Deaths

SHIRES.—The following is reprinted from the Johnstown Democrat of June 30th, kindly forwarded here by Warren S. Krise, a Johnstown Alderman, well known to many of our readers:

Mrs. Anna Flora Rager Shires, for more than 40 years a resident of Johnstown, died at 3:15 a. m. at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Roshon, Butler.

During the last ten years Mrs. Shires had been spending the winter and spring months in Washington, D. C., and arrived at Butler June 10, having visited locally before going to the Roshon home.

Mrs. Shires was the widow of Jas. W. Shires, who died in June, 1920. A daughter, Mrs. Park M. Griffith, died in February, 1920. In addition to her daughters, Mrs. Shires is survived by a brother in Ohio, a sister, Mrs. Wentz, Lewisport, and several grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Anna Roshon, 631 Serman street, with burial in Grandview cemetery.

Mrs. Shires was reared by an aunt, Mrs. McCullough, who when she lived in Centre Hall occupied the home where P. H. Luse now lives. Mr. Shires was reared on a farm a short distance east of Potters Mills.

CONFER.—Mrs. Abbie S. Confer died at her home at Spring Mills, R. D. Sunday July 1, from a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Emanuel and Susanna Schreckengast and was born at Logan Mills 62 years ago. She is survived by her husband, Ezra C. Confer, a son and a daughter, Paul W. Confer, Spring Mills, and Mrs. Eva Crater, Centre Hall, R. D. Two brothers and a sister also survive, Wesley and Luther Schreckengast, of Logan Mills, and Mrs. Ellen Sheets, of Williamsport.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Sugar Valley church. Interment in the Sugar Valley cemetery.

BURRELL.—Mrs. Susan Burrell, widow of Wm. Burrell, died at her home near Millheim, Sunday, July 1, from complications. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Duck and was born in Gregg township 77 years ago. She is survived by a son and a daughter. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning in charge of Rev. Louis Lesher, burial in Heckman cemetery, Gregg township.

MILLER.—Rebecca Jane Miller, wife of George R. Miller, died on the last day of June, from complications, at the age of 84 years, 3 months and 18 days. She was born in Sugar Valley and was a daughter of Jacob Shultz. She is survived by a daughter, Anna Mae Miller, of Rebersburg, and two brothers and a sister: J. Frank Shultz, Rebersburg; Charles Shultz, Farmers Mills, and Anna M. Shultz, Loganton.

Funeral services were held July 5th with burial at Rebersburg, Rev. J. A. Weaver officiating.

ROBINSON.—Herace C. Robinson, aged 86, died at his home in Milesburg with a complication of diseases. He is survived by his wife and two sons and two daughters; Dr. G. A. Robinson, Bellefonte; Elwood and Harriet, of Milesburg; and Mrs. H. L. Harley, of Atlantic City, N. J. One brother also survives, Wm. Robinson, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral services were held at the home, in charge of the Rev. David Neilson, pastor of the Church of Christ, of Blanchard. Burial was made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

The deceased and family, a number of years ago, lived in Centre Hall.

MULBARGER.—Mrs. Ruth Tressler Mulbarger, aged 43, of Pleasant Gap, died at the Centre County hospital following a gall stone operation. She was a daughter of Isaac and Margaret Lowrie Tressler and was born at Spring Creek. Her husband, Irvin Mulbarger, survives along with four children, all at home. She is also survived by her parents, two brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services were held at the home, in charge of Rev. R. C. Dershen, pastor of the Methodist church at Pleasant Gap. Interment was made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.
