ROLAND S. MORRIS, "THE MAN OF THE HOUR."

Roland S. Morris, Philadelphia, ambassador to Japan under Woodrow Wilson, is being urged by thousands of Democratic voters throughout the State to consent to be the party's standard bearer next year for the Governorship.

It is the consensus of opinion among people in all walks of life that if the right man is selected as a candidate, the election of a Democrat as Governor in 1934 is more than certain.
The seed of this thought was planted in the minds of the Democratic voters some time ago, resulting in a universal demand that a man of the type of Mr. Morris be found, who could lead the people of Pennsylvania into the promised land and a "New Deal" in Pennsylvania politics. In Roland S.
Morris, the Democratic Party of Pennsylvania has a man not only big enough to command the support of every faction of this State's Democracy, but one who would receive the votes of thousands of Independent Republicans who sincerely believed that there should be a thorough renovation of our State Government at Harrisburg. If the man chosen by Woodrow Wilson as the United States ambassador to Japan can be prevailed upon to be the party's standard bearer his election in November would be practically assured.
It is our opinion that Mr. Morris is "The Man of the Hour."

Bartges Farm Sold to Prof. Henshall The Bartges farm, one mile west of Old Fort, for the past 12 or more years owned by W. E. Bartges and N. L.
Bartges, passed into the hands of Prof.
P. P. Henshall, of the School of Engineering at Penn State, last week.
The farm contains 215 acres, and is the second in Potter township purchased by Mr. Henshall within a short time. The other farm owned by him is the one purchased from J. C. Goolhart, at Centre Hill.

ership of Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick are of years they have made a gift of $44 per year to the cause of Missions —besides they send materials for clothing, bandages for hospitals, games for children, and clothing to needy church schools both in our own country and to foreign lands.

These girls are living the teaching

FATHER OF JUDGE FLEMING PASSES AT 76 YEARS

Wilson I. Fleming, aged 76 years, former State employe and Bellefonte business man, died at his home in that place Friday night, following a serious illness of several weeks. He had been in ill health for about ten years, but two weeks ago suffered a general break down which resulted in his death.

Mr. Fleming was born at Mill Hill, Clinton county. Early in life he went to Williamsport, where he learned the tailoring trade. Upon the completion of his training he went to Bellefonte, where for a number of years he was a tailor and merchant. He married Miss Isabella Priscilla Ward, who died four years ago. Their only child is Judge M. Ward Fleming, of Bellefonte.

Mr. Fleming served in the secretary of the commonwealth's office under Governor Daniel M. Hastings, and in the department of internal affairs, being in the employ of the State about 27 years in all.

He was active in local and Centre county politics. He served as burgeis of Bellefonte and also was Centre county Republican chairman for eight years, from 1924 to 1932. He was an active member of the Bellefonte Methodist church and for a number of years served as superintendent of the Sunday school of the church.

Besides his son, Judge Fleming, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Elmer Rathmell, and two brothers, Samuel A. and Eugene Fleming, all of Williamsport.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, in charge of the Bellefonte Lodge, F. & A. M. Interment at Bellefonte.

WIFE OF COACH JEFFREY, PENN STATE, KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Mrs. Doris M. Jeffrey, a teacher at Pennsylvania State College, and wife of William Jeffrey, soccer coach at the college, was fatally injured early Thanksgiving day in a crash of two automobiles. Her skull was fractured.

Her companion, Miss Amy Fisher, 23, of New York, received a broken left shoulder, several fractured ribs and severe cuts and bruises. She also suffered a lapse of memory after the accident so that she was unable for some time to tell the authorities who Mrs. Jeffrey was.

Philip Mytelka of Somerville was the driver of the car. He was cut and bruised. He and Miss Fisher are in the Somerset hospital Somerville, N. J.
Miss Fisher was driving.

The accident occurred near White House, New Jersey.

BOWERSOX.—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Bowersox, who died at the home of her son, Charles Swales, at Loganton, Thursday night, were held at the Loganton Evangelical church, Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. L. A. Fuhrman, pastor of the church. Interment was made in the Fairview cemetery at Loganton.

Besides her son, she is survived by two daughters: Mrs. Currie Colyer, and Mrs. Edna Snook, both of Loganton.
Seventeen grandchildren also survive.

Local News Crowded Out.

The Reporter regrets to state that many local news items and country correspondence were crowded out this week owing to lack of space. An effort will be made to use them next week.

Jacob Sharer, one of the foremen at the Groce Silk Mill, and an experienced hunter, had the good fortune to see within gunshot distance an unusually fine specimen of a deer—a 13-point buck, whose weight was estimated at 150 lbs. Of course, Mr. Sharer's steady true aim resulted in the capture of the game.

PAST TEMPLARS' BANQUET.

Friday evening, November 24th, marked the anniversary of the Ladies of the Golden Eagle, Past Templars' association. Centre Hills Country Club was the scene of the celebration. The organization covers a district of Centre, Clinton and Lycoming counties.

Ninety-nine guests partook of the turkey dinner which was served at 7:00 o'clock, throughout which the Thanksgiving spirit was emphasized by the use of red dinner candles, American Beauty cut roses as favors, and turkey place cards. Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hazel, of Bellefonte, presided as toastmistress.

Bob Lyons Orchestra. All Stars, of Sunbury supplied music for the evening.
Round and square dancing and cards were the major entertainments of the evening.

Prize winners in the dinner drawings were Nevin Hockman, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Hannah Hummel, of Phillipsburg; and Elmer Noll, of Lamar.
High scores in cards were Mrs. Berg, of Phillipsburg, and N. Heckman, of Spring Mills.

DEER KILL IN SEVEN MTS.
FAR BELOW FORMER YEARS

Deer hunting in the Seven Mountains in the region covered and reported by Forest Ranger W. F. McKinney, which includes a large section east and west from State Highway route No. 53, proved about forty per cent. normal for the first four days of the season now on. The kill was but thirty-eight.
Not more than fifty per cent. of the permanent camps in this region were occupied. Two reasons appear to account for this—first, the depression; and second, the fact that this hunting field, long the choice in all Central Pennsylvania, has been cleared of its herds of fine bucks and does.

Below will be found the names of camps and the kill made:

McKeesport, east of Garity's 2; Pax-inos, 4; Sweetwood, Potters Mills and Spring Mills, 2; Lebanon party, 1; Gentze camp, from Shamokin, 1; Glenn party in Decker Valley, 1; Camp Antlers, Yeagertown, at Crowfield, 2; Mohawk, Richfield, 2; Sasfras camp, Thompsonstown, 1; Rock Springs, Lancaster county, 1; Bradfords of Centre Hall, 2; Winsor at Cold Spring, 2; Felton at Heckendorn Gap, 3; Newtown party, 3; Union, from Red Lion, 1; John Blauser party, York, 1; day hunters: Foust Inn, from Lancaster county, 2; McKinneys, from Altoona, 1; Frank Enlist, Potters Mills, 1; Horner's, near Colyer, 1; Ed. Brown party, 1; Unknown, Krise Valley, 1; Miles Snyder, Potters Mills, 1.

The buck killed by Miles Snyder is said to have had the widest spread rack ever seen in this section. The points were separated by 18 inches and at the widest curve, 24 inches.

George McKinney, son of W. F. Mc-Kinney, was the lucky one of the Altoona crew to slay his buck.

Hunters in Lost Creek camp killed two wild turkeys on Thanksgiving day; one weighed 20 pounds.

A forest fire on the south side of Thick Head, on the first day of the season, was extinguished by boys from CCC camp No. 62 and 65.

Three illegal deer were killed, but no arrests made.

Up to Saturday night fifty deer were killed by Mifflin county hunters, the greater part of them having been captured in Seven Mountains.

The Walker-Dutrows Emery - Goodhart party, of Centre Hall, camping at Eddy's Lick in the Alleghenies, have killed four bucks.

The Homan-Luse-Slack party from Centre Hall, also in the Alleghenies, near Baker Run, have two deer.

Hunting alone, W. F. Colyer came upon two buck deer on Nittany Mountain, close to town, on the first day of the season, and shortly after dinner had a nice 4-point buck hanging in his front yard.

Gerald Fetterolf, aged 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Fetterolf, killed a 2-point buck at the home farm, Saturday. The deer came close to the house and the mother seeing it, called her son, who got his gun and killed the buck.

Harry Gross, of town, was successful in killing a buck on Nittany Mt.

Play in Grange Hall, Spring Mills.
The junior class of the Gregg Township Vocational School will present a three-act comedy on December 8, in the Grange hall at Spring Mills. The play portrays life and its discomforts and disappointments on a farm ruled by a miserly farmer. In contrast the well-organized household of a prosperous business man with its servants and luxuries, is woven into the plot.

A mystery is involved in the story by the finding of an old tin box containing papers with "all kinds of funny marks and figures."

For Christmas I'd like an ELECTRIC RANGE now

"I'll probably get the most pleasure out of it, but it's really a gift for the whole family.
All of us enjoy well-cooked dishes. Then too, our kitchen will stay clean and shiny.
"Not many things last as long or give such day to day satisfaction. I'm tired of cooking by guess."
THE GIFT OF FREEDOM
An electric range gives the home freedom from soot and kitchen fumes and smoky, smudgy pans. It gives the housewife freedom of time, and freedom from worry over cooking results.
