

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. C. N. Kryder was confined to bed from sickness during last week.

The monthly meeting of the Centre County Automobile Dealers Association was held at "Pete's Place," top of Nittany Mountain, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Keller and two sons of Lancaster, are at the home of the former's parents, in town. They will return home Friday. Mr. Keller is an instructor in the Lancaster High school.

Ninety-four State College merchants have signed the pledge that entitles them to display a Blue Eagle. Strict code adherence is emphasized, including hours stores are open, which means service hours have not been reduced.

Announcement was made last week that E. J. Thompson, Esq., prominent Phillipsburg attorney, was named attorney for the conservator of the County National Bank of Clearfield. The bank has been on the conservator list since the bank holiday.

Rev. S. F. Greenhoe and sister-in-law, Mrs. Ada Butz, spent last week with the former's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Grayson, and Miss Nancy Grayson, in Shippensburg. Mr. Grayson brought them to their home here the latter part of the week.

Richard Tate accompanied R. S. Hagan to Buffalo, N. Y., the middle of last week, and brought back with him a two-ton Dodge truck and chassis. The truck was shipped from Detroit by boat to Buffalo. Mr. Tate will use the truck to haul milk on a Sheffield Farms Co. route.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lush and daughter, Miss Betty Lush, of Salladasburg, came to the home of F. P. Geary and daughter, Miss Agnes Geary, last week, and while Mr. and Mrs. Lush remained for only a day, Miss Lush remained with Miss Geary for a week or more.

Rev. S. F. Greenhoe was pleased to have a call from Rev. Water Lutz, D. D., now serving a United Brethren charge in New Cumberland. The two ministers for a period of nine years served as pastors in the same town—Dallastown, York county—and became fast friends while doing so. Dr. Lutz was accompanied by Mrs. Lutz and two others.

An all-day rain, last Thursday, totaling an inch and a half precipitation, was a veritable God-send to farmers in Centre county, and added many, many thousands of dollars to the value of the corn and potato crops. The rain came at the eleventh hour, as it were, for a delay of another week would have advanced growth to a point where rain would have done little good.

Stanley Tonassky, 22, catcher on the baseball team at the Halfway Civilian Conservation Camp, Brush Valley Narrows, suffered a severe fracture of the right arm in a recent fray. The bone was set by the camp physician, but X-ray examinations and hospital treatment were necessary and he was sent by army airplane from the Sunbury field to a government institution at Washington.

Dr. Jacob H. Diehl, former pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church of Lock Haven, who has been president of Carthage College, Carthage, Ill., for the past four years, has resigned his post and expects to return to Lock Haven about September 1. Dr. Diehl served as acting president of Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, for several years before accepting the presidency of Carthage College.

The Jersey Shore Chamber of Commerce is making a desperate effort to induce the New York Central Railroad Company to return their shops from West Albany, N. Y., to Avis, where they were first located. The shopmen have also petitioned the company to return the plant, setting forth many advantages which would thus accrue both to the company and the employes by the proposed move.

John F. Hagen, veteran carpenter of Farmers Mills, was a pleasant caller at the Reporter office last Friday. Mr. Hagen will be 79 years of age, next birthday, and has been retired from the carpenter trade for only a few years having worked hard until some years after having reached the three-score-ten mark. Mr. Hagen may well point with pride to the many handsome residences in Centre Hall, State College and elsewhere, the result of his mechanical genius.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Lohr clan will hold their annual reunion on Grange Park on Saturday.

The statement made in the Reporter last week to the effect that Clayton Wagner had rented his farm, appears to be incorrect. Mr. Wagner has not yet decided whether he will rent or sell his farm.

The James W. Swabb farm south of Linden Hall, sold at sheriff's sale recently, was knocked down to W. Harrison Walker for $2100. Mr. Swabb, it is understood, is now living in Lewistown.

John N. Weaver, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Weaver, filled the pulpit on his father's appointments at Rebersburg and Madisonburg, while the elder Rev. Weaver filled appointments in Altoona.

Wm. R. Swarm, son of Postmaster and Mrs. W. L. Swarm, Millhelm, received an assignment to active duty for a period of fourteen days, beginning August 13, at Ft. Hoyle, Md. Mr. Swarm is a second lieutenant, Field Artillery Reserve.

Monday evening music lovers will have an opportunity to enjoy a rare treat as the result of an open air concert to be given on Grange Park by the boys' band of the Fressler Orphans' Home, Loysville. The park will be open to all, and contributions for the band entirely voluntary.

Centre County's Board of Commissioners, Howard E. Hotzworth, John S. Spearly, and J. Victor Brungart, and their clerk, Charles Freeman, accompanied by Mrs. Spearly, Mrs. Brungart and Mrs. Freeman, were in Erie last week, where the County Commissioners of the State were in convention.

Richard Detwiler, of Rebersburg, now of the State College High school and athletic coach, was a most pleasant caller at this office on Thursday. He is a Penn State graduate, and is now working for his master's degree. It is his delight to delve into the early history of our country and State, and therefore has selected a phase of local and general history as his subject for a thesis.

The barn on the Kestler property, in Aronsburg, is being raised and the timber hauled to the Lewistown district where it will be used in construction work by Dr. Black, of the Black hospital. While assisting in the raising of the building, Charles Letzel, of Lewistown, formerly of Spring Mills fell off the structure from a height of about fifteen feet, and received painful injuries which may have affected the spine.

On Saturday Miss Fay Bradford left here to be gone until August 22nd, during which time she will be at Camp Mensch Mills, near Allentown, a camp established by the Reformed church for recreation and religious training for young people. She will act in the capacity of assistant supervisor of Primary Training at the camp. She will have under her supervision a number of young people taking up this branch of religious training who will do their practice work with a group of children from the immediate community.

Walter Shannhake, of Irvinton, N. J., traveling in a Packard sedan, arrived here the latter part of last week and remained until Tuesday. He is not a stranger in this section, having in the past spent some time about Madisonburg, and has been a member for a few years of the Union hunting club, located in the Beal Gap school house, and, of course, hunts with them each season. Then there are other attractions out in the valley more likely to be the real drawing card than any of those heretofore mentioned.

LOCALS

Miss Amelia Copenhaver, daughter of Mrs. H. E. Foust, Potters Mills, will become a student nurse in the Phillipsburg State hospital after Labor Day. She is a graduate of the Centre Hall High school and has ample qualifications for the profession she has selected.

Lieut. Thomas Allen, second in command at C. C. C. camp 65, Treaster Kettle, Seven Mts., who with his family has been living at the A. P. Krape home, here, expects to go to Atlanta, Ga., in the near future, where he will enter an educational institution and complete a course begun prior to entering military service.

J. Elmer Noll, wife and two children, last week moved from the Centre Hall hotel apartment to Clintondale. The Hecla Poultry Farm proprietors, the Hockmans, leased a portion of the Loveland poultry plant, at Lamar, which is being cared for by Mr. Noll. Mr. Noll is an industrious man and proved himself a good citizen, one who can be welcomed in any community.

Frank P. Phillips, Potters Mills, is gathering material to be used in the construction of a garage with dimensions 30x68 feet floor space. It is planned to have a show room, office and workshop. A few days ago bowstring roof trusses to span thirty feet were received by freight. Large plate glass windows are already on hand, as are other materials needed under the specifications. Only one thing—the location of the structure—is yet to be decided upon. He has several sites in mind, and a final selection will shortly be made.

leads the field by the widest margin in its history

CHEVROLET, AMERICA'S NUMBER 1 CAR—47.99%* of all low-priced cars sold

NUMBER 2 CAR—26.74%*

NUMBER 3 CAR—19.21%*

ALL OTHERS 6.06%*

*Based on the latest retail registration figures from R. L. Polk & Company (all states for five full months). Since January first Chevrolet has sold in excess of 370,000 passenger cars and trucks.

People have come to expect Chevrolet to lead the world in automobile sales. But this year Chevrolet has done even more than that. According to the latest available figures, Chevrolet alone has sold almost as many cars this year as all the rest of the low-price field combined!

When a car looms above its field like that, there can't be any argument about it. It must be an all-round better buy. And that's exactly what Chevrolet offers you. Fisher bodies, with the new ventilation system and the strongest and quietest body construction of the day—solid steel over a sturdy hardwood frame.* A valve-in-head six engine, unapproached for economy . . . Cushion-Balanced to blot out vibration . . . full of snap and vigor—altogether the most efficient engine in the low-price field.

Then there's Syncro-Mesh with Silent Second, the Starterator, Simplified Free Wheeling, the Octane Selector, long, parallel-mounted springs—more advancements than we have space to describe. And Chevrolet prices are as low as $445. Don't guess—buy from the leader. Get a car that has been proved sound and dependable by more owners than any other automobile you can buy.
