LOCALS WIN IN SOCCER AND VOLLEY BALL GAMES

A rejuvenated Centre Hall High School team completely outclassed the Hubersburg soccer team on the local field Friday. With several changes in the line-up, the boys displayed an offense that netted them five goals. The defense was all that could be asked for. The lone goal for Hubersburg was scored by one of the local half-backs, when the ball took a bad hop and went the wrong direction. Goals were scored by Capt. Rickert, Fred Spyker, Vinton McClellan, Wm. "Bull" Stringer, and Jack McClellan.

The girls' volley team scored its third win of the season when they defeated Pleasant Gap in a fast match Friday afternoon. The score was 3-0. On Thursday afternoon they defeated Hubersburg 3-2 in a very close and exciting match. This year's squad is composed of Ruth Reiber, M. Burkholder, V. Smith, I. Smith, R. Smith, W. Blauser and G. Smith.

Will Rogers Picks A Story For This Spot

By WILL ROGERS

THERE was a big lawsuit over a Scotchman's estate not very long ago, and they had a terrible time finding something for the lawyers to disagree about, so that the lawyers could fight in court and make their clients think they were earning their fees. Both sides admitted that the man was dead and that his will said so and so about who was to get the dough. So they found out they could get up a fight over whether this Scotchman died suddenly or not. One side claimed that the poor fellow died right sudden, so that he didn't have time to make a change in his will that he intended to make. They were trying to prove it.

They put a fellow on the witness stand that had been the Scotchman's financial adviser.

"You say he died sudden?"

"Awful sudden."

"What makes you think so?"

"Well, I know it. Nobody saw him die, and it was a week before the body was found, but there was evidence that Sandy went out mighty quick."

"What evidence?"

"Well, for one thing, there was a letter he had got that day that he supposed to have died, and the stamp on it happened to be uncancelled. The uncancelled stamp was still on the envelope, on Sandy's desk. All we know that if Sandy had had even ten minutes of warning he would of wrote a letter to somebody to make use of that stamp."

DEATHS.

WOOMER. — Mrs. Mary (Smith) Woomer, widow of Michael Woomer, passed away at her home in State College, Friday noon, after an illness of six months resulting from a fall. She was in her 72nd year. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon with burial at Pine Hill, Rev. Ruth of the Evangelical church, officiating.

Mrs. Woomer was the mother of eleven children, all living, and married. These, together with 33 grandchildren and one great-grandchild, were present at the funeral. She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. D. Frank Smith, Centre Hall.

One brother, George Smith, of Rockview, also survives. Deceased was the chief officer of the State College Rebekah lodge, and she was also a member of the Royal Neighbors.

D. F. KYLER INSTANTLY KILLED HIT BY COLLEGE STUDENT'S CAR

Daniel F. Kyler, aged 26 years and 18 days, of State College, was instantly killed at 7:30 o'clock Friday night when hit by a car driven by John C. Spangler, a student at State College.

Mr. Kyler was walking along the highway on Route 5, between Boalsburg and State College. He suffered a fractured skull. Mr. Kyler was married less than two weeks ago to Miss Isabel Spicher, daughter of Elmer Spicher of Spring Mills, and for several years had been employed on Mr. Spicher's farm.

Besides his wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kyler, of State College, and six sisters survive. Nearly all of the sisters reside in the vicinity of Lock Haven.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lutheran church in State College, of which the young man was a member. Rev. J. F. Harkins officiated, and interment was made in the Shiloh cemetery. Dr. Heaton, of Philipsburg, Centre county coroner, conducted an inquest Saturday morning.

John C. Spangler, driver of the car, which overturned after it struck Mr. Kyler, is a patient in the Centre County hospital, suffering from a back injury and bruises.

DEMOCRATIC REGISTRATION INCREASED IN CENTRE CO.

Official figures from Centre county indicate an increase in registration in the Democratic party in Centre county. The figures show that the registration for 1933 is 8,250, and for 1932, 7,959. The Republican official figures indicate the opposite, a loss, on their side. The 1933 total is 15,549, while in 1932 it was 15,997.

GARDEN DEMONSTRATIONS.

According to County Agent R. C. Blaney, arrangements have been made to hold demonstration meetings on Garden demonstrations being conducted in three communities this summer. The services of Jesse Huffington, vegetable specialist from the extension department at State College, have been secured for these meetings, and he will construct a barrel storage for storing vegetables so that they can be held up until late winter.

These demonstration meetings will be held according to the following schedule: W. H. Hettinger, Spring Mills, Wednesday, October 11, 9:30 A. M. Mrs. Mary Neff, Centre Hall, Wednesday, October 11, 2 P. M. J. C. Mattern, Stormstown, Thursday, October 12, 2 P. M.

These demonstrations are conducted for the benefit of anyone interested.

THE MELODY BOYS RETURN TO WEST CHICAGO, ILL.

The Keystone Melody Boys, after a ten weeks' tour to the Worlds Fair, gave us a surprise by a very unexpected and pleasant visit. They brought with them A. Fennell, wife and daughter, Clara. The boys met the Fennell family in West Chicago and added to their orchestra Mr. Fennell, a snare and trap drummer, and Miss Clara, an accordionist. The Fennell family was entertained by the Barger and Snyder families. They left again for West Chicago Wednesday of last week and arrived Friday morning. They have four nights at the Chateau Garden and other engagements. They have found the West Chicago folks courteous and like the place and their work.

CENTRE-HUNTINGDON WHEAT CONTROL BOARD ORGANIZES

The Centre-Huntingdon county wheat control association is about to form a permanent organization. Some of the districts have already formed local organizations, and tonight (Thursday) wheat growers in Potter who signed applications for contracts providing wheat area reductions will meet at the First National Bank here to do so. On Monday the representatives from these local organizations will meet in Bellefonte to form a county organization, and finally a Centre-Huntingdon district organization will be formed.

An office will be opened in Centre Hall, if present plans carry out, to take care of a part or the whole of the work in Centre county. In this county sixty-three wheat growers entered the arrangement, and in Huntingdon county, eighteen.

CENTRE CO. BANDS TO GIVE CONCERT, WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The bands in Centre county will consolidate and give an open air concert on the school grounds, Bellefonte, on Wednesday evening, October 11th. About four hundred musicians will participate.

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Mrs. Coleman A. Wingard and young daughter, on Sunday afternoon, motored to Lock Haven.

Calvin W. Lingle, also Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Stover made trips to Bellefonte on business last week.

Miss Irene Herring, who a week ago was reported dangerously ill from pneumonia, is recovering nicely, but will not be able to resume her teaching at the Cross Roads school, Gregg township, for the present.

Postmaster Swarn, Mrs. Swarn and daughter, of Millheim, were callers at the Herring home at Penn Hall on Sunday.

The silk mill wheels continue quiet, much to the dislike of the superintendent, John C. Robinson, and the workers. The Groce mill at Sells-grove has not been interfered with by the strike in the east and continues to operate.

Ralph H. Shook continues to improve from the results of an operation for the removal of the appendix, and by the time this is being read by his neighbors he may be at his home. On Sunday he received visitors in the sun parlor at the Centre County hospital.

Mrs. Catherine Royer, who is living with her son, Rev. John V. Royer, in Catawissa, is at present a guest of her sister, Mrs. Silfer. Mrs. Royer attained her eightieth year while here. Her mental and physical condition are both very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Corman, Mrs. Annie Smith, and the latter's sister, Mrs. Jennie Isenberg, of Altoona, who at present is a guest at the Smith-Corman home, on Sunday visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Alexander, in Bellefonte.

Robert K. Kennelly, while leading a bull to water, was set on by the animal, tossed into the air, and gored. The result was Mr. Kennelly sustained broken ribs and a chest injury, and since has been confined to bed. The injured man is employed by Scott Decker, living on a farm north of Penn Hall.

The real estate of Jeremiah Confer, located on Long Avenue, was sold by the administrator on Saturday, the purchaser being Paul Weagley, clerk in the First National bank. The property consists of a house and lot, and was sold at public sale for the sum of $800, which is considered less than its real value. Mr. Weagley, although single, owns another property close by.

Gates Kennelly had an experience not at all relished, the latter part of last week. Mr. Kennelly is not in good physical condition, and was unable to do anything to prevent his home being ransacked by two Gypsy women, one of whom worked on the first floor and the other on the second. The women were accompanied to his place by a man, who remained in a large car on the road. The women bargued by Mr. Kennelly, who was in the yard, and at once entered the house. Bureau drawers were closely examined, as were the dressers. Several pocket books in which private papers were kept were carefully looked over. Clothing was also examined with the hope of finding money in the pockets. While this was in process on the second floor and was being watched by Mr. Kennelly, the woman on the first floor was searching cupboards and stacking dishes she fancied on a table. Fortunately there was but seventy-five cents in cash in the house, which one of the women captured. The dishes, for some reason, were not carried along. Mr. Kennelly called to neighbors, but his voice was too weak to be heard, leaving the Gypsies to finish their undertaking without let or hindrance. The car was turned toward the roads to the south and may have gone west through Georges Valley or east to Coburn.

Mrs. Charles Bigger and daughter, of Pleasant Gap, were visiting friends here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Miller, of Sunbury, spent Sunday with the latter's cousin, Miss Joe Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Carson of Potters Mills, spent last Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. C. A. Wingard.

Miss Velma Stitzer attended the hair dressers' convention at Harrisburg on Monday.

Don't forget the supper that will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical church, in the Grange hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 17.

Charles F. Barges and J. M. Mullinger transacted business in Harrisburg last Monday.

Squire Jamison is still improving, and is now able to be up some.
