

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Sylvester E. Shager is a patient in the Centre County hospital. Wm. Gruenewald is bringing a load of South Dakota horses to Centre Hall to be sold at public sale Tuesday of next week. See ad. James S. Reish became a resident of Potter township beginning of this month, having moved from near Spring Mills to the Old Fort hotel. A select crowd gave a party at F. H. Ennist's, Potters Mills, Thursday night, in honor of W. A. Faust's birthday. Everyone enjoyed the festivities of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Shultz, Mrs. Donaldson, and Mrs. Viola Wilson and son Warren, all of Marklesburg, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spicker. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Saxton and baby girl, of Greensburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, near town, over the week-end. Mrs. Saxton was formerly Miss Ruth Shreckengast. John A. Martz, long a workman on the L. & T. tracks, has been placed on the P. R. R. relief list. Mr. Martz has been in poor health for a considerable length of time. Paul M. Hoch, of Carlisle, was a week-end guest of Miss Dorothy E. Brown, at Potters Mills, while Miss June Scott, also of Carlisle, spent the week-end with Mrs. George A. Luse. Miss Mary Reiber was at her home here over the week-end, and on Tuesday was graduated from Dr. Sanford's Private Hospital in Jersey Shore, where she spent several years in training for nursing. E. M. Hogge of Phillipsburg, a most delightful gentleman, paid the Reporter a brief visit on Tuesday. He came in the interest of the candidacy of Henry W. Todd, Sr., whose announcement appears in this issue. This week Rev. D. R. Keener and Elder D. K. Keller are attending the 188th annual sessions of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States held in St. John's (Hains) Reformed church, near Wernersville. N. B. Spangler, Esq., of Bellefonte, in ill health for long time, is now a patient at the Phillipsburg State hospital for treatment and a probable operation. His many friends throughout the county will hope for his early recovery. Mrs. John McMullen and son, Jacob, and granddaughters, Misses Ursula and Phoebe, also Elizabeth Fairman, all of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shoop, on Sunday. All returned home the same day except Mrs. McMullen, who will prolong her visit with Mrs. Shoop, her sister. William Bressler, who has been out of the valley since 1916, is at the home of his son, Edward Bressler, at Potters Mills. Mr. Bressler has been with a construction firm doing business in Philadelphia, and seven years ago was seriously injured when a deep ditch caved in in which he was working, necessitating a long period of hospital service in the University Hospital, on whose grounds the accident happened. The following is taken from a column in the Phillipsburg Journal by John M. Fleming: The withdrawal of Frederic G. Hoffer from the Democratic race for Assembly still is very much pending. In event that Hoffer is appointed Collector of Internal Revenue, a job now held by Toner Hugg of Milesburg, he will immediately withdraw gracefully. Otherwise Mr. Hoffer will be in the battle to the bitter end. County Treasurer Robert F. Hunter, who is convalescing from a serious illness, stopped in Centre Hall Friday, for a few minutes' chat with friends, while enjoying a motor ride. While the physical body still leaves much to be desired, Mr. Hunter's mental alertness is up to par. A Rooseveltian Democrat of the first water, his interest in politics is as keen as ever, and his unerring political sense enables him to spot the Simon pure from the "adulterated" class in the Roosevelt camp. Howard J. Thompson, of Curwensville, Clearfield county, one of the several worthy Democratic candidates aspiring to represent the Centre-Clearfield Senatorial district in the legislature in Harrisburg, was a Reporter caller on Tuesday. Mr. Thompson some years ago was a resident of Bellefonte and is now connected with business interests in the county-seat. Referring to State politics, when a caller here, Mr. Thompson expressed confidence in the success of Earle for Governor both at the primary and general elections. The prospects for a good wheat crop in Northumberland, Montour and Columbia counties are not nearly as promising as in Centre and Union counties. This is especially true judging from appearances along the main State highway between here and Bloomsburg, which county seat was visited last Friday. Traveling eastward with F. M. Fisher as a companion, John G. Roseman, at Middleburg; Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Bitner, at Lewisburg; and Mr. and Mrs. S. Irvin Shortis, and Mrs. Shortis' mother, Mrs. Lou Reynolds, were visited. Prof. Shortis is a member of the faculty in the Bloomsburg State Teachers' College, a position he has held for a number of years. Mrs. Reynolds, well known about here, having been a resident of Centre Hall when Mrs. Shortis was born, has changed but little with the years that elapsed since. Dr. and Mrs. Bitner were found in fine spirits, as was also Mr. Roseman, who has discarded all aids to walking except a stick.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

W. L. Jacobs visited his brother, Guy W. Jacobs, and family in Steubenville, Ohio, over the week-end. Rev. S. F. Greenhoe has been confined to bed at his home here since Monday from an undetermined ailment. The Garrett carpenters began work on the Booser Garage Tuesday morning. The brick and block work is laid up to the square. George Reiber, son of Mrs. Della Reiber, of town, was recently promoted to the position of first sergeant in the Quartermaster's Corps, regular army, at Fort Totten, N. Y. H. W. Potter is back in the Hagan Garage office after an enforced vacation of seven weeks due to an ulcer on the right eyeball. The ulcer, it is thought, was due to a slight injury to the eye. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Riegel, on Monday, moved to Pleasant Gap. The couple and their son lived with Mr. Riegel's father, A. M. Riegel. The elder Mr. Riegel, after the sale of household goods on Saturday, will board with Mr. and Mrs. Millard Luse, close to where he now lives. John D. Meyer, of Tyrone, and Henry W. Todd, Sr., of Phillipsburg, were in Centre Hall, last Friday, Mr. Meyer making his friend, Mr. Todd, acquainted with the Democratic voters in the borough. Mr. Todd is a candidate for State Senator for this, the 34th, district of Pennsylvania. Miss Edith Delaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Delaney, south of Earlstown, developed a case of scarlet fever, necessitating quarantining the Delaney home a few days ago. Her condition is regarded as very favorable at this time. Miss Delaney is a Centre Hall high school graduate, class of 1931. Among the sprightly young people who called at this office on Saturday afternoon was Miss Frances Keller, of Milesburg. She is a graduate of the Millersville State Teachers College, class of 1930, and since taught in a public school in Amen, a suburban town of Philadelphia. She is a formal applicant for one of the grade schools here. It is reported a young veterinary surgeon will locate in Centre Hall in the near future. It is said he is from State College and is about to graduate from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. Stockmen about here express the belief that a veterinary surgeon would be appreciated and that sufficient patronage is available to warrant one to locate here permanently. H. D. Drylie, of Wilkesburg, this week entered the employ of the Hosterman & Stover Co., Millheim. Mr. Drylie has recently completed special sales training courses with the General Electric Co. and the Hoover Co., and will represent Hosterman & Stover Co. locally. Mr. and Mrs. Drylie and son David have moved to Millheim and are making their home with Mrs. Drylie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Marsh.

CLARENCE R. KRAMER ANNOUNCES FOR CONGRESS

Clarence R. Kramer, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Clearfield-Centre-Blair District, whose announcement appeared last week in the Centre Reporter, is a native of Clearfield county. He was born in Clearfield borough on April 28, 1893, a son of A. G. Kramer, now the oldest living lawyer of the Clearfield county Bar, and with whom he became a partner in 1918. This partnership continued under the firm name of Kramer & Kramer until his father was compelled by the infirmities of age to relinquish active work. Clarence R. Kramer, as already stated, is a native of this Congressional District as were both his parents and his grandparents before him. His paternal grandfather lived in Centre county for many years. He was a miller by trade, operating numerous gristmills at different places in Centre county. In 1856 he was managing the grist mill at Mt. Eagle, Howard township, when he decided that a somewhat better opportunity awaited him in the adjoining county of Clearfield. Talking with him his family consisting of his wife, two daughters and seven sons, including A. G. Kramer, the father of the subject of this sketch, he moved with his possessions to Lawrence township, near Clearfield borough where he took over the management of what was known locally as the "Red Mill." In this vicinity, A. G. Kramer, the father, grew from the age of twelve years to manhood, married and reared a family of six, his fifth child being Clarence R. Kramer, the present candidate. Mr. Kramer was educated in the Clearfield public schools, graduating from the High school there in 1912. His legal education was acquired at the University of Michigan Law School and in the offices of his father. In February 1918, he was admitted to practice before the courts of Clearfield county and in April of the same year was admitted to practice before the appellate courts of Pennsylvania. Since that time he has been in active and continuous practice and by hard work and diligent effort has acquired for himself a recognized standing at the local bar. Mr. Kramer is widely known for his sympathetic and understanding attitude toward the problems of the rank and file of the citizenry and for his kindly, courteous and considerate dealings both with clients and with opponents in whatever litigation he has been identified with. Aggressive, yet considerate, his circle of clients and friends has continuously widened. Mr. Kramer is married and has one child. He is active in community civic affairs, a member of numerous fraternal organizations and of the Clearfield Volunteer Fire Department. He is attorney for the Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Clearfield county and is solicitor for Clearfield Borough. Always a student of history and government, he is a Democrat by conviction and because he believes in the principles for which his party stands. Yet he has never been narrowly partisan. He has steadfastly maintained that the best principles of any party are those benefiting the largest number of people. As a congressman he would prove dependable and attentive to the best interests of his constituency. He recognizes that never has the need for men of training and judgment been more pronounced than it is now with the immense volume of legislation that is being enacted to further the new deal. His wide experience is an assurance to the people of the district of his fitness for the office. The farm population of the United States had reached an all-time crest of 32,509,000 as of January 1. And many farmers who know the explanation doubtlessly wish that a decline would start in this Spring, the explanation, in large measure, being that sons and daughters, unable to make a go of it in the city, have taken advantage of the assurance of these square meals a day at the parental table, and have brought their families with them.

EXPERIENCE COUNTS The people of the Twenty-third Congressional District are anxious to do what is best for themselves in the approaching Primary Election. They are now seeking information. The great Champ Clark, former Speaker of the House of Representatives, with his wide experience and wisdom, tells them in the following language, to wit: "A man has to learn to be a Representative just as he must learn to be a blacksmith, a carpenter, a farmer, an engineer, a lawyer, or a doctor. "It is unwise for any district to change Representatives at short intervals. A new Congressman must begin at the foot of the class. "No man should be elected to the House simply to gratify his ambition. All Members should be elected for the good of the country." J. Banks Kurtz is the one candidate with legislative experience. He has learned to be a Representative and should be elected for the good of the country. He is now at the head of the Minority of the powerful Judiciary Committee. Any other man would have to begin at the bottom of the class. In these times of stress and trial no one can afford to experiment with inexperience. For your own best interest vote for J. BANKS KURTZ.
