CENTRE COUNTY HOSPITAL NOTES.

Miss Madeline Shuey, a student nurse at the hospital, was discharged last Tuesday after undergoing medical treatment. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew C. Rokey, of Centre Hall, R. D., at the hospital last Tuesday. The child died on Friday. Larue M. Brungart, son of Palmer Brungart, of Rebersburg, became a medical patient Tuesday.

Deaths

MEYER.—The community was shocked on Saturday when the announcement of the death of Mrs. Charles H. Meyer was made, the death having occurred at the home of Mrs. Meyer's daughter, Miriam, wife of Harold Butler, Esq., in Short Hills, N. J. Although Mrs. Meyer had been suffering for some months from a throat affection, for treatment of which she had gone to the metropolitan city, her friends here had no suspicions of the seriousness of her condition. She passed out during a hemorrhage following a severe coughing spell. Here death was very similar in many respects to that of her mother, a number of years ago, which took place in Centre Hall. The body was taken from the Butler home to that of the Meyer home in Reedsville where funeral services were held Tuesday, following which burial was made in the family plot in the Centre Hall cemetery. The deceased, Mary Agnes (Boal) Meyer, was the second daughter of Capt. George M. and Ellen S. (Love) Boal, and was born on the Boal homestead, west of Old Fort, January 23, 1858, making her age at the time of her death 55 years, 11 months and 13 days. Beside her husband and daughter named, there are three grandchildren and four sisters, namely, Mrs. D. A. Booser and Mrs. C. W. Slack, Centre Hall; Mrs. (Dr.) W. E. Park, Ashville, N. C., and Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, Riverton, N. J. Mrs. Meyer was a member of the Reformed church, Reedsville, and her pastor officiated at the funeral services. FISHER.—Mrs. Flora M. Fisher died at the home of her son-in-law, Dr. Alexander B. Arthur, at 1420 Chelton Avenue, Philadelphia, Tuesday of last week. Funeral services were held from that home on Thursday, Mrs. Fisher, who was born in Lewisburg, November 26, 1856, was the daughter of Mary Jane Van Valzah and James Wesley Pennington. She was a member of the Daughters of the Revolution, and the widow of the late Daniel Fisher, reared in Potter township. Margaret, wife of Dr. Arthur, is an only child of the deceased. CALLAHAN.—John Callahan died from the effects of a paralytic stroke on Sunday morning at the home of his brother, James Callahan, west of Boalsburg. Funeral services were held on Wednesday from the home of a niece, Mrs. M. K. Green at Linden Hall, and interment made at Centre Hall Rev. Lint officiating. The deceased was unmarried but is survived by a brother at whose home he died, and three sisters: Mrs. Anna Forcell, Ridgway; Mrs. Hanna Busch, Altoona, and Mrs. Ellen Whitman, of Lewistown. He was a son of Daniel and Malinda Devine Callahan, both born in Ireland, and was aged 65 years. SMITH.—Mrs. Hattie Terresta Smith, widow of the late William F. Smith, passed away at her home in Millheim, as was noted briefly in these columns last week. Deceased was a daughter of the late Jacob and Sarah (Long) Lanich and was born in Miles township January 2, 1861. She was aged 72 years, 11 months and 17 days. She was twice married. Her first husband was Jasper W. Stover, Millheim merchant, who passed away thirty or more years ago. In October, 1909, she became the wife of William F. Smith, former prothonotary of Centre county. He passed out of this life five years ago. A step-daughter, Mrs. M. A. Sankey, of near Hollidaysburg, is the only immediate surviving relative. Mrs. Smith was a member of the Millheim Evangelical church for many years. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery, Millheim. HEPBURN.—Mrs. Blanche Hepburn Fry died at the home of her niece, Mrs. John Hoy, Bellefonte, Thursday, following a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hepburn and was born in Bellefonte 63 years ago. She was united in marriage with Robert Fry, who died in June, 1933. Since that time Mrs. Fry has made her home with her niece, Miss Mary Hepburn, and Mrs. John F. Hoy. Prior to making her home with her niece she had been a patient in the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia, for twenty weeks. Mrs. Fry is survived by a brother, Edward Hepburn, of Bellefonte; two nieces mentioned above, and two stepsons, Walter E. Fry, of Omaha, Neb., and Benton Fry, of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held on Sunday, Rev. E. B. Heckman officiating. TAYLOR.—Dr. Joseph Russell Taylor, a native of Bellefonte, died at the home of a sister, Mrs. Warren Elsey, in Harrisburg, Sunday morning, following a lingering illness of a complication of diseases. He was a son of Hugh and Annie Taylor and was born in Bellefonte 37 years ago. He was united in marriage with Miss Edith Haskell of Jackson, Mich., who survives with the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Elizabeth Burns, of Detroit, Mich.; Major James E. Taylor, of Beverly Hills, Cal.; Mrs. Isabel Zerby, of Bedford; W. E. Gladstone Taylor, of Taylorstown; Richard R. of Bellefonte; Lillian M., of Pittsburgh; and Mrs. Warren Elsey, of Harrisburg. Dr. Taylor was a graduate of the Bellefonte High school and of Jefferson Medical College. The body was brought to Bellefonte where private funeral services were held in St. John's Episcopal church interment in Union cemetery.

"Sunshine Class" Meets.

The "Sunshine Class" of the Evangelical church met in its December gathering at the home of Miss Bernice Frazier, near Centre Hall. The meeting opened with singing "Silent Night." Scripture verses were read by the president, Miss Kathryn Bender, followed by the Lord's prayer; hymn, Away in a Manger, followed by short readings by each member of the class, suitable to the Christmas season; closing song, Joy to the World, followed by the repeating of the Missal. After the meeting an election of officers resulted as follows: President, Kathryn Bender; vice-president, Doris Zang; secretary, Genevieve Hess; treasurer, Lawrence Bender.

Automobile dealers have been doing some remarkable things during the past several years. The fruits of their fertile brains will be seen in this year's automobile show. Fish tail cars, tear drop cars, snow shoe cars and others of strange description will be displayed. It's a safe bet, however, that foolproof cars will not be included among them.

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS GRAMLEY AND MR. GRAVATT ANNOUNCED

The following article is taken from a New York newspaper and is of interest to local residents: The surprise announcement of the engagement of Miss Virginia Gramley to Howard R. Gravatt was the dramatic highlight at one of the most select and colorful dances of the season. The dance was held by the Juniors of the Westchester Women's Club in the auditorium of the club house. The announcement was made when the music stopped for a minute and the couple was asked to step forward. The strains of the wedding march announced the surprise to the guests. The couple solo danced on the floor to the accompaniment of clapping hands and congratulations of their friends. Miss Gramley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gramley, of Bronxville, N. Y., and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Gramley, Millheim. She is a graduate of Skidmore College and very active in Mt. Vernon school. Mr. Gravatt is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Thomas E. Gravatt of State College. He attended Penn State and is now associated with the Yorkshire Indemnity company.
