GRAND COULEE DAM, SPOKANE,
YEAR AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

A copy of the Spokane (Wash.) Daily Chronicle, forwarded to this office by Malcolm D. Fleming, a former Centre Hall youth, devotes a section to the immensity and usefulness of the Grand Coulee Dam, now under construction, due to a measure signed by President Roosevelt, April, 1933, appropriating $63,000,000.

The dam will have a total of approximately 2,664,000 horsepower, or almost 800,000 more horsepower than the Boulder dam, which has a rated capacity of 1,835,000 horsepower.

Great quantities of steel are being used, the amount being as much as is consumed in the construction and equipment of the battleship New York.

Enough concrete will be used in the dam to build an 18-foot concrete highway from Spokane to Pittsburgh, Pa., and have a bit left over for short side roads.

Boalsburg.

Perry Sweet, of Butler, is enjoying a few weeks' vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Sweet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Neff and baby daughter, of Susquehanna county, attended services in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. John Fisher of Bellefonte, and Miss Hattie Kaup, of Philadelphia, spent Wednesday among friends in town, the home of their girlhood years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGarner, of State College, were in town Sunday evening.

Mrs. Dora Malcede, for several years in charge of the late Dr. Woods' home is visiting Mrs. W. W. White at Linden Hall, expecting to return to Lewistown in the near future.

Edwin Bemer, of State College, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. G. Willis Houtz, on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner and Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Harkins and sons John and Wm., of State College, were in town early Saturday morning. The party were enroute to New Bloomfield and Blaine to visit friends for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dornis and sons, Chester and Samuel, of Dornis, were visitors at the home of Henry Reitz, on Sunday.

David Stuart, of Crafton, is spending some time at the home of his mother, Mrs. E. E. Stuart.

Miss Rachel Segner, accompanied by sister, Miss Mary, and Dr. Schermer, of State College, went to Altoona on Saturday morning to undergo a rather serious foot operation, returning late Saturday night. Miss Segner has since been confined to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Atherton and sons, of Numedia, are spending the week at the home of Mrs. Margaret Kuhn. Mr. Atherton is attending the Vocational Teachers' Conference at State College.

We are glad to announce that Mrs. Mabel Smith, who had a severe tick spell last week, is improving very nicely.

Mrs. H. S. Meyer and two daughters, Nancy Jane and Lois Marie, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Meyer's mother, Mrs. Carrie Binkbine, at Berryville, Va.

Deaths

McCLELLAN.—After an illness from complications extending over a long period of time, Frank J. McClellan passed out of this life Saturday night at 10:00 o'clock, following one or more strokes of paralysis during the twenty-four hours preceding.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, assisted by Rev. M. C. Drumm, at the home and the Lutheran church, the deceased having been a member of that denomination.

The deceased was a son of Joseph and Eliza Middleworth McClellan, and was born April 8, 1880, at the McClellan homestead at Tusseyville, making his age 54 years, 2 months and 23 days.

He is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Tessie Irene Wagner, and two sons, Wilbur H. and Vincent G.; also by these brothers and sister: Robert, of Linden Hall; Elmer R., and Harry A., and Mrs. H. W. Frantz, Centre Hall, R. D., and Charles, of Millheim.

When eighteen years old the deceased went to Valparaiso, and took up the study of telegraphy. He found his first employment at Manhattan, Illinois, on the Wabash system. In 1905 he married while working on the Beech Creek Division of the New York Central, at Glenn Hope, Clearfield county. He located in Centre Hall in 1914, where he engaged in various occupations and businesses, in the meantime building a substantial home, where he died.

ORNDORF.—Mrs. Sadie Jane Orndorf, widow of the late Charles Orndorf, who was the victim of a running accident about five years ago, died at her home at Woodward, aged 65 years, 2 months and 22 days.

She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Wm. G. Orndorf, of Glen Iron; Howard A., of Rebersburg; John C. and Paul C., both of Woodward; Ralph M., of Camp Meade, Md.; Charles F., at home; Mrs. Harry Wolf, of Millmont; Mrs. Charles Arney, of Millmont, and Mrs. Foster Confer, of Loganton. Also by these brothers and sisters: Isaac Catherman, of Bradford; Ohio; Jesse Catherman, of Beaver Springs, and Mrs. Greene Shively, of Millmont.

Interment was made at Woodward.

DINGES.—Cloyd Dinges, who was engaged in milling along Pine Creek, died in the Centre County hospital at Bellefonte last Wednesday morning, after spending two weeks in that institution with a severe case of typhoid fever.

Deceased was a son of Jonathan and Harriet (Geary) Dinges and was born in Coburn, on January 18, 1873, 56 years ago.

He was married to Miss Lydia Corman, who survives with the following children: Russell Dinges, who is operating the mill at home; Paul Dinges, also at home, and Vera, wife of Lowell Stover, of Aaronsburg. Also surviving are a brother, Frank, living west of Millheim, and the following half-brothers and half-sisters: Milt Dinges, of Kalamazoo, Mich.; Mrs. J. L. Whitmyer, of Muncy, Ind.; Mrs. C. H. Breon, of Millheim, and W. W. Braucht, of near Coburn.

WOLF.—John Pierce Wolf died in the Centre County hospital, Friday night, after having been a patient there for two days from typhoid fever. He was a resident of near Woodward and engaged in farming. Private funeral services were held Monday afternoon, with burial in the Georges Valley.

MARTZ CRACKS OUT TWO HOMERS
AS LOCALS DEFEAT KATO, 10-2

[Reported by Hugh Morrow, Jr.]
With Paul Martz cracking out two home runs to lead the pack, Centre Hall had a field day at bat last Saturday, to win an easy victory over Kato 10-2, on the losing team's field.

Durst went the route for the locals, fanning nine and allowing but three hits. Knarr hit three singles, Goodhart doubled twice, Brininger hit for three bases, and Bradford, K. Frank and Durst each connected for a single, bringing Centre Hall total to eleven hits for the game.

But one error is recorded for the game, committed by Kato's first baseman, Liso. Goodhart, playing right field for Centre Hall, had an assist, throwing out a runner at first from his position in the outfield. Box score:

MILLHEIM DOWNS LOCALS HERE
1-0 IN HARD-FOUGHT PLAYOFF

Millheim's baseball club definitely established itself a contender for the championship of the first half of the season, when it defeated Centre Hall 1-0 in a hard-fought game on the local diamond Tuesday evening.

Rebersburg leads the league, with 14 wins and but a single loss, and the victory over Centre Hall brought Millheim's total of wins to 13, as against 2 losses.

Pastorius, diminutive southpaw on the mound for Centre Hall, fanned thirteen in the 7-inning contest, and allowed but two hits, but his brilliant pitching was to no avail as far as winning the game was concerned. Stover was the only Centre Hall player to hit safely off the delivery of Amuller, and five of the locals fanned. With the same pitchers, 3½ innings of this game, originally scheduled for last Thursday, were played on that day before the teams were chased from the diamond by rain, with the score deadlocked at 2-2.

The only run of the play-off game on Tuesday was scored by "Sus" Miller, who tripled in the third, and scored on an attempted squeeze play, when his teammate, Brown, attempted to bunt Pastorius's offering but missed entirely, and then stepped aside to let Miller slide in to the plate, untouched by Stover's attempt to tag him, until he had reached home.

Three games remain to be played during the first half, and the fight for supremacy of the league for this half has resolved itself into a race between Millheim and Rebersburg, with the latter holding a one-game lead. The two contenders for first place meet at Millheim, July 4.

Centre Hall again plays Millheim this Saturday, and the second-placers meet Boalsburg today (Thursday). Rebersburg has a tilt with Kato today, and one with Lamar Saturday, before they meet Millheim on Independence Day.

GRUENWALD HORSE SALE
MONDAY; 28 ANIMALS SOLD
The William Gruenwald horse sale on Monday attracted many buyers, consequently the bidding was spirited although the attendance at the sale was much below that at previous sales. Busy season on the farm accounted for falling off in attendance.

The animals offered—twenty-six horses, a colt and a pony—were sold for a total of $3454, or an average of $132.25, a few dollars over the average of the last sale. The high team sold for $355.00, and the high individual horse for $147.50.

The horses were judged to be an unusually good lot, indicating that the purchaser was the man to profit.

It is said on good authority that Mr. Gruenwald will hold another sale in the near future.
