Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personal from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Clyde Confer is hauling paper wood for his father, A. C. Confer, from a tract in Po Valley to the Tyrone paper mill. It is all hardwood, which not so many years ago could not have been used in the manufacture of paper.

Spring Mills is largely represented among the campers on Grange Park. This is the case each year, the novelty and pleasure of living under a white canvas never appearing to wane as the years roll on.

Among the Gregg township young people to visit the Century of Progress Exposition, is Miss Jeradine Binner, who accompanied Mr. and Mrs. "Buz" Blierly and daughters on the trip. They left here Friday morning and arrived in Chicago the following day.

The cub ball team has two games to play with Rebersburg and a like number with Boalsburg. They succeeded in winning five of the six last games played. With Centre Hall, the team broken even for the season. The boys give their manager, Wm. P. Osman, much of the credit for being able to win as often as they do.

Harvey Vonada, one of Gregg twp.'s older citizens, is quite ill at the home of his son, John Vonada, in Georges Valley, with whom he is making his home. Mr. Vonada's illness is due almost entirely to his advanced age.

Dealer Rossman arrived here on Sunday evening and almost immediately returned home, taking with him his wife and son, Hayes, who had been guests at the Rossman home here.

Misses Barbara, Rebecca and Dorothy Robinson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Robinson, are vacation guests at the parental home. The former two are students in the school for nurses connected with Abington Memorial hospital, Abington, while the younger sister is living with her grandparents in Harrisburg.

Rev. Fruyn is in New York State and when he returns will likely be flush in funds, as he was called up North primarily to perform a wedding ceremony.

Miss Margaret Grenoble, daughter of Mrs. Sylvia Grenoble, is visiting friends in Lewisburg, where the family lived before coming here.

The merchants, silk mill and the milk plants and shops in Spring Mills are all entitled to display the Blue Eagle, and are doing so.

The Bartzes Home in Penn Hall was sold at public sale a few days ago by Mrs. Florence Whitale, who inherited the place from her father, Charles S. Bartzes, deceased, to Benjamin Gutzel, of State College, for $2950. It is understood Mr. and Mrs. Gutzel purchased the place for their own use.

Boalsburg.

Jean and Pauline Sweiggert of Bellefonte, are spending this week with Virginia and Lucile Patterson.

Mrs. Wm. Brouse, Mrs. Wm. Young, and daughter, and Mr. Jones returned home Friday night after a very enjoyable western trip. One week was spent at the Century of Progress Exposition and one week with friends in Freepert, Ill., and in Wisconsin.

A. J. Hazel and daughters, Gladys and Jane, left Wednesday for Chicago, stopping enroute at Bellevue, Ohio, where Mr. Hazel's brother joined the party.

Miss Augusta Murray spent Sunday afternoon with her cousin, Miss Belle Murray, at Lemont.

A number of families from town are camping at Grange Park while others are attending the Fair each day.

Miss Ethel Gingrich is driving a new Plymouth sedan.

Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Allenbach, of Burnham, who are camping at McAllevey's Fort, attended Lutheran S. S. on Sunday morning.

E. W. Hess, wife and daughters and Fred Lombarger, spent the week-end in camp in the Alleghenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dornseifer, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lenker and Jerre Dunkleberger, of Sunbury, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reitz.

Capt. Leland Walker came up from camp at Mt. Gretna, Thursday, on a business trip.

Edward Weber and sister, Miss Alice, of Huntingdon, were recent guests of friends in town.

30 Years Ago

Items of news which interested those of a generation ago, taken from the files of The Reporter, year 1903.

August 27, 1903:
The depot at Centre Hall was repaired last week by men regularly employed by the P. E. R.

D. H. Slegal, the plasterer, of Spring Mills, did some repairing in the school rooms in this place last week.

Miss Kathryn Kerr Saturday of this week will go to Elgin, Ill., to accept a position in the public schools at that place.

A marriage license was granted to Thomas H. Alters, of Bellefonte, and Lilla M. Stump, Centre Hall.

Ralph Booser, a student at the Williamson Free School of Mechanical Arts, returned to that institution on Wednesday, the summer vacation being over.

Oile D. Stover, the painter, of Centre Hall, Wednesday went to Berea, Ohio, where he will be employed by the firm of J. W. Dunham & Son, manufacturers of agricultural implements.

The Odd Fellows, of Spring Mills, organized a lodge about two months ago with 23 members, and at present they have a membership of 35 and the applications now under consideration will keep them busy with initiations for some time.

The Potters Mills correspondent says this week: Our town in the near future may have the distinction of having a Lutheran church. Richey Bros. have discovered a stone in the Seven Mts. which is supposed to be the best known for making fire brick. If this proves to be all right no doubt Potters Mills will have one of the greatest brick plants in the world. [Editor's note: Both church and fire brick plant failed to materialize for Potters Mills.]

The rural free delivery of mail that will be established Tuesday of next week with Centre Hall postoffice as the starting point, will be one of great convenience for the farmer.

J. Paul Reरिक has been elected to teach one of the Milroy public schools. Jeweler G. W. Bushman went to Gettysburg on Monday to pay a visit to his parents at that place.

Dr. J. F. Alexander sold two more car loads of sawed stones for sidewalks. One load goes to Millheim and the other is for Centre Hall.

Bobbie Krumbine Saturday had the misfortune to step on a sharp scythe, and almost severed two of his toes. Dr. Lee dressed the wounds.

Pension Agent W. A. Krise was recently notified that the pension of Alfred Durst had been raised to $12.00 per month.

D. C. Keller will conduct the boarding house at the Encampment and Grange Fair.

W. O. Reरिक, of Milroy, moved into the new house recently built by him at that place.

At a special meeting of the borough school board, held Monday of last week, a contract was let to install a new hot air furnace in one of the rooms of the grade school building. The furnace, like the old one, will heat two rooms, one above the other. The bid accepted was from T. L. Smith, for $181.00. Two other bids were handed in—one by Fred Homan for a similar type furnace, at but a slight advance of the bid accepted, and a second by Ralph T. Hess, for a much more elaborate heating plant.

Historical Facts

[Under this head will appear one or more historical facts of local interest, to a large extent taken from Linn's History of Centre and Clinton counties, designated for reference as L. H., the figures following indicating page. The "Notes," if any, are those of the editor.]

The first survey in Gregg township was the reservation known as the Manor of Suscouth, 1776. The next was "The Great Spring" tract, on the application of Timothy Matlack, Sept. 24, 1766, and patented to Reuben Haines. This is the upper or western survey of Reuben Haines' surveys, extending from Woodward to the junction of Sinking Creek with Penna Creek, and in which Spring Mills is partly located. It was first settled by George McCormick, in 1773, who built the first mill there.

The tract south of the Timothy Matlack was taken up by George McCormick, July 9, 1787. East of "The Great Spring" tract and partly bounded by the Manor, is the tract called Sibbad's Cave, also patented to Reuben Haines.

A Presbyterian church was built on the Jacob Eplet warrant.

Note—This site is marked now by a graveyard, located north of Penn Hall. Daniel Long settled in the Valentine Eplet tract, surveyed Oct. 20, 1766. He lived there in 1775, blacksmithing at that time.

Jacob Herring, the forefather of the Gregg township Herrings, purchased a tract in 1809.

ORVISTON BILED BY UMP'S DECISION; GAME FORFEITED IN SIXTH

(Reported by Hugh Morrow, Jr.)
After Paul Martz had pitched peerless ball during six innings of the Thursday night contest, staged on the local field, the Boys from the Land of the Brick-works developed temperment after a close decision at the home plate and took their bats and hid themselves homeward, giving Centre Hall a 3-0 win by forfeit.

The local pitcher fanned two batters an inning for the first five stanzas, and fanned the first batter in the sixth, caused the next one to pop up to Bradford at third and then Gardner tore off the only Orviston hit of the game, a single, but was caught stealing second, for the third out.

The rumpus started in the last half of the sixth, when Centre Hall, with a 1-0 lead, established in the 3rd by P. Martz reaching first on an error. Goodhart's double hung, up another counter when Crawford singled, stole second and with the aid of some wild pitching reached home. Ralph Martz had meanwhile been passed and on a play similar to Crawford's slid for the plate, the Orviston pitcher covering. Theumpire called "safe." Orviston called "out," and a perfectly good ball game turned into a noisy brawl.

The Orvistonians, refusing to continue, thus forfeited the game to Centre Hall after trailing the locals 3-0 in the sixth.

Crawford, Rimmey and Lutz each lined out a single while Goodhart doubled off the offerings of Galbraith, the southpaw on the mound for Orviston. Paul Martz's delivery was touched for but one first base hit. But nineteen batters faced the local right hander while twenty-three Centre Hall players walked up to the plate. The two keystone-sackers, R. Martz and Gillespie, each committed a misplay while Lomison, Orviston catcher, also erred.

SEVEN HOWARD RESIDENTS ARE STUNNED BY LIGHTNING

Mrs. E. G. Long, of Howard, probably owes her life to a mirror. Sunday when lightning entered her home via an electric light wire while she was standing at the sink in her kitchen washing the supper dishes. The bolt stunned her, but its main force was believed deflected by a mirror which hung over the sink in front of the woman and from which all the mercury was burned by the lightning.

In all seven people in the borough were stunned by the lightning which accompanied a severe electrical and wind storm which broke about five o'clock Sunday afternoon about six miles from Howard and passed violently over that section.

The lightning struck a light pole and following the wire entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Long. Mr. Long was not affected by the bolt, but Mrs. Long was so badly stunned that she remained unconscious for about three hours and even at the end of that time was unable to speak plainly as her tongue was still badly swollen.

The three children of the Longs, aged 9, 7 and 5 years, were standing in the kitchen near their mother and were also stunned although not as badly as was Mrs. Long.

A part of the bolt followed the wire on to the next house where Walter Mann and family reside. Mr. Mann, assisted by his two children, aged 12 and 14 years, was closing the windows and doors against the storm when all three were stunned. They also were not so badly affected as Mrs. Long.

Much damage resulted in the locality. Crops were laid flat, and trees were uprooted. A large shade tree at the Wm. Mayes home about two miles from Howard, was blown across the wires of the West Penn Electric company, damaging the wires so that Howard, Beech Creek and most of Bald Eagle Valley were without lights during the entire night.

Governor Pinchot on Monday dismissed 68 employes and 24 others were retired or resigned. Eighteen new appointments were made. The reduction in salaries foots up to $100,000. No Centre county employes were among the unfortunate. A stenographer, Gilbert L. Davidson, salary, $1020, of Milroy, was dismissed.
