

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

The Democratic Rally at Philipsburg, last Thursday evening, was attended by a number of Democrats from Gregg township, among whom were John W. Decker, who aspires to become the representative in the general assembly from Centre county, Ralph Shook, local chairman; E. T. Jamison, B. G. Meyer, and Guy Jamison, all of whom are active in party affairs.

The fishing contest put on by the Fish and Game Association already has two hot contestants in the persons of Jacob Sharer and Dr. G. C. Thomas, each of whom has landed a trout measuring only a trifle under twenty inches in length. Mr. Sharer has the edge on the doctor as to length by a quarter inch, but on other points no decision has been given.

John W. Decker, dubbed by the newspapers as the farmer-school man among the candidates, is improving his residence. The back portion of the dwelling house is being raised to two story height, which will give the growing family more room and conveniences.

Grover Gentzel, of Harrisburg, visited his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Gentzel, over the week-end. Mr. Gentzel is employed by the railroad company.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Annie Smith recently were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Overly, of Clearfield; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Alexander, of Belleville, and Mr. and Mrs. Windom Granley, Millheim.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rachau, of Sunbury, and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burrows, of York, were guests of the father of the ladies, George N. Wolf, over the week-end.

During the latter part of the week Mrs. Beulah Snavey, widow of Harry Snavey, housekeeper for Mr. Nelson, at Salona, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ripka.

Austin Long was named trustee for H. P. Rossman, bankrupt, and C. P. Long, one of the three appraisers to value the assets.

Mr. and Mrs. Peeler Rossman, of Pittsburgh, visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Rossman.

Miss Freda McCool, from the Laurelton State Village, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James R. McCool, in Georges Valley.

Clarence Breon, son of Willis Breon, was taken to one of the Lewistown hospitals for treatment. John Heckman was the good Samaritan who conveyed the young man to the hospital.

Miss Eva Bailey was chaperon for a group of thirty-eight pupils from the fifth and sixth grades of the Spring Mills schools, last Thursday, on a hike to the Skiles place, along Sinking creek. The children much enjoyed the outing with their teachers.

A class of girls in the Methodist-Reformed Sunday school taught by Miss Gladys Zeigler, hiked to the John W. Zerby hospitable farm home where on arriving Mrs. Wayde Fink became their hostess. The young people had a most delightful outing and enjoyed to the fullest extent the refreshments served. To most of Mrs. Fink's associates this occasion afforded them the first opportunity to congratulate her upon her marriage, on March 24, which only became publicly known a few days previous. Mrs. Fink prior to her marriage was Miss Bessie Zerby.

Blaine Bitner autored to Millheim recently and while there visited with O. A. Jamison, and Thomas Stover. His prime object in going there was to bring to Spring Mills the I. O. O. F. Grandmaster, Mr. Daugherty, who spoke to lodge members Friday night.

Mrs. Harold Meyer, whose illness was previously mentioned, is improving but is yet confined to her home.

Elmer Houtz was here for a few days demonstrating one of the new type of cars, Pau Krape, of Aaronsburg, employed as a book-keeper in Bellefonte, was also a business visitor here.

One of the children of Abraham Graefmyer, who recently moved into the home vacated by James S. Reish, near here, is a scarlet fever patient.

A Democratic rally will be held in the Grange hall on Friday evening in the interest of the State, District and county candidates endorsed by State, District and County Democratic committees. All of the candidates for congress, senate and legislature so endorsed are expected to be present. The Earle-for-Governor campaign committee in Gregg township is composed of Messrs. H. S. Lambert, North; John W. Condo, South; Jacob C. Lee, West.

The Spring Mills Fish and Game Association was busy on Monday caring for a large number of small brook and rainbow trout on hand, and preparing for large consignments due sometime during the week. From Federal hatcheries eleven cans (1000 to a can) of brook trout and three cans rainbow trout were looked for on Tuesday, and on the 10th sixty cans of brook fingerlings are expected to arrive. The first consignment, that from the Federal hatcheries, will be cared for in the troughs at the rearing pools, and the May 10 consignment from State hatcheries will be planted in the small tributaries mostly in the mountains, to the well known trout streams in Penna Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gramley, of Millheim, spent Sunday visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haney, of Rising Sun, Md., were visiting sisters of Mrs. Haney over the week-end, and on Sunday were accompanied to Millheim by Mrs. Mabel Smith, Mrs. Paul Grove and Miss Bernice Smith, to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. Terry Haney, the former a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haney.

Don't forget the political meeting at the Grange hall, Friday evening.

There was a very interesting meeting at the local lodge of Odd Fellows. The following is a list of those present: Grand Master Daugherty, of Hazel Glenn Lodge No. 1043; Lester Bobb, D. D. G. M. of Millheim county; D. D. G. M. Wm. L. Steel, of S. District of Centre county; Fred Yorks, of N. District of Centre county. There were four present from Millroy lodge No. 213; 10 from Millheim No. 955; 8 from Centre Hall lodge; 31 members of the home lodge; 2 from Bald Eagle No. 410; one from Snow Shoe Lodge and one from State College Lodge.

Coleman Safety Instant-Gas

MODEL No. 941

We extend you a cordial invitation to come in and see the new Coleman Instant-Gas Ranges for 1934. In all the world no stoves like these. See how they bring New Beauty to Your Kitchen; how they make it easy to have Better Cooked Foods for Your Table; how they make and burn their own gas . . . bring you real gas cooking service wherever you live.

SEE the amazing new Band-A-Blu Burner, one of the greatest improvements ever made in liquid fuel stoves. See the new Dial Type Safety Carburetor Valve. See the clear-blue, smokeless cooking flame. See how these stoves light instantly . . . just like city gas. You'll like the new modern finishes, the pleasing color combinations. You'll like the concealed fuel tanks on all range models. . . tanks that are rust, acid and corrosion-proof, because they are made of the new patented Everdur metal. You'll be surprised at how easy, safe and economical these stoves are to operate.

It Makes and Burns Its Own Gas and Lights Instantly

THE NEW BAND-A-BLU BURNER This new burner found only on the Coleman, produces a flame that is clean, and smokeless. . . does not blacken pots or pans. It gives you 20 per cent greater heating efficiency than previous high-powered Coleman burners; cuts fuel costs one-fifth.

Dial Type Safety Carburetor Valve

produces gas instantly from any good grade of untreated motor fuel. It works like a snap switch—insures safe, easy and positive operation.

SEE THE MANY NEW MODELS Various types suited to every cooking need and every purse. COME IN during this Special Demonstration.
