Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

MEN do make up a lot of excuses to get away from home at night. I reckon they wouldn't lie about it so much if their wives would just not object to them for staying out a night once in a while for an evening with some of the other guys. Well, they're telling out in Hollywood about a doctor that never could get away from home in the evenings without a lot of excuses. But he was particular about not lying to his wife, because he was afraid of getting caught. So one evening she let him go right quick when he said, "I've got to get out on a mighty important case this evening, and I'll be out late. Emergency, you know."

"What kind of a case?" "I don't know, only it's serious, and there's seven well-known doctors on the job already. There on the spot now. You don't want me to be late, do you?" She let him go. And he went. To a poker party, where some of his medical chums were gathered for the night.

DEATHS.

SINKABINE.—The self-inflicting of a wound by William H. Sinkabine, causing his death, is ascribed to the results of an automobile accident in which he was seriously injured and from which he never seemed to have fully recovered.

ROTE.—Andrew F. Rote died at Spring Mills on Friday after a lingering illness from complications. The body was interred at Farmers Mills after appropriate funeral services were held on Tuesday morning; burial in the cemetery at the Union church, Farmers Mills, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe officiating.

BLAKE.—Thomas Nathaniel Blake died at the Centre County hospital Wednesday night of last week from injuries received when struck by an automobile as he was crossing the Horn-ton road from Noll's store to Mr. Noll's residence, Pleasant Gap, Sunday evening prior to his death. Funeral services were held from his home, on the Steele farm, west of White Rock quarries, on Saturday afternoon; interment at Bellefonte.

BIBLE.—Wm. W. Bible, a former resident of Bellefonte, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Crawford M. Bowles, in Altoona, of complications of diseases, after having been in failing health for the past three weeks.

WITMER.—Mrs. Jane Amelia Witmer, widow of Edward Witmer, died at her home in Bellefonte, Sunday afternoon. Surviving are these children: John Witmer, of St. Louis; Mrs. James Symmonds, Edward C., and Russell W., all of Bellefonte. Also three sisters and four brothers. Burial was made in Myers cemetery on Wednesday.

HAUGH.—Margaret Elizabeth Haugh passed away at her home in Spring Mills, Wednesday of last week, due largely to complications attributed to age. Funeral services were held Saturday from their home and continued at the Evangelical church, Madisonburg, where interment was made. Rev. J. W. Zang, pastor of the Evangelical church, officiating.

MILROY WOMAN RELEASED

Sergeant C. F. Grall, at C. C. C. camp No. 62, on Stone Creek, and Minnie Eagle, Milroy, were placed under arrest, charged with attempting to cart from the camp blankets and provisions. The arrest was made by a State policeman, on Saturday, and after a hearing before 'Squire Thressel' were sent to the Centre county jail. Later Mrs. Eagle was released on bail.

LOCALS.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Landis and children, Robert and Ruth, of Reading, spent the week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Dallas B. Keener, of town.

Marjorie Emery, four years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Emery, of town, developed a case of diphtheria a few days ago. The child is improving at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hagerty, of Coalport, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Delaney, at Old Fort. The ladies are cousins. Mr. Hagerty is a merchant and coal operator and no doubt is enjoying an increase of business in both lines.

The Beaver bread truck, a large red Reo, took a tumble down an embankment a short distance south of the B. W. Ripka farm buildings, on Saturday evening. The accident was due to the steering gear locking. The driver, "Nell" Mowery, escaped with but slight injuries.

W. G. Runkle, attorney for the Home Owners Loan Corporation, sat in the office of J. Edward Thompson, Esq., in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, to consult with home owners in the Philadelphia district who desired to accept the benefits of that corporation. The most urgent cases will receive attention first.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wagner, of Potters Mills, returned from Lewis-town hospital the latter part of last week, but is carrying one arm in a sling. His companion, Darlington Baumgardner, was discharged a week earlier. The young men were in an automobile wreck at Yeagerstown, Sunday night, July 16th, when the Ford car driven by the former struck a telephone pole.

There will be a union meeting of the churches of Centre Hall, Sunday evening, next, in the Lutheran church, under the auspices of the local H-Y club. John Catron, field secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in charge of high school work, will speak. The local H-Y club will put on their induction ceremony as part of the service. The theme of the service will be Christian Education for Youth.

One of eighteen Guernsey cows owned by Waldo Homan, at Oak Hall Station, was struck by lightning and killed just before the noon hour on Tuesday. The cattle were pasturing in an orchard at the time, but none of the others in the herd were injured. Mr. Homan carried insurance in the Grange and Centre County Mutual companies, who adjusted the loss by allowing $49.00 for the animal, dividing the sum equally between the two companies.

The Keystone Melody Boys—the Barger brothers and the Snyder brothers—were heard from on Friday at Columbia City, Indiana, and were having a delightful time, the trip also proving educational. They report having been treated fine by all classes of people. At Fort Wayne, Indiana, they were on the air at Station WOWO, Wednesday afternoon of last week, for a fifteen-minute period.

Historical Facts

Daniel C. Keller, treasurer of Centre county during the early eighties, was born in Potter township, July 18, 1841.

Show Shoe was laid out upon the Samuel Butcher warrant. The first clearing upon the site was made by James Uzle, who came to the neighborhood in 1850 and engaged in coal mining. The "village survey was made in 1853. The "Snow Shoe House" where the City Hotel is located, was the first house of more pretensions than a cabin erected in Snow Shoe. It was built by James Uzle.—L. H. 426.

George W. Lonberger, in 1869, cleared for himself a farm on Nittany Mountain. He lived with his father, George Lonberger, on Nittany Mt., as early as 1834. The elder Lonberger came to Bellefonte in 1809, from York county. He opened the first butcher shop in Bellefonte.—L. H. 434.

St. Marks Lutheran church at Pleasant Gap was organized March, 1868, and in 1870 a house of worship was built.—L. H. 434.

Pleasant Gap village was laid out in 1864 on lands owned by Wm. Riddle and John Swaney, Harrisonville, just east of Swaney Gap, was laid out by Thomas Harrison in 1840. When the route of pike was changed to its present course, Pleasant Gap, was called into existence.

The first house built in Pleasant Gap was by John Sweeney. In it he kept the Green Tree Tavern. The Haag house was built in 1852 by Wm. Riddle. Matthew Riddle was the first postmaster in Pleasant Gap, having been appointed in 1845, and in 1876 opened the first store.—L. H. 438.

Unionville became a borough in 1859. In its early history it was a lumber shipping point. Wm. Underwood was the founder. He was a butcher and came from York county in 1843. A log school house and a union church, also log, were the first improvements made, in about 1830.

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Harvey Haugh.—Husband and Family, Spring Mills.
