

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

George Goodhart trapped a 42-pound beaver in one of the Seven Mountain streams, a few days ago.

A regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U. will be held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Blazer and son Paul of Selinsgrove, were guests of Clarence Blazer, and family, near town.

Jannet Belle, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Lester, in town, is recovering nicely from an attack of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith (Bud) Coldron, newlyweds, last week began house-keeping in an apartment in the Odenkirk store building, at the station.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jacobs, at the Centre County hospital, Saturday morning. She has been named Pauline.

A lovely daughter was born on Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slack at the Slack farm home east of Old Fort. She has been named Shirley Catharine.

Mrs. Paul Grove and Mrs. Charles Grenoble, of Spring Mills, made a brief call at this office on Monday, and later made a social call at the Searson home.

A Senatorial scholarship was granted Vernon Godshall, son of Mrs. Margaret Godshall, of Centre Hall, through Senator H. B. Scott. This young man is attending Penn State College, pursuing an agricultural course.

The following persons spent Sunday at the James Foust home in Centre Hall: Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gilbert, of Sunbury; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Graden, of Shulton; John L. Graden, Spring Mills.

The Young People's Missionary Circle of St. John's Evangelical church, Centre Hall, will present a three-act Chinese costume play, "The Betrothal of Mai Tsung," Thursday evening, Mar. 8, at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend. An offering will be lifted for missionary purposes.

The public school teaching force of Centre Hall borough brought cheer to Prof. J. F. Wetzel, a patient in Gisinger Memorial hospital, by remembering his birthday, on Tuesday, and sending greeting cards. We feel that Mr. Wetzel's spirits rose 100 per cent by this act of thoughtfulness.

A number of beavers were captured in Penns Creek and feeders to it in the vicinity of Po Valley. L. L. Weaver has the credit with having outsmarted four of the cunning animals. Mr. Wingard, of Coburn, two, and several CCC boys, at Po Valley camp, also took several beavers over for a "ride."

Harry W. Potter, employed as a record-keeper at the Hagan Garage, has been off duty since the beginning of last week, due to corneal ulcers, from which condition he suffered several years ago. Miss Pearl Arney is also a sufferer from the same cause. Both patients are improving under the treatment of Dr. J. V. Foster, State College.

The Bartholomew home is under quarantine for scarlet fever. Doris Melitz, the victim of the disease which developed a week ago, is under the care of a competent nurse, Miss Orpha Siegal, of Spring Mills, and is rapidly improving. The case is completely isolated and is quite comfortable except for the fact that she is missing school for the first time in her four years in High school, which fact causes her great regret, as she was most anxious to earn her fourth seal.

Miss Miriam Moore, of Hershey, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore. Miss Moore is a member of the Hershey A Cappella Choir, which is a branch of the Westminster A Cappella Choir in Princeton, N. J. A number of these branches are found in various cities of the U. S. The Hershey choir is composed of nearly 200 talented mixed voices and is under the directorship of a noted and well known musician and organist, Dr. Sykes, of Lancaster.

The Reporter is informed by Mrs. Edward Durst that she was in error in stating that her father, J. Hale Ross, had clerked for the late Daniel Hess and later (1885) purchased the mercantile business from him, whereas the fact is that Mr. Ross clerked for Alexander and Keller, who were the successors of Mr. Hess, and purchased the business from them at the time named. The mercantile firm of Alexander and Keller was comprised of the Hon. W. K. Alexander and J. Will Keller.

The box social held Friday night by the Tussey Sink school, Liline Brooks, teacher, was a great success. The net receipts were $22.50, and the program was also greatly enjoyed. The funds will be applied to the purchase of some needed equipment in the school room. The financial success of the venture was due to some extent to the CCC camp members, one of whom acted as auctioneer and was able to corral a lot of bids. The youths, much to their credit, acted with entire decorum during the entire evening.

The announcement of Howard J. Thompson, of Curwensville, for State Senator, under the rules of the Democratic party, appears in this issue. Mr. Thompson was formerly of Bellefonte where he and C. H. Richelleu constructed the well-known and popular theatre, the Richelleu. Another candidate for the office, as was noted heretofore, is Edward J. (Jack) Thompson, of Philipsburg. The similarity of the two names will be somewhat confusing to voters, but in time they will learn that "Howard" is from Clearfield county and "Ed" from Centre.

SLACK-KEISER.
The marriage of J. Russell Slack, of Centre Hall, and Miss Lela Keiser, of Walnut, Juniata county, was consummated on Saturday, February 10th, in Mifflintown, by Justice Hower. The groom is a son of Justice and Mrs. C. W. Slack, of town. The bride has been regularly employed at the Viscose plant, Lewistown, for several years, and is continuing her work there. The groom is a member of the C. C. Corps at Camp No. 65, back of Colyer, and like his bride is back to work.
The young couple have the best wishes of the Reporter.

LINDEN HALL.
Church Notes: S. S. at 9:30, followed by preaching services by the pastor, Mrs. Floren Strohl; Young People's meeting in evening at 7:30.
Mrs. Robert McClellan and Mrs. Sam Ross spent Friday at the home of Mrs. Roy Searons in Centre Hall and while there the ladies were engaged in quilting.

We have just passed the coldest week that some of us have ever experienced, the thermometer dropping to 33 below zero.

That famous old bird, the Stork, has been hovering over our community quite often recently. Two weeks ago he left a baby boy with Mrs. John Miller at the John Horner home; last Monday morning a little girl with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Dillon at the W. W. Whitehome, and Friday morning a little girl with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Callahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Waterman, of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Shreckengast and sons Henry and Lester, of Logan Mills, spent Sunday with Mr. Shreckengast's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mesmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Horner and family of Oak Hall, spent Sunday with the former's brother, John Horner, and family.

Visitors at the Frank McClintic home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George Ishler and son Gene, of State College, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sharer and daughter Cecelia, of Centre Hall.

Funeral services were held for Arlene Gingerich, of Reading, at the home of her brothers, Rome and Earl Gingerich, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude McClintic and three children attended a dance at the R. L. Hook home, east of Old Fort, Friday evening.

We are glad to report that Helen Matis is able to walk without the aid of crutches and John Matis is able to be out once again, although he has to go about on his crutches. We hope for his speedy recovery, so that he too will be able to cast them aside.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Perryman took up housekeeping in several rooms at the P. A. McClintic home. We wish them the best of luck as they sail life's seas.

Somebody's ill...
When somebody's ill, even when it's not serious, there are so many things to do! There's the doctor to call perhaps, or medicine to order, the family to notify, plans to change. Then, more than ever, you need a telephone! Why do without its help and comfort?
You can have a telephone in your home for less than a dime a day!
THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 23RD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

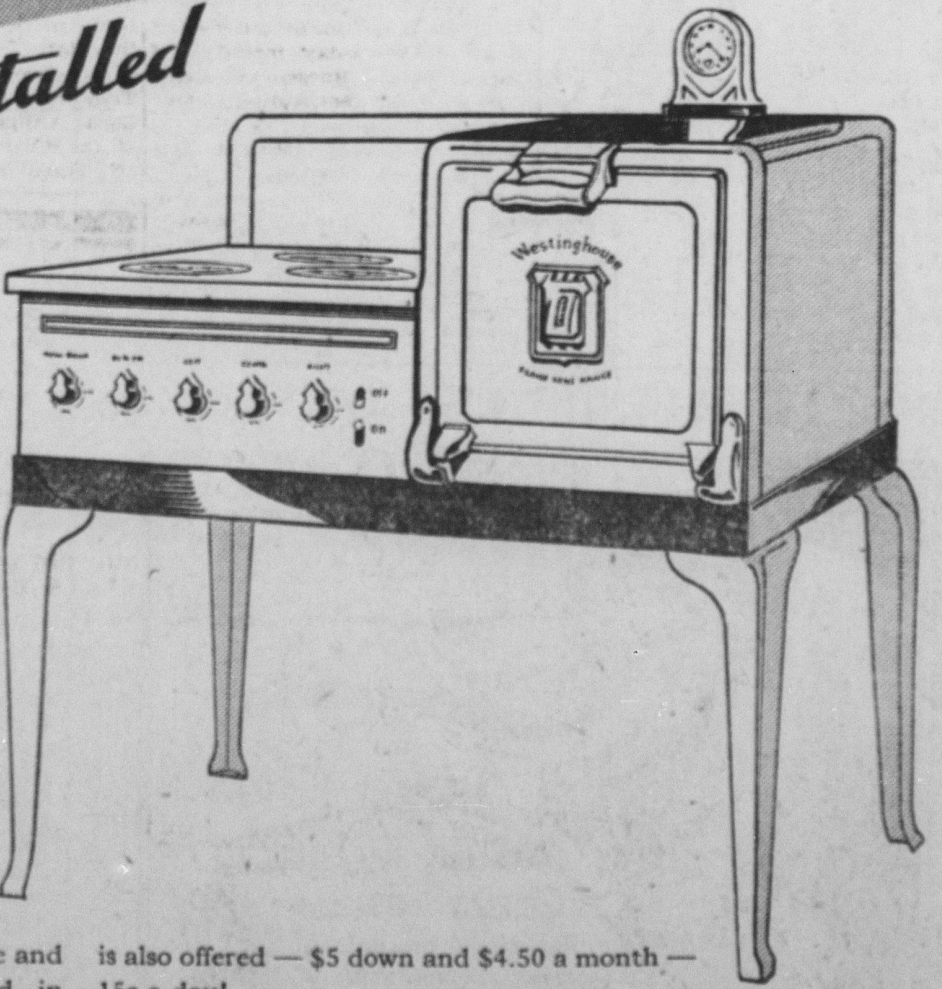

I respectfully announce myself as a candidate for re-nomination for Congress at the Republican primary to be held on May 15 next.
My candidacy is submitted to you on my record of service during the years I have been your Representative at Washington.
This country is unquestionably passing through one of the most critical periods in its history. Problems growing out of the depression strike deeply at our institutions and manner of living, and upon their proper solution depend the happiness and prosperity of all the people. In another great crisis Abraham Lincoln said: "Don't swap horses while crossing a stream." What was true then is equally true in the present crisis.
My record will show that I have cheerfully cooperated with the Administration in its major recovery program whenever there appeared a possibility of benefit to our people, placing the welfare of the country above partisan consideration. This policy I shall continue if re-elected.
I will be grateful to you for your influence and support and will do everything in my power to merit your further confidence.
Very respectfully yours,
J. Banks Kurtz
