

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McClellan, of Harrisburg, lingered here after the election until the beginning of this week. Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs, who became most seriously ill Sunday night, and continued so until Tuesday, is now slightly improved. The members of Sunset club will hold their annual meeting Friday evening at the club house. An evening dinner will be served to members and their families. Mrs. H. L. Ebricht last Thursday night entertained the Clover Club and yesterday (Wednesday) evening the members of the Senior Service class in the Lutheran church were her guests. P. H. Gentzel, formerly of State College, but now of Newton, Mass., spent the week-end with his aged mother, Mrs. P. H. Gentzel, of Zion, whose health has been greatly impaired. Construction of six miles of highway between Beech Creek and Mill Hill is now under way. Federal funds and local labor are being used. For the present a short detour is being used. Mrs. Annie J. Lohr and daughters, the Misses Nellie and Mabel, and Gustavus Payne and mother, all of Rutledge, were in Centre Hall, guests in the Bartholomew home, over a recent week-end. Saturday evening the electric lights were put out when an automobile hit a pole carrying the wires a few miles east of town on the Brush Valley road, and loosened them. Fortunately the wires did not fall to the ground. A chicken and noodle supper will be given by the ladies of the Evangelical church of Centre Hall on Saturday evening, November 18, in the church. The price for adults is 30c, for children 20c. The public is cordially invited to attend. Russell W. Heverly, of Lock Haven, was one of a party of twelve hunters who shot a bear which weighed 214 pounds dressed. They were hunting in the Laurel section at the head of Marsh creek in Centre county, Friday, the opening day of the bear season. Miss Mary Reiber, who is in training in a school for nurses in a Jersey Shore private hospital, is caring for Mrs. Curtis B. Reiber and infant daughter. The little Miss was named Mary Frances, for her aunt, the nurse, and her mother. Lloyd Kerlin and sons, August and Frank, also the Kelley brothers, all of Harrisburg, hunted on Old Tussey on Saturday, making their headquarters in the Boal Gap camp. They had in mind turkeys, but were obliged to be content with bagging smaller game. The lack of more success was due largely to unfavorable weather conditions for hunting.

CENTRE TALLIES 431 FOR REPEAL OF 18th AMENDMENT Last week this paper and others in the county on the question of the repeal of the 18th Amendment, reported the voters in the county had registered a small majority against repeal. A corrected return on the question gives the repealsists a majority of 431. For repeal there were 6607 votes and against repeal, 6176 votes. Walter Leightly re-opened the Hackenberg restaurant in Spring Mills.

Spring Mills A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Ralph H. Shook acted in the capacity of substitute mail carrier for the first time last week since undergoing an operation for appendicitis in the Centre County hospital. He substituted for J. A. Wagner on Route 2, while Mr. Wagner scoured the woods for game.

Robert F. Floray and Squire Carson, both of Potters Mills, were in the village on business on Monday. Elmer Smith, merchant at Zorby, was another business visitor here.

Representatives of the Welfare Department spent a day at Potters Mills, listing unemployed willing to work on some project at a distant point, presumably the new road being built on Rattle Snake Mountain, about fifty miles from Potters Mills.

Joseph M. Carson, on Saturday evening, made a narrow escape from being seriously injured, or perhaps fatally injured. During a snow storm he was walking along the edge of the built up highway from his brother's store to his home when a car driven by William Confer, also of Potters Mills, came along and struck him, cutting his head open on the back and inflicting a number of bruises. It was the slow gait the car was traveling that was the redeeming feature of the affair. A State highway patrolman happened along at almost the instant, and upon investigation absolved Mr. Confer from being negligent or in any way responsible for the accident. Mr. Carson is about again as usual but has a sore head, which he thinks is much better than "being a sore head."

Harold Stover, tax collector for Gregg township, made an unusual reply to the question as to how taxes in the township were "coming in," compared to a year ago. He stated that last year the school tax collected on October 1st was but 53 per cent. of the whole, while on October 1st, this year, the collections represented 70 per cent. Collections of other taxes this year, he said, are also more easily made than a year ago.

Mrs. Samuel Musser, of near the Salem church, is improving nicely. It will be recalled she suffered a light paralytic stroke.

When the Gregg township school board reorganizes two new members—James W. Evans and Charles Zettie—will be admitted.

J. Arch Eungard, who now lives on the Beck farm purchased by him, reported to be in a most serious condition, suffering from pains over the heart, the cause of which appears to baffle his physicians. About two years ago, Mr. Eungard fell while engaged in doing work in his barn, and while the injury sustained then was lightly regarded it is now thought that probably his present trouble is attributed to it. He has been suffering much for two weeks.

Walter S. Auman is on a business trip to Johnstown and Pittsburgh this week.

Roy M. Royer of Sprucetown, is one of the successful hunters in that region. He captured a gray fox, some birds, and rabbits, and is said to be going strong with fine prospects for bagging additional game later.

Merchant and Mrs. G. B. Meyer, with Miss Josephine Stover as a guest, autoed to Williamsport on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Roland McCool and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Harshbarger and daughter, Miss Clair, all of Altoona, were recent guests of Mrs. D. M. McCool, mother of Mr. McCool and Mrs. Harshbarger.

While on a brief vacation Peeler Rossman, of Pittsburgh, droyed to Spring Mills on Monday of last week, and the following day with his father, H. F. Rossman, made a trip to Harrisburg, and on Wednesday he took with him his mother on his return to Pittsburgh, where she visited and had a most enjoyable time until Saturday, when the two accompanied by the junior Mrs. Rossman and her son, came back to the Rossman home at Spring Mills.

Former Sheriff A. B. Lee is entertaining hunters from Pillow, Dauphin county.

Harold Meyer, Randall Meyer, Guy Jamison and Eugene Stover are doing considerable hunting. The former has to his credit a turkey, the two following, grouse, and Stover, two ring-necked.

While the older men are after game the younger element is in training as trappers, notably Robert Henshen and Gerald Johnston. And they are unable to keep the kind of fur they are in quest of a secret owing to the loud speaking of the odor from the skins.

The Hackenberg restaurant was closed permanently last week, owing to the serious illness of Mr. Hackenberg.

C. C. Wagner, chairman of the Red Cross in the county, has asked the following committee to solicit Spring Mills and vicinity: Misses Phyllis Wagner, Josephine Stover, Mary Homan, Adeline Bradford, Mrs. J. W. Decker, and Mrs. C. M. Watts. Everybody is familiar with the helpful program of the Red Cross and it is hoped that a good response will be given.

B. F. Hackenberg, proprietor of Benn's Inn, who has been an invalid, is at this time in a very serious condition.

Mrs. Samuel Moser, who had a paralytic stroke for a week or more, is reported some better at this time.

Miss Irene Hering, who has also been in a very critical state, is apparently not improving.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Finkel, of Mifflinburg, spent a few hours visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. J. Russell Condit.

Spring Mills Lodge No. 597, I. O. O. F., presented C. C. Bartiges with a 25-year veteran jewel on last Friday evening. Prof. J. H. Frizell, of State College, made the presentation address, which was very impressive, and also gave a very interesting talk to the Lodge. He was accompanied by Mr. Jackson, also, of State College.

The Democratic nominees for all township and precinct offices, with one exception, were elected at the general election. The exception was the selection of James W. Evans for school director over W. W. Breen by a majority of five votes. The complete vote for all offices in each of the three districts in Gregg are given below:

Lady of the Valley Rebekah Lodge will hold a benefit card party in the local I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday night, November 21. The public is cordially invited. Tickets, 25c.

Saturday and Monday various groups of hunters chased three bears all over Nittany Mountain, but to date, so far as is known, they are free. They were first seen on the penitentiary grounds on Saturday, and Monday were tracked for several miles eastward from the top of Nittany Mountain, by hunters from town.

Hectic Days Sleepless Nights IF YOU are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight. If you don't sleep well tonight, you will probably be nervous tomorrow. Don't allow yourself to become nervous. Take Dr. Miles Nervine. It will relax your tense nerves and let you get a good night's sleep. Irritability, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, often lead to Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion, Hysteria—sometimes to a nervous breakdown and organic trouble. Some of the people, whose letters are printed below, were as nervous as you are—possibly more so—yet they have found relief. Three years ago I was so nervous I could not bear to go out in company and could not sleep nights. A friend recommended Dr. Miles Nervine. I now enjoy myself thoroughly and sleep every night. Miss Juliette Currier, New Market, N. H. I have used Dr. Miles Nervine in liquid form and find it the best medicine for the nerves I have ever used. Christine Lanier, Middleton, Tennessee Whenever I have over-indulged and feel restless I take one or two Nervine Tablets just before I retire. In the morning when I awake I feel like a new person and can go about my work as usual. Dr. Miles Nervine Tablets quiet your nerves, brace you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets to take I have ever found. Miss Grace Redman, St. James, Minn. Before using your Nervine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it, I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful. J. H. Redding, 1027-12th Ave., Rock Island, Ill. Dr. Miles Nervine Liquid and Effervescent Tablets

Pies That Make Pleasant Surprises

PIE is always a welcome dessert—and doubly welcome with a luscious "surprise" filling. Serve one of these pies some day soon. Guests will angle for another invitation to dinner and the family will give you three rousing cheers. Santiago Chocolate Pie 3 squares unsweetened chocolate 3/4 cups milk 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 cup sifted cake flour 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 egg or 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten 2 tablespoons butter 1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla 1 baked 9-inch pie shell 1/2 cup cream, whipped and sweetened 1/2 cup chopped raisins or dates 1/2 cup broken nut meats Add chocolate to milk and heat in double boiler. When chocolate is melted, beat with rotary egg beater until blended. Combine sugar, flour and salt; add small amount of chocolate mixture, stirring until smooth; return to double boiler and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Then continue cooking 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add small amount of mixture to egg, stirring vigorously; return to double boiler and cook 2 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Remove from boiling water, add butter and vanilla. Cool slightly and turn into pie shell. Chill. Before serving, cover with sweetened whipped cream to which raisins or dates and nuts have been added. Vanilla Friche Coconut Custard Pie Pie crust 3 eggs, slightly beaten 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup sugar 3 cups milk, scalded 1 cup shredded coconut Line pie plate with pastry, rolled to 1/4-inch thickness, allowing pastry to extend 1 inch beyond edge. Fill loosely on plate. Fold edge back to form standing rim and flute with fingers. Combine eggs, salt, and sugar; add milk gradually, then add coconut, and mix thoroughly. Pour into pie shell. Bake in hot oven (325° F.) 15 minutes, then decrease heat to moderate (275° F.) and bake 30 minutes longer. Cool. Peach Pie 1 package orange-flavored gelatin 1 1/2 cups warm peach juice and water 2 1/2 cups canned sliced peaches, drained 1 baked 9-inch pie shell Dissolve gelatin in warm peach juice and water. Add peaches. Chill. When slightly thickened, turn into cold pie shell. Chill until firm. Serve with whipped cream. Novelty Friche Pie 1/2 cup grape-nuts 1/2 cup raisins, chopped 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed 2 1/2 cups hot water 1/2 cup cider vinegar 3 tablespoons butter Pie crust Combine grape-nuts, raisins, sugar, water, vinegar, and butter, and cook 10 minutes. Cool. Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry, rolled to 1/4-inch thickness, allowing pastry to extend 1 inch beyond edge. Fold edge back to form standing rim. Fill with grape-nuts mixture. Moisten edge of pie with cold water and arrange lattice on pastry strips across top. Bake 20 minutes. Bake in hot oven (325° F.) 10 minutes, then decrease heat to moderate (250° F.) and bake 40 minutes longer.
