

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Ivy Bartzes, rumor has it, purchased a property at Rebersburg. A young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Homah, living on a farm west of Spring Mills, developed a case of scarlet fever a few days ago. The home has been quarantined. The boy attended school at Spring Mills.

Twenty-four laborers, the foreman, Ralph Shook, and time-keeper, C. F. Auman, and teamsters, but no teams, have been transferred to the Boy Scout project, at Garrity's, in Seven Mts.

A letter to Randall Meyer from Mrs. Meyer, a patient in the Pierce hospital, Buffalo, N. Y., indicates she and the two children are improving.

There will be more than the usual number of fittings in Spring Mills and vicinity between this and April 2nd. A few are noted:

Scott Decker moved into the Horner property purchased a short time ago. Christ Shook, Mr. Decker's son-in-law, will move onto the Decker farm, north of Penn Hall. The Bartzes farm, now owned by the Pittsburgh Lime and Stone Company, where Mr. Shook lived, will be tenanted by George W. Hartner who now lives on the Hartner farm at Stone Mill, in Potter township.

Upper Brush Valley will also have its quota of movings, and among these are noted: Rufus Haugh will move to Madisonburg from his farm, and will be succeeded by his son-in-law, Clarence Miller. George W. Long will occupy the place vacated by Mr. Miller, at Madisonburg.

Robert Rishel, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rishel, at Farmers Mills, will begin housekeeping and farming on the Rev. Carls farm, west of Madisonburg, owned by his widow, Mrs. Carls, who is the mother of Mrs. Rishel. Mr. Rishel is a graduate of Gregg Twp. Vocational School and is generally well equipped to become a farmer.

Lee Vonada vacated the Emma Rachau farm and moved onto the Edward Rachau farm, at Union church. Jay Rachau, son of Mrs. Emma Rachau, will begin farming on his mother's farm. Mrs. Rachau is a daughter of the late J. W. Foreman, and is now teaching the Decker school in Gregg township. Mrs. Emma Rachau will occupy the John Ream (formerly the Dinges) place, close to the east Centre Hall borough line.

Merrill Walker, son of Homer Walker, of State College, will occupy the Emma Rachau home, at Union church.

Other fittings noted are James Smead, from the Martin Stover farm, north of Penn Hall, to the Brockerhoff farm, east of Old Fort, and Clyde Stamm, now on the Brockerhoff farm, to the J. H. Detweiler farm. This latter farm will be vacated by Reuben Hook when he moves to the Laughner place, near Potters Mills.

George Hackett will vacate the A. B. Lee farm and move to the Peacock farm, at Centre Hill, from which Charles Miller will move to become tenant on the Beal farm, now owned by Boyd Spicher, west of Old Fort, where Geo. Lohr is now tenant. Mr. Lohr will go to the Jodon farm, near Pleasant Gap. Clarence Kifer, now on the Laughner farm near Potters Mills, will occupy the A. B. Lee farm.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. George Gentzel were at the parental home, last Sunday, celebrating the 51st birthday of their aged father. The sons are Ambrose, of Shamokin; Roland, of Altoona; and Grover, of Philadelphia; and Miss Carrie, the only daughter, who remains at the home. Mr. Gentzel apparently enjoys good health. Mrs. Gentzel, however, is in a very serious condition, but her mind is clear. Her speech, however, is weak.

G. B. Bitner, District Deputy Grand Patriarch, and staff, installed the officers of Bellefonte Encampment I. O. O. F., last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dukeman, of Clearfield, spent part of Sunday at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. C. C. Bartzes.

Grange Meeting—There was a very interesting and entertaining meeting held in the Grange hall last week by the various Granges in the county. It consisted mostly of a program by members of Howard Grange, which was well rendered. The title was "The Dear Old Farm." First opening song; next, invocation by Chaplain J. L. Herr; reading minutes of last meeting, by Secretary Samuel Pletcher, followed by Lecturer's program; Reading by Mrs. Schneek; reading, by Mrs. Alice Leathers; music, "This morning on the farm," by the Leathers trio; reading by Mrs. Clara Poorman; monologue, "You Don't Mind Dearie, Do You?" by Jane Allston; reading, "The Plenic Grove," by Mrs. Tessie Confer; playlet, "Proposing to Silas," Mrs. Love, Mrs. McCartney and Samuel Leathers; exercise, "The Grange." Presentation of Journal; roll call of Grange. The number present from different Granges were: Spring Mills, 12; Howard, 25; Progress, 25; Logan, 19; Victor, 2; visitors 41; total, 124. Remarks by Worthy Master L. E. Biddle, Worthy Lecturer Ernest Frank; and M. T. Zabler followed closing song, "God be with you till we meet again;" closing prayer by Chaplain, Mrs. W. H. Hettinger.

There was a very fraternal spirit among all present. After the program a very palatable lunch was served.

Historical Facts

[Under this head will appear one or more historical facts of local interest, to a large extent taken from Linn's History of Centre and Clinton counties, designated for reference as L. H., the figures following indicating page. The "Notes," if any, are those of the editor. The history was written in 1853.]

THE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

The county superintendency was established in 1854, and the first officer elected in Centre county was Dr. W. J. Gibson, who served one term at a salary of six hundred dollars.

J. I. Burrell was elected in 1857, and served one term at a salary of eight hundred dollars.

Thomas Hallahan was elected in 1860, and served two terms, receiving $500.00 per annum during the first term, and $600.00 the second. R. M. Magee succeeded Mr. Hallahan in 1866, and served three terms. He received a salary of $700.00 the first year, but it was then raised to $1200.00, and so continued during the remainder of his administration.

Henry Meyer was elected in 1875, at a salary of $1000. He was re-elected in 1878. The amount of salary, which had been up to this period under the control of the school directors, was now regulated by Act of Assembly, fixing that for Centre county at $1500. The present (1882) incumbent, Rev. D. M. Wolf, was elected in 1881.

The County Normal School.

The first annual reports of the county superintendents are replete with complaints about the large number of poor teachers then in the profession. This class of teachers existed, of course, before the superintendency was established, but they were better able to hide their inefficiency for want of thorough inspection by competent officers.

To remedy this evil in Centre county the different academies formed normal classes for the benefit of teachers, and this practice has been continued up to the present time (1883). On the fifteenth of April, 1885, Ira C. Mitchell opened a Normal School at Howard. He had associated with him Prof. A. K. Browne, of New York. This was the first school of this class in the county, but was only temporary. There was no permanent Normal School in Centre until the year 1866, when one was established in Rebersburg by Mr. R. M. Magee during the first year of his superintendency. Mr. Magee held nine annual sessions, six at Rebersburg, in succession, three at Centre Hall. He was assisted in 1866 by A. D. Rowe, subsequently Superintendent in Clinton county; in 1868, by R. W. Bierly; in 1868, 1869, and 1870, by Rev. W. G. Engle and H. Meyer; in 1871 and 1872 by Henry Meyer, in 1873 and 1874 by C. W. Rishel. This school was held in Milesburg in 1875, 1876, and 1877, by Henry Meyer, then county superintendent, assisted by C. L. Gramley. In 1877 was held the 12th annual session, and with it closed the career of the institution. The State Normal School of this district, established at Lock Haven, was opened to students this year, and it was not deemed necessary to continue the County Normal.—L. H., pp. 169-170.

BRADFORD & CO. GROW OUT CHICKS IN THEIR STORE

Bradford & Company, Centre Hall, have an attractive display of fluffy baby chicks which are being grown out from one-day-old stock. These pert youngsters are usually to be seen in a uniform row, going after their feed for dear life.

Only a mash feed called Purina Startena is used in feeding these chicks and they are literally growing by leaps and bounds. adv.x15
