Historical Facts

[Under this head will appear one or more historical facts of local interest, to a large extent taken from Linn's History of Centre and Clinton Counties, designated for reference as L. H., the figures following indicating page. The "Notes," if any, are those of the editor. The history was written in 1882.]

ANTI-JUG LAW MEETING.

(Continued from last week.) "The chairman, Gen. George Buchanan, stated the object of the meeting and submitted some very appropriate remarks in regard to sumptuary laws enacted in opposition to the express will of the people.

Capt. John Ziegler, from Harrisburg, was then introduced, and spoke for about two and one-half hours. He dwelt ably and eloquently upon the subject of some ministers of the gospel debasing their calling by meddling in politics, calling political meetings and mounding the stump. He clearly explained to them the path which they are commanded to pursue by the Holy Scriptures. While the captain dwelt thus bravely upon this subject, his remarks riveted the attention of the entire assembly, and all seemed to say, "Yes, Captain, you are right." After he got through with the pulpit politician he turned his attention to the temperance movement, which he proved to be a sheer humbug and a matter of speculation by the Maine law advocates, and ably demonstrated the injustice and unconstitutionality of the jug law and all entire prohibitory liquor laws. The Captain's remarks were well received and will leave a favorable and lasting impression upon the audience.

The committee then reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were read, as follows:

Whereas, We regard the late Act of Assembly, restraining the sale of liquor, or the enactment of an entire prohibitory liquor law, as unjust, arbitrary, and unconstitutional, antagonistic in its operations to the best interests of the farmer, and a direct injury upon our rights, and an unwarranted infringement upon our personal, inherent liberties and privileges, bequeathed to us by our Creator, and guaranteed to us by our country's constitution, the noblest fabric of our forefathers;

And, Whereas, to express our disapprobation of the Christian ministry wantonly deserting the sacred desk and aspiring to political office, and their intermeddling in politics and affairs of State, with which the Christian Church has naught to do, inasmuch as such unnecessary and unauthorized intermeddling on their part must inevitably result in a retrogression of the Christian religion; and their example, by the abandoning the responsible post assigned by Almighty God, in surrendering themselves to the dictates of political fanaticism, thereby sowing discord, dissension, and enmity in their congregations, and among their fellow-men, will eventually be the means of overthrowing and entirely destroying the foundation of the Christian faith, and result in the subversion of our republican form of government; therefore,

Resolved, That we are opposed to all class and special legislation, by which a few are benefited at the expense of the many, and the law-making power of the government prostituted to private speculations and gain;

Resolved, That we believe true morality and Christianity are only promoted by moral suasion, and that all attempts to force the people into measures against their will and judgment are pernicious in their consequences, and calculated to breed dissensions and disputes in our midst.

Resolved, That the late Act of Assembly denominated the "Jug Law," although not entirely prohibitory in its character, yet is clearly in opposition to the declared will of the people, besides being a fruitful means of making drunkards by the wholesale.—L. H., page 96.

To the Voters of Centre County:

I am a candidate to succeed myself as a member of the State House of Representatives, subject to the decision of the Republican Primary to be held on May 15th next.

I reaffirm the constitutional and economic principles of the founders of this Nation. Adherence to these principles by the Republican Party has enabled this Nation to surmount every crisis.

I have supported the President in his efforts to cope with the present economic depression by supporting appropriate and coordinating State legislation.

I have recognized the necessity of emergency measures but I warn the people of Pennsylvania that many of the Federal enactments are increasing the indebtedness of this Nation to an alarming degree and that one-tenth of the resulting tax burden must ultimately be paid by the people of Pennsylvania.

All taxes must fall heavily upon the great middle class, of which we are a part, and which comprises the great majority of the citizens of Pennsylvania.

Realizing that the increased Federal burden falls heavily upon our people, I have opposed and will continue to fight to prevent the imposition of new taxes by the State.

I pledge myself to a continuation of the Republican fiscal standards of this State, which have made for good financial housekeeping and have kept our per capita indebtedness at a low mark, pay as you go, and a balanced budget.

I will promote and protect the welfare of Pennsylvania's workers and Pennsylvania's industries.

I favor relief of real estate from its unequal tax load by adequate State appropriations to schools and for construction and maintenance of streets and roads and by the readjustment of the tax system of the Commonwealth so as to effect therein greater equalization of the tax burden.

I feel that I have kept the faith of the people of Centre County. Will appreciate your continued support.

Very truly yours,
