

EARLE TO MAKE FACT-FINDING TOUR OF EVERY COUNTY

Having in mind the priceless information he had secured of the affairs of Austria in his "swing around the circle," George H. Earle, immediately after winning the Democratic nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania, began formulating plans for a similar tour through his native State.

The gubernatorial candidate will return to this country, with his family on July 12. Three days after his arrival he will embark on another "swing around the circle" in Pennsylvania.

Every one of the 67 counties will be visited. Speechmaking will be eliminated. County chairmen will arrange conferences with political and industrial leaders of their county. Farmers, educators, professional and business men will be invited to talk to the "next Governor."

Officers of Democratic clubs, leaders of independent groups and members of county and division committees in each county, will be given an opportunity to give to the Democratic choice for Governor their notion of what should be done for their "ack of the woods."

Five days of each week, beginning July 15, will be devoted to the motor tour of the State. The quest for information will be ended in the early part of October.

A two-fold result will be obtained. In the major part of the campaign, Candidate Earle will be in a position to discuss local issues intelligently with his audiences.

Governor Earle, after his election, will have complete knowledge of the needs of his constituents in every nook and corner of the Commonwealth.

Colley S. Baker, Earle's campaign manager, is preparing the schedule for the State-wide tour, which will be provided for newspaper correspondents who will accompany the party.

At noon they enjoyed a picnic dinner. After dinner all who wished it were taken for a canoe ride after which those who had the permission of their parents enjoyed bathing and wading in the pool. At 4:30 they boarded the truck for Centre Hall.

NEW ENROLLMENTS FOR CCC CORPS; $30.00 PER MO.

The Director, Emergency Conservation Work, Washington, D. C., has authorized additional enrollments in the Veterans' Contingent Civilian Conservation Corps, during the period of July 1 to July 31, 1934, to fill existing vacancies in the Work camps.

Any veteran of the World War, Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection and Boxer Rebellion, who is physically able to do ordinary labor in a Work Camp, is eligible for enrollment. Any War veteran interested should write at once for an application. No one is being "drafted" for the Emergency Conservation Work and to have one of these jobs is a privilege. Application is voluntary. No one should apply unless he is ready to fit into camp life with a group of two hundred men and give his best efforts to the job.

The applicant will receive food, clothing and shelter in camp for a period of six months. In addition, he will receive a minimum cash allowance of $20.00 per month, three-quarters of which should be allotted to dependents.

Any interested war veteran should forward his name and address to the Manager, Veterans' Administration, 33rd and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. for an application and any additional information regarding enrollment in the Veterans' Contingent Civilian Conservation Corps.

SECOND SESSION DAILY BIBLE SCHOOL COMES TO CLOSE

The second session of the Daily Vacation Bible school came to a close Sunday evening with the demonstration held in the Evangelical church. Those present were very much pleased with the progress the children had made.

The standard course requires five weeks for completion. As the local school only holds sessions for three weeks, this work has been arranged so that it may be completed in two years. The objectives are to acquaint the children with the make-up of the Bible, to familiarize them with the Bible lore and to give them an appreciation of particular passages.

In the devotional period, the effort was made to inculcate in them a spirit of worship.

Fifty-five children completed the work of this year. Every local denomination was represented by two or more scholars. The teachers were: Kindergarten: Mrs. Zang, Evelyn Hess, Primary: Ruth Zang, Ruth Hartley, Isabel Bradford; Junior: Rev. J. W. Zang, Angeline Hess, Rev. Russell, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted during a short absence of Rev. Zang.

A festival will be held Saturday evening, July 7, on the lawn of the Evangelical church for the purpose of making up the deficit incurred in the conduct of the school. All parents and friends of the children are asked for their support.

SIXTY-FOUR HAPPY YOUNGSTERS LEFT CENTRE HALL ON FRIDAY FOR THEIR ANNUAL BIBLE SCHOOL PICNIC AT HECLA PARK.

BELLEFONTE WOMAN TAKES OWN LIFE, ON SUNDAY

Mrs. Louise Garber, aged 54 years, was found dead in bed Sunday morning by her sister, Mrs. George E. Thompson, with whom she made her home. A revolver was beside her, and a self-inflicted bullet wound had caused her death.

It is believed that ill health and worry of depreciation of investments, which would have left her entirely dependent, caused the act.

Private funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Thompson, who is her only survivor, by Rev. Stuart Galt; interment in Union cemetery.

LIGHTNING BOLT KILLS 8-YR-OLD BOY AT MILESBURG

When Dean noticed that he had dropped his swimming suit he started to retrace his steps in an effort to find it, while his companions continued on their way home.

HELP CRIPPLED CHILDREN.

The Centre and Clearfield Crippled Children's Society held a meeting at the Phillipsburg State Hospital, Wednesday evening of last week, at which Dr. Lee L. Driver, director of Rural Education for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, was the chief speaker.

The report for the year 1933 was presented to the society by Miss Anna Lauman, superintendent of nurses at the Phillipsburg State Hospital, and Secretary of the Society. During the year 591 examinations were made, 53 operations performed, 57 casts applied, 65 X-ray pictures taken and 940 hospital days for the crippled children.

The total amount spent for the year was $9,411.50. Of this amount $44.92 was contributed by the clubs and organizations of Centre and Clearfield counties.

Already in the current year there has been $254.16 contributed, indicating that the sum total for 1934 will exceed the previous year by a substantial sum.

Prior to the meeting an excellent dinner contributed by Senator H. B. Scott, president of the Pennsylvania Society, to about fifty persons, was served.

Any one desiring to aid this association will have a fine opportunity to do so by purchasing "Help Crippled Children" stamps, which may be secured from Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. W. V. ### JUNIATA VALLEY SCOUT CAMP IN 7 MTS. NOW OCCUPIED

The Boy Scout Camp in Seven Mountains, recently erected through CWA and PWA aid by the Juniata Valley Boy Scouts Council, has been occupied by troops since the 14th. The location is a mile east of the concrete State Highway along the Garrity road. The plot contains ninety acres and has been leased for a period of ninety-nine years with the privilege of purchasing at the expiration of the lease for a nominal sum.

The council's authority extends over the forty-five troops in Centre, Millifin, Juniata and Huntingdon counties. At the present time these troops, are made up of nine hundred twenty Scouts, and three hundred seventeen Scout Masters and troop committeemen.

The investment represents $21,500, the funds having been contributed as follows:

Council, cash ..... $1,900.00
Material donated ..... 2,500.00
Three allotments from CWA and PWA—
First allotment ..... 13,800.00
Second allotment ..... 3,900.00
Third allotment ..... 12,000.00
Total ..... $31,500.00

The most pretentious structure on the grounds is the dining hall, around which in a general way the villages are built. To the south is Pioneer Village, with its seven cabins with open fronts, arranged to accommodate twenty-eight troopers; Kit Carson Village has four cabins 10x20, with a total capacity of thirty-two; to the north is the Indian Village, where provision is made for twenty-four tepees, sixteen feet in diameter.

Troop Four, Lewistown, headquarters are located in a handsome stone structure below the dam on the north side of the stream.

Garrity Run, with its source back of the Rayon camp, three-fourths mile distant, flows quietly through a ravine in the camp site. A breast built of clay and riprapped with mountain stone extends from bank to bank, forming a dam approximately 120 feet wide at the breast, with a depth of eleven feet, and extending back more than a thousand feet. A beautiful spill-way built of dressed mountain stone for its sides and closely laid natural stone for the bottom, carries the overflow back to the natural bed of the stream some distance below the breast. The dam has an area of between two and three acres, and on it now are two canoes and two row-boats, all new. More boats are to be added.

Other buildings than troop quarters are a hospital, 10x14 feet, stone; administration building, 16x28 feet, stone; caretaker's home, a handsome stone structure, 24x30 feet. This is located to the left of the Garrity roadway, as one approaches the camp from the west, and is immediately opposite the first Boy Scout log cabin, 15x20 feet, of long standing. Mr. and Mrs. Ab. Rider are the caretakers. Close to the dam is also a pavilion 15x22 feet with modern out-door fire-places.

Kenyon Wooden is the Scout executive, and Dick Weaver, of State College, is in charge of the camp programs.

The troopers are assessed a fee of $4.50 per week for food, which, of course, includes preparation and serving. All overhead is taken care of by the council. The troopers remain in camp from one to four weeks.

CONDITIONS BAD IN NORTH DAKOTA, WRITES SUBSCRIBER

Antler, N. D., June 18, 1934.
"Editor Reporter: Enclosed please find P. O. money order for $1.50 to pay for another year's subscription to the Reporter. I have taken the paper so long that I don't want to give it up now."

"We have had a very dry and hot spring. The month of May was the hottest on record in North Dakota—99 to 110 in the shade—while the sandstorms were something terrible for more than two months, so about all we got done was to clean up sand for there is no way to keep it out of the house. We had no rain at all except a light shower on the 29th of May, but an hour after it fell no one could tell it had rained; the ground was so hot and dry that the rain just dried up. We had planted lots of garden seeds, but they could not grow."

"On the 4th of June we had a nice steady rain; on the 7th we had another good rain and a few light showers since that, but we need lots more."

"There are plenty of grasshoppers again this year; most everybody is busy putting out poison for the pests. Last year they were very bad, and ate up everything that was green except the tomatoes. They did not like them, so we had some tomatoes to use and that was about all we got out of two large gardens, except a few potatoes and a few small squash."

"There was no harvest as the 'hoppers took all the grain, and the hay was a very poor crop. The hay will be very short this year again. Most of the wheat and oats was blown out by the sand storms, so there will not be much of a harvest this year.—so what is to become of the needy poor in the Northwest, and goodness knows there are lots of poor people around here since we have had four years of crop failures, but the last one was the worst one of all. We were in hopes this year would be better; if we only had plenty of rain, all would be different."

Sincerely yours,
"MRS. MARY H. PRICE."

CRUST—ARMSTRONG.

Carl Crust, of Bellefonte, and Miss Winifred Armstrong, of State College, were united in marriage at the Catholic rectory, State College, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. Owen Gallagher. The groom is employed in the Parish drug store, while the bride has held a position for a year or more in the Walgreen drug store at State College. She is a daughter of Mrs. Virginia Fredericks, of Boalsburg, and attended high school in Centre Hall when the family lived at Colyer, four years ago.

The young couple expect to begin housekeeping in Bellefonte.

DUST OR SPRAY BEANS, TO SAVE FROM BEETLES

To save beans from damage by the destructive Mexican beetles spraying or dusting with a quick-acting arsenical is practically imperative according to County Agent R. C. Blaney.

Dusts recommended for use on the bean vines can be made with 1 pound of high-grade calcium arsenate and 7 pounds of hydrated lime or 1 pound of magnesium arsenate and 5 pounds of hydrated lime.

"Prepare the materials in a dust mixer. This poison should be dusted on the under sides of the leaves on a calm day. Four or five treatments ten days apart are considered sufficient. After picking, the beans should be thoroughly washed."

Some gardeners prefer to use a non-arsenical material which is not poisonous to humans. Non-metallic poisons, such as pyrethrum, Derris, or cube powder can be used where available, according to the manufacturer's recommendations. The active principle in these materials is rotenone which can be expected to give reasonable control.

JUNE.

As the seasons fly, on wings of time,
And the months pass only too soon,
There's none we regret the passing so much
As the beautiful month of June.

O, June, the glorious month of roses
And countless varied flowers
That bloom for the high and lowly
Amid the spring-time bowers.

It is June, when the bride in her splendor
Is adorned for the choice of her heart,
With a wreath of blossoms on her brow,
As from home and kin she doth part.

It is June, when the child is most happy
While engaged in his work or play;
When the Sabbath too slowly approaches,
For it is also their CHILDREN'S DAY.

So ye who pass on thru this life,
And roam so blindly about,
Could crush and suppress its splendor,
Would cause "The stones to cry out."

For all nature's resplendent in beauty,
And as bright as the sun at high noon;
So, welcome these God-given gifts to man
In this beautiful month of June.

—Verna Breen Hackenberg, Rebersburg, Pa.

More than 100,000 young men will be recruited throughout the nation before July 1 to bring the Civilian Conservation Corps up to full strength, replacing men who are being dropped under the rule which permits no man to remain in the corps more than a year.

A party of Pittsburgh sportsmen, including Robert L. Mullen, well known in Centre Hall, and C. A. Despite the claims of some who measured last week's heavy rainfall in crocks, or what have you, asserting said receptacles to have been full to overflowing, only a fraction over two inches of rain fell. U. S. Government meteorological stations at Bellefonte, State College and Centre Hall all recorded from 2 to 2 1/4 inches of rainfall, and upon this information you can depend. When some one tells you we had a 6- or 8-inch rainfall, all you need to say to him is, "Don't tell me, I know it," for know it you surely will.
