POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce the name of HOWARD J. THOMPSON, of Curwensville, as a candidate for the office of State Senator in the Centre-Clearfield District, subject to the rules governing the Democratic Party as expressed at the Primaries to be held May 15, 1934.

The Hon. J. Laird Holmes, of State College, accompanied by Editor A. J. Zimmerman, of "The Times," was a Reporter caller on Saturday for the purpose of buying advertising space in the Reporter to again present his name as a candidate on the Republican ticket for the Legislature. The Hon. Mr. Holmes has been running for so long that we have lost count, but if our memory serves us right, this is the fifth time he asks to go to the lower house in the State legislative body. We're a-thinkin' the Hon. J. L. is going to be on the outside looking in, instead of the inside looking out, this time. Anyway, a new face from Centre county would relieve the monotony.

Local "High" Loses at Basketball.
Last Friday the first C. H. H. Shagel team, coached by Hughes Bringer, received its second straight defeat at the hands of G. T. V. S. Junior varsity; score, 46-17. The team, although much handicapped by the lack of a gymnasium, displayed a decided improvement over the previous game.

Hornor, Frank and Spyker were the leading scorers for the locals, while Musser and Condo were leaders for G. T. V. S.

Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bowersox, of State College, were visitors at the home of the Misses Dale on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Pearl Patterson returned Sunday from a week's visit with friends in Reedsville.

Forrest McGirk, of Altoona, visited his parents from Friday until Tuesday. After the Messmer farm stock sale, Lynn Mothershead will move to the Messmer farm on Cedar Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wasson will begin house-keeping on the Hubler farm vacated by the Mothersheads.

Theodore Segner and family, of State College, were visitors at the Charles Segner home last week.

Mrs. Irvin Graham, of Pine Grove Mills, spent Monday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubler.

A class of four were initiated at the regular meeting of Victor Grange on Tuesday evening.

SPRING MILLS.

Miss Smith, Home Economics Extension worker of Centre county, will start a class for the women of Spring Mills and vicinity, on Thursday, Mar. 22, at 2 P. M., at the home of Mrs. C. M. Watts. The instruction and services of Miss Smith are free of charge. All women interested are welcome. There are several projects that can be chosen: two in cooking—one in preparing and one serving food; sewing and renovating clothing; inside furnishings and doing over furniture, etc. The project to be used first will be chosen at the meeting to be held at the time named.

Deaths

RIPKA.—Mrs. Lulu Ripka, wife of Emory S. Ripka, passed away at the family home in Millheim, Wednesday of last week, following an illness since Saturday previous, of paralysis. Mrs. Ripka had not been in good health for the past year or more, but seemed to have been improving day by day. On Saturday morning, she was taken to State College to have her eye glasses changed, and it was in the office of Dr. Foster in the College town that she was seized with the fatal stroke. Being brought home the same day, she rallied to some extent, but during the evening she relapsed into a coma from which she never recovered, death ensuing at the hour stated.

Deceased was the daughter of Hiram D. and Annie E. (Burkholder) Byers, and was born in St. Thomas township, Franklin county, May 27, 1874, hence was aged 59 years, 9 months and 10 days. She was married on June 5th, 1901, to Mr. Ripka, who survives with two children: Mrs. Hazel Cable, at home, and Byers Ripka, also of Millheim. Also surviving is her aged mother, Mrs. Annie Byers, of St. Thomas, and the following brothers and sisters: Wilson Byers, of Chambersburg; Walker Byers, Miss Verba Galt Byers, Mrs. Belle Graham, all of St. Thomas, and Paul Byers, of Millheim.

She was affiliated with the Methodist church. She was distinctly a home-loving woman, with that devotion to husband and children that is characteristic of all good women, and her kindness was the respect and esteem of her neighbors.

Funeral services were held from the home Saturday afternoon, the Rev. Louis V. Leash, being the officiating minister. Interment was made in the Fairview cemetery.

Before moving to Millheim the Ripka family lived in Centre Hall, where Mrs. Ripka had many friends who continued their friendship and respect for her.

MITCHELL.—Mrs. Alice Rue Mitchell, wife of J. Hutchinson Mitchell, died Saturday at her home in Lemont. Mrs. Mitchell came to Lemont as a bride less than a year and a half ago. Her pleasing personality and willingness to be serving made her many friends in the community and especially in the church. The young folks especially were attracted to her.

The funeral services were held in the home Tuesday and were in charge of her pastor, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, who was assisted by the Rev. Edward H. Jones, of the State College Presbyterian church. Mrs. Mitchell became a member of the Presbyterian church of Lemont soon after she came to the community. She transferred her membership from the Old Tennesse Presbyterian church of Tennent, N. J.

Had she lived until the 19th of April she would have attained her 28th year.

She leaves to mourn her departure an infant daughter, born three days previous to her death; her husband, named above; her mother, Mrs. Rue, and one sister, both of Jamesburg, N. J. She will also be missed by her many friends which she has made since her coming into the Lemont community.

God calls us home. He knows the best.
From earth's of earth to that sweet rest
Where we shall live with Him the best.

Not now do we full understand.
The beckoning of His dear hand
But later as He takes our hand
Up there some day we'll understand.

STOVER.—Mrs. Sarah Rishel Stover, widow of Frederic H. Stover, died close to Monday noon at the home of her only child, Jennie C., wife of Harry Shock, a few miles west of Coburn. Funeral services will be held on Friday at 9:30 at the home, and at 10:30 at Paradise church, with burial in Fairview cemetery, Millheim. Rev. Paul Miller, of the Evangelical church, officiating. The deceased was aged 77 years, 6 months and 29 days, and death was due to complications following pneumonia.

Mrs. Stover was one of thirteen children born to Joseph and Lydia (Heckman) Rishel, and was born in Gregg township on the Rishel homestead. She is survived by the daughter previously mentioned and one grand-daughter, Evelyn E. Shock, also by five brothers and three sisters, namely, Charles B., Scott county, Kas.; George H., Kaneville, Ill.; Jeremiah, Spring Mills; Jonas B., C. farm; William Pierce, of Rempton, W. Va.; Mrs. Mary Meyer, Yeagertown; Mrs. Harry Cain, a twin sister, Spring Mills; Mrs. W. C. Kradler, Coburn.

WITMER.—James Calvin Witmer, a lifelong resident of Buffalo Run Valley, passed away at the Centre County hospital after an illness with Bright's disease. Mr. Witmer was a native of Buffalo Run Valley, having been born there in 1861, a son of William S. and Sarah Witmer. He was aged 72 years, 7 months and 19 days. He was twice married, his first wife, Dora Gingerich, having passed away 21 years ago. Surviving are his second wife, the former Ida Poorman, and two sons and two daughters: Harrison E. Witmer, of Williamsport; Bertha M., wife of J. M. Shaffer, of Waverly, N. Y.; and Beatrice, L., wife of Calvin Ridler, of Bellefonte. He has two daughters also survive: Mrs. Annie Kline, of Lemont, and Mrs. Margaret Thomas, of Centre Hall. Funeral services were held from the late residence, in charge of Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte. Interment in Shiloh cemetery.

SWOPE.—Nettie Swope aged 45 years, wife of Elmer Swope, of Jacksonville, died Sunday night at the Lock Haven hospital following an operation several days previous. She was a native of Rebersburg but had resided for a number of years at Jacksonville. She was an active member of the Jacksonville Reformed church, and of the Marion Grange.

She is survived by her husband, a daughter, Kathryn, of Rochester, N. Y., and two other daughters and three sons, at home.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Jacksonville Reformed church, in charge of the past or Rev. George R. Johnson, of Howard, and interment made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

BLANCHARD.—John Blanchard, Esq., died at his home in Bellefonte from acute dilation of the heart. He was born in Bellefonte, October 23, 1862, and was a son of Evan Mills and Eliza Harris Blanchard. He was educated in the Bellefonte Academy, Haverford Academy and Law School and the University of Pennsylvania, and was a member of the Society of Friends. He was attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad for many years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Adelaide Merriman Blanchard; a son, Evan Mills; a daughter, Jean Hender son Blanchard, two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Beach, and Miss Mary Mills Blanchard, all of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Stuart F. Gast, rector of the Episcopal church, and burial made in the Friends cemetery, Bellefonte.

Mrs. Daniel Muske died on Saturday at her home near Paradise church, west of Coburn.

Another peculiarity in taste of Greeks is shown in the effort to grow a new variety of apples in Greece when the York Imperial was selected. Seven hundred trees were purchased from an Adams county nurseryman.

CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS
OF PASTORS IN EVAN. FIELDS

The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Church, held at York beginning last Thursday and continuing until Monday, Bishop M. T. Maze, D. D., presiding, closed its session with the announcement of appointments of pastors in the three districts comprising the conference. Following are noted the fields pastors known to many of our readers have been assigned to for 1934-1935:

York District—S. A. Snyder, returned to Baltimore (Olive Branch), Barn-

REV. J. W. ZANG
Returned by Evangelical Conference to Centre Hall.

ersville, R. A. Babcock; I. C. Fuhrman, Carlisle; C. C. Kridler, Craley; A. C. Ruth, Hanover; W. E. Smith, formerly pastor at Centre Hall, returned to Logansville; L. W. Barts, Morgan, W. Va.; H. Minsker, Yorkana.

Williamsport District—H. C. Kleffel, Altoona (First); A. W. Campbell, Altoona (Grace); J. B. Mayes, Bellefonte; J. W. Zang returned to Centre Hall and Spring Mills; A. C. Paulhamus returned to Millheim; Paul M. Miller returned to Rebersburg; E. B. Haney, Saladashburg; C. C. Mizener, State College, transferred from Wrightsville, York district; J. W. Thompson, Williamsport (First); L. M. Dice, Williamsport (Grace).

P. Ringman, former pastor at Centre Hall, returned to Hingtown; J. H. Fleckenstein, Lewisburg; F. H. Foss, former pastor at Centre Hall, Mount Rock.

DEATHS.

Miss Eleanor Elizabeth Murtoff, in Bellefonte, on Saturday, aged 21 years. She had been a patient in Camp Devitt Sanatorium, Allenwood, for two and one-half years.

Mrs. Helen Mills Duffan, a native of Bellefonte, died in Harrisburg, aged 63 years. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mills, Bellefonte. The body was interred in Bellefonte.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The first test of new laws providing death as a penalty for torture in kidnapping is to be afforded in California where two men who burned the hands of their victim to make him reveal the hiding place of wealth they believed him to possess have been condemned to die. It is improbable that their execution, the date for which has been set, will be allowed to proceed without efforts to have the sentence set aside.

Application of capital punishment as an antidote for kidnapping has been repeatedly advocated in these past couple years of excitement over this type of crime. With such punishment as the penalty for first degree murder having been banned in a number of states and much agitation for its complete abolition, there has been objection to decreeing death for any crime less than first degree murder.

As a general principle, however, the death penalty is reserved for murder, and we may expect that a fight will be made against execution of these California men for a crime which, however heinous, we recognize it to be, is less than murder.

FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from Pennsylvania State College
School of Agriculture

FEED WET MASHES.—Feeding wet mashes to laying hens and pullets encourages feed consumption and keeps up egg production during cold weather. Warm drinking water is also beneficial. If a heating device for the fountain is not available it pays to carry warm water.

CULL OUT POOR COWS.—The first step in a good program of dairy feeding is to determine whether all cows in the herd have the ability to make profitable use of the feed they consume. A careful check often will reveal cows utterly unable to pay for the feed they consume. Removal of these cows will improve the situation.

DRAIN OFF WARM WATER.—Where natural ice is used for cooling milk, arranging the overflow pipe so that the top portion can be removed will allow the warm water to drain off when the cans are taken out. The pipe is replaced before ice is added for the next cooling. This prevents the accumulation of more water than is needed.

GROW VEGETABLES FOR YEAR.—A well-managed family vegetable garden saves money, provides excellent food and promotes better health. A quarter to a half acre will supply a farm family with vegetables for 12 months. Some will be used fresh, and others canned or stored.

TEST ALL SEED CORN.—Farmers are faced with a serious seed corn situation. The unusually cold weather and high moisture content of corn have combined to make poor prospects. To be absolutely safe farmers should test all corn intended for seed purposes, whether left in the crib or dried early and stored.

EWES NEED NOURISHMENT.—To meet the burden placed upon them at lambing time ewes require proper nutrition now. They should receive from three-fourths to one and one-half lbs. daily of the following grain mixture: 500 pounds of oats; 200 pounds of corn; 100 pounds of bran and 50 pounds of pea-sized oil cake.

WANTED.—Market chickens of all kinds; tankage sold. $1.50 per cwt.—A. M. Reigel, Centre Hall; phone 11-RS.
