

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

George Wolf acquired the business of Joe Kindig, York, for many years a horse and mule dealer in that city. Mr. Kindig died recently at the age of 76 years.

About one hundred of the 1,200 liquor store clerks are due to be placed on furlough today (Thursday) to curtail overhead expenses. There are 240 liquor stores in the State.

Dr. George Thomas, located at Spring Mills, was a caller at this office Tuesday. The doctor is somewhat of a sportsman, as an advertisement appearing over his name indicates.

A day after the heaviest snow of the winter had disappeared, the "beautiful" again began falling on last Thursday evening, covering the earth with a two-inch blanket. Friday was more or less of a blustery nature.

Miss Helen Odenkirk has accepted a position as stenographer in the office of the Belle Telephone Company, Bellefonte. She is a graduate of a Williamsport business college and is considered capable in her line of work.

Hughes Brininger, substituting for Prof. J. F. Wetzel in the local high school, and Miss Cherry Jodon, moved to McClure, on Sunday where the day was spent with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brininger.

George Vogt will vacate the Hennish home, recently purchased by John Ream, and will move into the Picken house which will be vacated by Mrs. H. G. Strohmeier, who will live with her daughter, Mrs. Clayton H. Homan, and family.

An Easter pageant, "Out of the East Garden," will be given in the local Evangelical church, Easter Sunday evening, April 1st. Those who remember the Children's Day pageant of last June will probably enjoy this presentation.

Dr. F. K. White, one of Phillipsburg's prominent residents, has thus far recovered from a major operation at the Phillipsburg State hospital as to return to his home Thursday. That he is getting along so satisfactorily is indeed gratifying to his legion of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder and three interesting children—Charles, Jr., Patti and Barbara—of Sunbury, stopped for a short while with Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, in town, while on their way from Bellefonte where Mrs. Frank D. Irick, Mrs. Snyder's mother, was visited.

Rev. Jacob W. Zang, pastor of the local Evangelical church, has been returned for another year by the Central Pennsylvania Conference of his church. Last Sunday, Rev. Zang had the privilege of preaching in the church which he had attended as a boy, the First United Brethren church in Harrisburg.

Since mentioning that a cardinal was heard piping and seen flitting about at the foot of Nittany Mountain, the Reporter is informed that a pair of the beautifully plumaged birds have been frequently observed in the north section of town during the winter now near its end. The female is not quite as large nor as pretty as her companion.

Forrest Leitzel and two daughters, of Plainfield, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Klomhaus, of Oswego, Ill., were visitors with relatives and friends in the eastern section of the county. They came east to attend the funeral of the late Benjamin F. Stover, of Aaronsburg. The group was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Stover, of Haines township.

On Sunday the birthdays of Mrs. Fred Harvey, of Phillipsburg, and that of her father, Milford Luse, were celebrated at the latter's home in Centre Hall. Mrs. Harvey's birthday fell on Saturday and that of Mr. Luse on Monday, which accounts for Sunday having been selected for both the events. The table was surrounded by the two family groups and Mrs. J. F. Wetzel and Bob Wetzel, neighbors.

An unusual number of tenant farmers are due to fit on April first, or rather a day later, Monday, the second. During the past few years the shift of the tenant farmer in this immediate vicinity was below normal. In the borough there will be about the usual number, which is a small percent of the families, who will be obliged to move. This is due to the fact of the large number of local residents owning their own homes.

Prof. Lester E. Baird, accompanied by his family, recently motored to Pleasant Gap, where he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Baird. The younger Mr. Baird built his education on a foundation laid in the Centre Hall High school. He is now coach of the wrestling team of the Mansfield State Teachers' College, where he is also a professor. His team met the Penn State team on the mat at State College within the past two weeks.

Dr. J. L. Kirkpatrick, of Bellefonte, received word that he had been appointed Centre county director of a dental survey to be made among the county's school children. According to the notification, Dr. Kirkpatrick will appoint each ethical dentist in the county to examine the teeth and mouths of children in designated schools. Since the entire work must be completed by April 1, only about 10 per cent of the pupils in the schools of the county will be examined. The work is national in scope and is sponsored by the government.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A total of 1,643,626 automobile drivers' licenses were issued up to March 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Booser, on Tuesday evening, entertained a number of their friends at a card party.

George E. Meyer, of Boalsburg, was a business caller at this office on Tuesday. He is an experienced paper hanger and is advertising for work in his line.

Clair Hetrick, a member of COC Camp 65, above Colyer, was a weekend guest at the C. A. Spyker home in town. The young man is a native of Huntingdon county and is well known by the Sp Yorkers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ripka and daughter, Miss Sarah, of Harrisburg, motored to Millheim on Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. S. Ripka, following which they came to Centre Hall to spend the night and part of Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kryder. They returned to Harrisburg Sunday evening.

Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Harry W. Patter attended an "at home" Saturday, from 3 to 5 P. M., at Cool Run, given by Mrs. R. J. Wigton and Mrs. H. C. Wilson, of Warriorsmark, at which time the engagement of Mrs. Mary Newlin, the president of Huntingdon Presbyterial, to Dr. Reeves, of Clearfield, was announced. There were seventy-five ladies from all parts of the Presbytery in attendance.

Congressman J. Banks Kurtz, representing this (23rd) congressional district; Benjamin K. Focht, of Lewisburg, representing the 18th district; Robert F. Rich, of Weirich, from the 16th district, voted in opposition to the bill. With Rich on this vote were Deek, Darrow and Stokes, Republicans. In all sixteen Pennsylvania Republicans were among the 255 House members who voted for the bill.

The postmaster at Barnesboro, Lemuel Bosserman, who disappeared following a surprise inspection which showed his postal account short by several thousand dollars, was arrested at Gettysburg a few days later. He had served as postmaster for twelve years.

WHEN you are suffering, you want relief—not tomorrow—not next week—but right away. DR. MILES ANTI-PAIN PILLS relieve in just a few minutes—less than half the time required for many other pain-relieving medicines to act. Next time you have a Headache, or Neuralgia, or Muscular, Sciatic, Rheumatic, or Periodic Pains, just take an Anti-Pain Pill. Learn for yourself how prompt and effective these little pain relievers are. You will never again want to use slower, less effective, less palatable medicines, after you have used Dr. Miles Anti-Pain Pills.

I am much pleased with your Anti-Pain Pills. They sure are wonderful for a headache and for functional pains. I have tried every kind of pills for headache, but none satisfied me as your Anti-Pain Pills have.

Ann Mikitko, St. Benedict, Pa.

A business meeting of the Centre Hall High School Alumni Association was held Tuesday evening for the purpose of reorganizing the association. A special drive is being conducted for new members, and the support and cooperation of all graduates of the local High school will be appreciated. The next meeting of the association is planned for March 30th, when a combined business and social meeting will be held. Dues have been reduced to 25c per year.

ROAD DATA SENT OUT OVER POLICE TELETYPES

The telephone-typewriter system serving more than 100 police units in cities and towns throughout Pennsylvania is being utilized this winter to apprise motorists of highway conditions.

Highway Department bulletins reporting snow-storms, drifts, slippery conditions, and temporary closure of roads are sent over the network to police departments served by the system. This enables motorists to telephone to police authorities to obtain complete information on traffic conditions in any part of the State.
