sweep of everything up here — there will be nothing to harvest, as the 'oppers have eaten up everything.

There had been some little hay put up, but it is all of very poor quality. That is all the farmers will have, except some potatoes. If it will rain soon, it is very hot and dry around here; we need rain badly, but there are no signs of it.

This is our fourth lean year, and the worst of all. In other years there was a little something left, but now there is nothing,—and to think that the President has put up the price of flour and sugar just when we poor people have nothing to turn into money, and these are things every family must have. And where is the money to come from? No doubt he is thinking of advancing the price of coal too.

In a way I think this President is just as unthinkable as Hoover was, and he sure had no love for the poor people of North Dakota.

People put out much garden truck this year expecting to have lots to eat, but the grasshoppers have cleaned it all up, so we have nothing.

I enclose a post office money order. Perhaps it will be the last time I will be able to pay, and I sure would miss the Reporter if it fails to get here, as I do like to keep in touch with my old home, although my brothers are all gone, there is still a link that binds me to dear old Pennsylvania.

State College authorities made a second attempt to close the Glendon swimming pool in that borough, last Sunday, at which time a young lady acting as clerk was placed under arrest charged with the offense of selling tickets to bathers on the Sabbath day. The proprietors were charged with the same offense some time ago, and on being fined by Justice of the Peace Wentzel, the case was appealed. The case was heard by Judge Fleming on Tuesday of last week, and instead of a verbal hearing briefs were to be filed by last Saturday. The court up to this time has not acted. The borough was represented by Attorney N. E. Spangler and the swimming pool people by Attorney Hicks, of Tyrone.
