Lewisburg will celebrate its sesquicentennial May, 17, 18 and 19, 1935.

The Loysville Orphan band gave a concert Monday evening on the campus, State College.

Mrs. Luse, widow of Malcolm A. Luse, of Johnstown, is a guest of the P. H. Luse family, in town, and will also visit the L. L. Smith family in Bellefonte before returning home.

Mrs. W. F. MacMorran and daughter, Bettie Jane, accompanied the J. H. Knarr family to Waynesboro, where Mr. Knarr is a foreman in CCC Camp No. 70, for a week's outing.

Rev. John K. Wetzel and wife, of Tremont, and Miss Mary Singley, of Bryn Mawr, spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Wetzel. The former is a cousin of Prof. Wetzel.

Taylor Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter, and his cousin, Isabel Musser, the latter of Rock Springs, were small school children to have their tonsils removed. Dr. J.V. Foster having been the operating surgeon.

In making a remittance to the Reporter, J. C. Reahn, who conducts a variety store in Buchanan, Michigan, date of 17th inst., says: "We are having real hot weather here in Michigan, but nice showers recently. Crops are looking fine."

Miss Tillie P. Keller, former employe in the local post office, now of North Wales, is spending the remainder of July and the month of August with the Rev. Ward K. Shultz family, at Ocean Grove, N. J., where they have rented a cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore and Miss Miriam Moore on Saturday morning drove to Elysburg, where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crowl, of Elysburg. The party then proceeded to Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., where the week-end was delightfully spent.

The fish supper served in the social rooms of the Reformed church on Saturday evening was a success financially. The fish were caught in Chesapeake Bay, and it is said some of the fishermen made a real sacrifice in doing so, having "given up" all that they had.

Judge Fleming decreed that State College had no need of dividing the borough into four wards, taking the attitude of the majority of the commissioners appointed to investigate the question, that wards in small boroughs were out of date, and liable to create a factional spirit, etc.

Mrs. Edward Durst continues to improve after an operation in Altoona for enlarged joints back of both great toes. She is being waited on by Mrs. Mary Edmondson, R. N., of Altoona. O. D. Edmondson, husband of the nurse, and daughter Bettie Jane, are also at the Durst home at present.

Winning a ball game off Rebersburg on Saturday put the home team on the upper score with a percentage of 800, none better to date. Boalsburg, the only team with a hundred per cent. rating, lost its first game on Saturday. The toping teams now are Centre Hall, Millheim, Bellefonte, Boalsburg, but today's games are likely to make some changes.

Renaud Fisher, six years old, son of Blair Fisher, of Union township, died in the Centre County hospital on Wednesday of last week, from the effects of a fractured skull, broken arm and leg. The lad was hit by a truck owned by Max Gamble and driven by Charles Monnell, Bellefonte. The boy is said to have run in front of the truck from behind a hay wagon.

Russell Glasgow, aged 26, of Benner township, is in the Centre County hospital suffering from a fractured ankle and a partially crushed leg received in a mishap while working at Gatesburg on Thursday morning. Glasgow, employed at a lumber camp at Gatesburg, was chopping down a tree and the tree in falling rolled against him, painfully injuring him.

Mrs. Elsie Sankey and daughter, Miss Jessie Sankey, of Millheim, were brought to Centre Hall Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, whose guests they will be for a week. Mrs. Sankey and Mrs. Fisher are cousins. She is the widow of D. William Sankey, who died about a year ago. Mr. Sankey, during his active business life was well known through this section as the maker of "Sankey's Life of Leather," a product on the shelves of many country stores.

Mrs. J. A. Ullom and three lovely little children—Bettie, Joe and William—of Pontiac, Michigan, arrived here in the Greyhound bus, on Friday, after an absence from home for five years. Mrs. Ullom, before marriage, was Miss Pearl McKinney, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. McKinney, at the State House, Seven Mountains, where she and her children will be guests for some time. Mr. Ullom is employed by the Fisher Body company, in Pontiac, in the material department.

The Harrisburg morning Telegraph, in a recent issue, printed a picture of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Heim, 1522 South Twelfth Street, Harrisburg, and their daughter, Mrs. Pearl Schaeffer, and Mrs. Heim's mother, Mrs. J.B. Hess, also Mr. Heim's sister, Mrs. Colyer, and husband, W. F. Colyer, and sons, Eugene and Russell, and daughter, Miss Evelyn, of Centre Hall, together with several other relatives. The occasion was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Heim which was fittingly celebrated at the Heim home. A son, Merrill, was not in the picture. Mr. Heim is a railroad man and was advanced to a passenger engineer prior to the slump in business.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Shattuck, of State College, on Monday evening, paid a brief visit to their aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs.

Farmers who have thrashed wheat report the yield favorable, the returns being as much as twenty and twenty-five bushels per acre. The yield per wagon load is also reported very fair. Of course, there are many farms where the yield will be much below the figures reported here.

Mrs. John Rowe and young son, John Rowe, Jr., of Atlantic City, N. J., are being entertained by Mrs. J. S. Rowe, mother-in-law of the former. The Reporter office was an interesting place for the well-mannered and observing youth from Atlantic City, who came here on an errand for his grandma, on Tuesday morning.

Word was received at the Packer-Brooks home Monday forenoon that a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, of Orangeville, in the Bloomsburg hospital. The little lady, weighing six big pounds, has been named Dolores Susan. The mother was formerly Miss Dorothy Packer, daughter of Prof. L. O. Packer.

L. L. Smith, of Bellefonte, is spending a considerable portion of his time on his farm in Brush Valley. He is being annoyed to some extent by hemorrhages of the nose, but is not letting that interfere more than necessary with his work. He has very materially improved his farm in appearance and productivity since coming into possession of it.

Prof. L. O. Packer, who is off on a pleasure and educational trip through the Rockies, sends this message from Boulder, Colorado: "We are surely having a delightful trip. Had a snow ball battle the other day on Lookout Mountain. On the Lookout road one may look down on the roadway over which one has traveled and marvel at its exciting loops and curves and watch the cars from dizzy heights traveling over it."

Paul Martz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Martz, started work in the shops of the Standard Steel Works at Burnham, Tuesday morning. Paul, who pitched Centre Hall's ball team to the Centre County League championship in 1931, will play with the Burnham team in the Mifflin County League from now on. Last Saturday he made his debut with the Burnham outfit, winning out 4 to 3 in a thirteen-inning game.

George Albert, son of George A. Luse, who will become three months old on August 2nd, is improving nicely since at the home of his grandfather, P. H. Luse, in Centre Hall. The babe gained almost a pound during the week and now weighs eight and a quarter pounds; at birth he weighed five pounds, seven ounces. It will be recalled the mother died shortly after giving birth to her son, and that it was necessary to keep him at the hospital for a considerable length of time.

GRANGE FAIR ASSOC. SECURES NATIONAL GRANGE LEADERS FOR FAIR, AUGUST 25 TO 31

The Grange Encampment and Centre County Fair which opens on Grange Park, Saturday, August 25, is pleased to be able to announce this week that Fred Breckman, National Grange representative in Washington has accepted the invitation to be the principal speaker on Grange Day, which will be Thursday, August 30 of fair week. This will be an unusual opportunity to receive at first hand valuable information direct from the National Capitol. Fred Breckman is a man of keen intellect, wide experience and observation in public affairs and contacts in these troublous times certainly far beyond the average.

Hon. J. Audley Boak, Master Penna. State Grange, will also be present on Grange Day and without doubt ably state the policy adopted by our leaders in an attempt to arrive at a reasonable solution of the many problems facing the rural citizen and his community.

The Centre County Motor Association will again establish headquarters on Grange Park for the week of the Fair. It is the aim of the association to make the tent a place of interest, attraction and comfort as well as the social center to motorists and their friends. The association is making plans to secure speakers of State and national importance for Wednesday, August 29.

Grange Encampment and Centre County Fair takes some pride in the fact that it was among the first organizations and Centre county one of the first counties to support and encourage the development of dramatics in rural communities with great success. This year a number of granges in Centre county have selected plays of worth and interest and are enthusiastically rehearsing under competent leaders and without question will have talented productions with well trained characters in readiness to present in the auditorium Fair week as splendid evening entertainment.

The fourteenth annual reunion of the VonNeidas of Central Pennsylvania will be held Saturday, August 11, at the VonNeida State Park, east of Woodward.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Levi Hartley, retired track foreman, and Levi Hartley Jr., expect to go to Paxtang to visit relatives.

Mrs. Laura Lee, of town, is in Altoona with her piece, Miss Mary Herring, and sister, Mrs. Lizzie Mullen, where she will remain for two weeks or more.

William McClenahan is nursing a finger that had become infected from a splinter. At one time he suffered much pain, but at present the trouble is about at its end.

Note change of baseball schedule for this (Thursday) evening. Centre Hall will play at Howard instead of Howard coming to Centre Hall, due to the local team furnishing the attraction at a picnic being held at Howard.

The exterior woodwork of the barber shop, residence and meat market, in the brick annex of the Centre Hall hotel, is being repainted in white by Edward Durst and helpers. The property is owned by Miss Laura Runkle.

While Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burkholder are attending the Century of Progress Exposition Chicago, his farming operations are being cared for by his sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zellers and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Knarr, together with Miss Freda Burkholder, who presides over the home. A guest at this time is Miss Gertrude Verrier, a niece of Mr. Zellers, of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Kryder Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Zettle, Mrs. Jeanne Eline, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank and son, Ernest, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf and son, Drew, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Benner and children Geraldine and Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ulrich, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Brown Nale and children; Mr. and Mrs. Archey Gray and four children, of Millroy, formed a group to visit the virgin timbers in Snyder county and relatives at Troxville, on Sunday. On their way to the latter place they turned the wrong way at the forks of the road and were led over the mountains to Welkert, but later found the place of interest set out to see.
