LOCALS BLANK HOWARD 4-0 IN TWILIGHT GAME

(Reported by Hugh Morrow, Jr.)
With Jamison allowing the Howard team but two hits, Centre Hall defeated the boys from Bald Eagle Valley by a shutout score of four to nothing in the 7-inning game at Howard, last Thursday. Goodhart, Bradford, Crawford, Rimmer and Stover each connected for one single and with the assistance of six Howard misplays, the local boys put a quartette of markers over the home platter.

Centre Hall's two errors were shared equally by the battery, Jamison and Stover.

Jamison fanned Howard batsmen nine times, striking out K. Fletcher, lead-off man for Howard, every time he welded his usually-effective war club. Lucher, former Penn State right hander, had four strikeouts to his credit. The box score:

CENTRE HALL WINS OVER LAMAR IN SATURDAY GAME

Bunching their twelve hits more effectively than the Lamar team did their dozen base blows, Centre Hall won their Saturday home-game by a score of 9 to 3.

Centre Hall collected five hits and five counters in the opening frame to establish a lead which was not challenged during the entire fust. Paul Martz did the mound work for the locals, fanning seven, allowing twelve hits, hitting one batsman, and handing but one free ticket to first base. Each side was guilty of two errors. Heckman and Passel for Lamar, and R. Martz and Stover for the locals. Emery was the heavy hitter for Centre Hall, having two singles and a triple. Bradford and Crawford each connected twice, and Knarr, Rimmer, Stover, and the Martz brothers each had one hit. The box score:

EBON-HUED GENTLEMEN TIE WITH LOCALS, 1-1

(Reported by Hugh Morrow, Jr.)
The C. C. C. base ball and vaudeville combination presented a comedy in seven acts with a cast of nine, eight of which were gentlemen of the septant and one who relieved the monotony of the color scheme by being of fairer hue. They were supported by nine members of the Centre Hall baseball aggregation, who furnished the stage and scenery. The performance was staged on Tuesday at the Centre Hall ball field.

Harry Gross, hurling for Centre Hall, pitched the polliest game in his career. When one of Mr. Roosevelt's dusky woodpeckers along the sidelines asked to see the white, horsehide-covered sphere commonly known as the ball, Harry obligingly tossed it to the aforementioned gentleman and allowed a team-mate of the recipient of this generosity to stroll from second to third, and put him in position to score the tying run a moment later. (Editor's note: As far as we know this play has not yet been approved by either the American or National League. All others are warned against stealing this idea. We thought of it first!)

Centre Hall has considered protesting the game for several reasons. First of all, three local players are color-blind and were naturally sadly-confused ball players. Secondly, the Colored Giants' third baseman ran both ways at once, and that is out-and-out duplicity. And last, but far from least, they played too well.

Free... a book that plans your meals for a year

This new book—the first of its kind ever written—completely and permanently solves the never ending problem, "What shall we have to eat?"

It is not a recipe book, but a meal planning book. It gives well-balanced menus for breakfast, luncheon, dinner—tells how to avoid monotonous repetition—explains new and appetizing methods of using left-overs—points out ways to save money in buying food—plans your meals for a whole year.

Nothing like this book has been published before. After you've used it for a week you'll wonder how you ever got along without it. And it's free. It costs you nothing.

There's a complimentary copy of "The Key to Meal Planning" for every woman who calls at our store this week. Be sure to come in and ask for it.
