STORMSTOWN HUNTER

HIT BY STRAY BULLET
John H. Koch, aged 26, of Stormstown, was shot through the left shoulder blade and one rib, by a bullet from an unascertained source, while hunting Friday in the Barrens, well known Centre county hunting section.
He was taken to the Centre county hospital where his condition is reported good. He says that he did not see any hunter or hear a shot at the time he was injured, which leads to the belief that he was struck by a stray bullet.
