J. H. MUSSER MERCANTILE APPRAISER FOR CENTRE CO.

J. Howard Musser was appointed Mercantile Appraiser for Centre county by Frank E. Baldwin, Auditor General of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Musser is a State College grocer doing business on College avenue.

We have some space in the Reporter for a poet who will sing to us of the beauties of winter, and how the cold strengthens as the days lengthen; also how the coal pile decreases as the ash heap increases.

Among the marriage licenses granted in Centre county Christmas week was one to Paul Homer Zerby, Spring Mills, and Miss Leona Sara Lehr, of Centre Hall.

The local Rebekahs will hold a benefit party on Tuesday evening, January 16th, at which will be played bridge, "500," checkers, anagrams and jig-saw. Admission, 25c.

The State Highway Department had all of its 815 snow plows in operation to keep the highways open during the recent snow storms. The plows were operated by 2,700 men.

On Tuesday, J. S. Booser began excavating the cellar for the new building he contemplates erecting to take the place of the one recently destroyed by fire. Up to this time he has not fully decided as to the type of building or the material to be used, except that it will be as nearly fire-proof as practicable.

Slight damage was done the Housburg hotel building, Tuesday at about 2:00 o'clock, when it is presumed sparks from the flue ignited the roof and burned off a small section. Neighbors responded quickly and extinguished the flames before the State College fire company's equipment, previously called, arrived. The hotel is conducted by Mrs. Myrtle Thompson. The property is insured.

Edward H. Bonsall, a prominent Episcopalian layman and Philadelphia banker, died on Monday, in his 75th year. He was the father of Rev. Edward H. Bonsall, superintendent of Young People in the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, and prominent in the conduct of the State S. S. camp on Spruce creek.

An amicable settlement was made by the Travelers' Insurance company with Adam B. Smith, his daughter, Miss Hazel Smith, and Hugh Morrow, Jr., for damage and injury sustained when a car belonging to R. S. Hagan, the local garageman, driven by one of his salesmen, collided on the Seven Mountains, several months ago, with the car the young people were driving. Bruce Smith, a brother of Miss Smith, was at the wheel, but was not injured. The damage to the Smith car was paid for in full; medical attention allowed Miss Smith, and Hugh Morrow paid $550.00 in lump sum. The parties were not obliged to pay a nickel for cost of collection.

Deaths

BIBLE.—David E. Bible, active church and Sunday school worker, who spent his entire life in the mercantile business, died at his residence, 615 West Norwegian street, Pottsville, on Tuesday night, December 19. He was taken with a heavy cold a week previous. Bronchial pneumonia developed, which was followed by lobar pneumonia, the cause of his death. He had a rallying period, but grew weaker and lapsed into delirium during which matters of the Methodist church, with which he was associated from childhood, were continually on his lips. Mr. Bible was 73 years of age on May 14. He was born near Centre Hall, a son of John and (—) Royer Bible. Receiving a common school education, he early became interested in business matters. As a young man he conducted a little store at Spring Mills. It was in 1893 that he entered the employ of Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, at Pottsville, having served 34 years with that firm and the succeeding firm, Pomeroy's, Inc. About 30 years ago he became associated with Hess Bros' mercantile business at Allentown. From that city he went to Mt. Carmel, about a quarter of a century ago, and was manager a stockholder and part owner of the store, conducted at that place by the Mt. Carmel Mercantile Co. Leaving that concern he then returned to Pottsville, remaining in the employ of Pomeroy's, Inc., until his retirement. Mr. Bible was, at all times courteous and affable and his friends and acquaintances are legion. He possessed a devout Christian character and even temperament that made him beloved of all with whom he came in contact. Mr. Bible was a public-spirited citizen and displayed a lively interest in everything that was designed for the general good of the community. Fraternally he was a member of the Blue Lodge of Masons, at Centre Hall, and also of the Chapter at Pottsville. He was also long identified as a member of Miners Lodge No. 20, I. O. O. F., of Pottsville. In the Pottsville Methodist church he was actively interested in the Men's Bible class for many years. He had a long tenure as assistant superintendent of the Sunday school. In the business affairs of the congregation, for many years, he was a member of the Board of Stewards and also of the Official Board. He was chairman of the Poor Board of the church up to his death. His wife preceded him in death, on July 3, 1931. There survive, his daughter, Anna B. Leonard, who made her home with her father and administered to him until he passed away; one granddaughter, Jeanne W. Leonard, also a member of the household; a niece, Mrs. John Drum, Jr., of Philadelphia, a trained nurse; also a brother, Jacob Bible, of Phoenixville. The deceased was the eldest member of his family. Burial was made at Pottsville with Masonic fraternity rites.

HERING.—Miss M. Irene Hering, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Hering, died at her home below Spring Mills, on Friday morning of last week at 1:30 A. M., after a period of illness of fifteen weeks. Miss Hering took her bed with an acute attack of tuberculosis on September 11, and her condition grew steadily worse, until the end came on December 29. She was born on December 20, 1911, being aged 22 years and 9 days. She is survived by her mother and father, and two brothers—Charles, of Philadelphia, and Walter, of Spring Mills.

Miss Hering was a graduate of the Pennsylvania State College, having completed her work there in the School of Education in June, 1933. She was a member of Les Sabreurs honorary fencing society, and took part in productions staged by the Penn State Players, while she was in college. Upon graduation she secured a position as teacher in the Beaver Dam school in Gregg township and was teaching when she was taken ill. She was a member of the Penna Creek Lutheran church of Penn Hall.

Funeral services were held at the Penna Creek Lutheran church, Monday, after interment had been made in the Heckman cemetery, the Rev. Louis V. Lesher officiating.

SHIVELY.—Mrs. Mary Violetta Shively, wife of Melvin Shively, passed away at her home at Coburn on Christmas morning, after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Spigelmyer, and was born at Coburn, and was aged 44 years, and 24 days. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Spigelmyer; her husband, two children, Irene and Nolan, at home, and one sister, Mrs. David Dorman, of Aaronsburg. Funeral services were held at the home, in charge of Rev. A. C. Paulhamus, pastor of the Evangelical church, at Millheim. Interment in the Millheim cemetery.

CRATER.—Mabel Arlene, aged one year and 9 months, daughter of James and Catharine Crater, of Beaver Dam, in Gregg township, died of cerebrospinal meningitis, at the Centre County hospital.

She is survived by her parents, and those brothers and sisters: Ruth M., Helen C., Phyllis L., Malvin, Richard, Gross, Eugene and Glenn, all at home. Private funeral services were held, with burial at Heckman's cemetery.

WINGARD.—Henry Wingard, aged 76 years, 6 months, died at his home at Rote's Mill. He was a native of Penn township, a son of John and Ellen McCool Wingard. Surviving him are his wife, whose maiden name was Matilda Ulrich, and four children: Raymond and Allen, both of Penna-

Creek; Harry, of near Coburn, and Mrs. Ellen Confer, of Penn Hall. Burial was made at Rebersburg.

SMITH.—Mrs. Terrest Smith, twice married, first to Jasper Stover and lastly to former Prothonotary W. P. Smith, died in Millheim.

CONDO.—L. A. Condo, aged seventy-six years, died at the home of his oldest daughter, Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, west of Old Fort, December 28th. He suffered a paralytic stroke December 8, and was confined to his bed during the entire illness.

Mr. Condo was born in Georges Valley where he spent the early years of his life. After working on farms in Penna and Nitany Valleys and in the lumber camps of the Seven Mountains district, he became an apprentice in the blacksmith shop of his brother, James Condo, at Spring Mills, and followed that trade throughout his life. At various times he operated a blacksmith shops at Coburn, Potters Mills, Old Fort, and several locations in Millfin county.

He married Amanda Wilson, of Zion, September, 1880. He is survived by his wife, three brothers and one sister: John, of Aaronsburg; James, Spring Mills; Jonathan, of Howard, and Mrs. James Roush, of Aaronsburg. Also, by six children, namely, Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, Centre Hall; Mrs. John Treaster, Lewistown; Mrs. Mary Fultz, of Milroy; John Condo, Spring Mills; Charles Condo, Milroy; and George Condo, of Wisconsin.

LEISTER.—Brief funeral services of Miss Dorothy Aurdan Leister, aged 20 years, 1 month and 5 days, were conducted from the home of her foster parents, Frank and Retta Leister, Dry Valley, Derry township, Millfin county, Saturday morning, 23rd ult. The principal service was held in Emanuel's Lutheran and Reformed Union church near McClure.

She was the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leister, formerly of Potter township, and her death, caused by a diseased thyroid gland and heart trouble, occurred on Wednesday morning previous at the Lewistown hospital where she was a medical patient since November 7.

Miss Leister was a member of the Lutheran church, Alfarata, and her pastor, Rev. Ralph L. Wagner, conducted the funeral services.

LONG.—John Alexander Long, a native of Centre county and for many years a farmer near Aaronsburg, died at his home on Christmas morning, after a long illness with complications. Mr. Long was born in Nitany Valley, a son of Isaac and Hanna Long, both deceased. He was aged 66 yrs., 11 mos. and 12 days, and is survived by his wife, the former Susan Pennington; a son and three daughters: Elmer Long, of Aaronsburg; Mrs. Curtis Grenoble, of State College; Mrs. Edward Igen, of Lyvonia; and Mrs. John Houser, of Boalsburg; and by three brothers and two sisters: George Long and Harris Long, of the Madisonburg vicinity; Frank Long, of Rebersburg; Mrs. Mary Genzel, of Spring Mills; and Mrs. Wallace Strouse, of Green Burr. Funeral services were held from the home in charge of Rev. G. A. Fred, Greising, of Aaronsburg, assisted by Rev. Samuel Greenhoe, of Centre Hall. Interment in the Farmers Mills cemetery.

SPANGLER.—Mary Agnes Spangler, wife of Joseph E. Spangler, passed away at the family home in Newton, Kansas. Deceased was a native of Madisonburg, being a daughter of the late Joseph and Mary (Bollinger) Bierly. She was born May 28, 1860, which makes her age at death 73 years, 6 months and 17 days.

She was twice married, the first husband passing away some years ago December 21, 1927, she was united in marriage to Joseph E. Spangler, at Rebersburg, and the family had since lived at Newton, Kansas. Surviving are the husband and these children of the first marriage: George D. Kidder, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Ruth Garrett, of Rebersburg; Mrs. Florence Beech and Mrs. Mary C. Full, both of Washington, D. C.

Also surviving are these brothers and sisters, Mrs. Spangler being the first of the family of ten children to break the circle: Frank Bierly, of Seattle, Wash.; Rev. W. C. Bierly, and Mrs. Alice Duck, of State College; Mrs. Minnie Rohrbaugh, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. Lizzie Swartz, of Millheim; Mrs. Catharine Long, of Albany, N. Y.; Edward Bierly, of near Rebersburg, and Miss Sara Bierly, matron of the Home for the Friendless, at Williamsport.

SHORTISS.—Mrs. Minerva (Spittler) Shortiss, wife of Rev. J. D. Shortiss, retired Evangelical church official, died at her home in Lemoyne, three days after celebrating her fifty-second wedding anniversary, at the age of seventy-five years. Rev. R. O. Steely officiated at the funeral services, burial having been made at Lewisburg.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Shortiss is survived by three children, Mrs. Florence Steiner and Miss Emma Shortiss, of Lemoyne, and S. Irvin Shortiss, a teacher at Bloomburg State Teachers' College. Also surviving are a sister and two brothers.

SOME GOOD SCORES MADE AT BLUE ROCK SHOOT, JAN. 1

The Spring Mills Fish and Game Association, on New Year's day, put on a bluerock shoot in which several contestants made fine records. The best shot proved to be B. W. Ingram, of State College. The best records out of seventy-five "birds" are these: B. W. Ingram, 62; Randall Meyer, 60; Ira Siegal, 57; Harold Meyer, 55. The four highest out of twenty-five: Ingram, 23; Kilne, 22; Randall and Harold Meyer, each, 21. No prizes were given, the contest having been conducted with this feature omitted. The attendance was very fair. There were eleven contestants, and total bluerock sent up in the air was approximately one thousand.

CWA PROJECTS EMPLOY 64 MEN IN CENTRE HALL

On Tuesday, sixty-four men were employed on the three borough projects—the reservoir, school house and Hoffer street. The average since the works was begun is about fifty. Very fair progress has been made, especially so considering the weather conditions during much of the time.

FEWER HUNTERS KILLED IN 1933 THAN IN 1932

The game commission reports that nine hinds met death during this year's deer season compared with 13 in 1932. Twenty-five small game hunters were killed in 1933, as against 35 last year. Twenty-nine were wounded in the 1933 deer season, compared with 34 last year. During the small game season this year, 296 were wounded. Last year the figure was 241.
