

Spring Mills

A Collection of Newsy Happenings and Personals from Gregg Township's Metropolis.

Sedans driven by Albert Auman and Leonard S. Odonnell, in opposite directions, on State highway No. 45, near Pleasant Gap, sideswiped. No one was hurt. The damage to the Odonnell car was estimated at $20.00 and that of the Auman car, $10.00.

The death of Charles L. McCool is much lamented by the citizens in and about Spring Mills. He was a man of industrious habits, and fine qualities. The funeral, held on Tuesday forenoon, was largely attended. He was a member of the P. O. S. of A., Centre Hall, and the Spring Mills lodge of Odd Fellows. From the former order the widow will receive $500 insurance, and from the latter, $75.00. Three of the pallbearers were from among each of the two lodges named.

Mrs. Jasper Shawver, who left here about two weeks ago on a trip to Portland, Oregon, was heard from by friends while she was in Chicago visiting the Century of Progress Exposition. She will be gone for some weeks, her most distant objective being Portland, Oregon, where an uncle lives with whom she will spend some time.

Mrs. Wallace Musser, at Penn Hall, while doing the family washing in the cellar kitchen, had the misfortune to slip and fall, and in so doing struck her right arm on a bucket, breaking the arm close to the wrist. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Thomas.

Mrs. Mary Miller, of Battle Creek, Michigan, is a guest of her brother-in-law W. A. Neese, and also visited Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, at Centre Hall, Mr. Fisher being a cousin. From here she will go to Kennett Square, where a niece, Mrs. James B. Lingle, lives, and from there back to Altoona, where Mrs. Lingle's sister, Mrs. Wm. Harter, resides. Mrs. Miller is a daughter of John F. and Fietta Fisher Heckman, both deceased, and has many relatives about here.

Continuous hours of work is responsible for John Mullinger having taken a nap at the wrong time. He was on his way from State College to his home here, and on reaching the long hill above town took the fatal "cat nap," but during the enjoyment of that minute's sleep his Ford roadster plunged into the guard rails, pulling one of the posts clear of its moorings and pushing two others to a 45 degree angle. It was a rude awakening, but the driver found himself uninjured.

The Wert-Duck reunion held at Woodward Cave, on Saturday, was largely attended.

An auto drive to Removo, and then southwest to Moshannon, and on south over the Hattiesnake Mountain by way of Black Moshannon to Unionville, was made on Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Bitner and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bailey.

Mr. Speece opened a barber shop in the Rossman building in which the post office was located prior to its removal to its present well-appointed quarters.

Russell Condo, grammar grade teacher is devoting spare time to growing New Hampshire red pullets with much success. He is now disposing of the surplus.

O. T. Corman is driving a Packard car of not too old vintage. Roy Vonada, of Coburn, was here on business a few days ago. John Condo, who was a Geisinger hospital patient, has very much improved from a serious illness, and is again in about normal health.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ziegler, of Lock Haven, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sweetwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover and daughter, Miss Josephine, took dinner at the Woodward Cave, on Sunday.

Mrs. Beulah Snavelly, of Salona, formerly of Spring Mills, together with friends from Salona, visited about here recently.

Mrs. George Hosterman and children—George, Jr., Merrill and Earl—are on a visit to an aunt living in Central Ohio.

The Spring Mills Vacation church school had a regular attendance of 56 pupils during the sessions closed recently. On Friday the children, together with the instructors, parents of the pupils and visitors enjoyed a basket picnic at Sand Spring, close to Penns Creek, on the Penns Creek road. Rev. Seth Russell, pastor of the M. E. church, the head of the school, with these instructors: Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Martha Corman, Miss Margaret Grenoble, Miss Gladys Ziegler, Miss Phyllis Wagner, were present, with Misses Bernice Smith and Evelyn Brooks having in charge the children of pre-school age. The movement is declared to have been a decided success from the standpoint of numbers and accomplishments in religious instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cole, accompanied by another couple of Central Ohio, arrived here beginning of the week and are guests at the Samuel Musser home below town. Mrs. Musser, by the way, is not making headway in recovering from a heart affection, and at present must resort to a wheel chair to be moved about.

Harold Stover recently purchased eight acres of woodland from F. M. Fisher. The tract is located north of Green Grove church.

H. S. Bolger, treasurer of Blair county, together with Mrs. Bolger and daughters, Lenora and Pattie, and Mrs. Bolger's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Martin, all of Altoona, were guests at the E. T. Jamison home on Sunday. The latter lady is a sister of Mr. Jamison.

W. C. Auman, track foreman on the L. & P., on Monday informed your correspondent that the report that his daughter, Miss Catherine, an appendicitis patient in the Centre County hospital, had contracted typhoid fever, was wholly untrue. Her condition has advanced to such a favorable stage that her physician will recommend that she be released from the hospital by Wednesday or Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline Grenoble, of Lock Haven, are at the home of Mrs. Grenoble's brother, John M. Mullinger.

C. B. Stover did some plumbing at Coburn last week.

Gregg Twp Chapter of F. F. A. Makes Tour—

Fourteen boys of the Gregg Twp. Chapter of F. F. A. made a five-day tour of the New England States which included parts of Eastern Pa., New Jersey, New York, Mass., Conn., New Hampshire, and Vermont. The group started on Monday morning, July 16, and returned Friday evening, July 20. The trip covering a distance of 1165 miles was made in a truck which was equipped with seating accommodations. The boys carried equipment along and camped wherever night overtook them. The boys making the trip were Cameron Musser, Glen Long, Robert Corman, Adam Condo, Gerald Johnson, Ellsworth Stover, Allison Musser, Alton Musser, Robert Henschen, Dean Ziegler, Spurgeon Condo, Robert Campbell, Dean Ilgen, Oloft Ilgen, John W. Decker, Supervisor of Agriculture of the Gregg Twp, Voc. School, and Eugene Heckman, driver.

The first stop was made at Hershey where the zoo and the Hershey Chocolate factory were the major points of interest. The factory covers an area of approximately 82 acres, and every boy got an idea of the enormous amount of chocolate products consumed daily. The zoo is one of the best and largest in Pennsylvania. A visit to either of the places is very worth while. The route then followed led into New Jersey by the way of Allentown. The first night, which was very cool, was spent in Lincoln Park, N. J. The group then went north into N. Y. over the Catskills to the Hudson river, followed the Hudson to West Point and the Bear Mountain Pass, crossing the Bear Mt. bridge. The trail then followed led into the Connecticut River Valley, which was followed north through Conn., Mass., N. H., and Vermont. The second night was spent on the banks of the Connecticut River at Hartland, Vt. One of the most interesting stops on the trip was made at a granite mine near Barre, Vt. Blocks of granite weighing as much as 76 tons were taken from the mines and worked into building material. Short stops were made at Montpelier, the State capital, and Burlington. At Burlington, a ferry was taken over Lake Champlain, a distance of 11 miles, to Port Kent, N. Y. A short visit was made to the Ausable Chasm, which is a beautiful scene made by the Ausable River cutting thru the high mountains of northern N. Y. The third night was spent near Lake Placid. Visits were made to the small park where "John Brown's Body" and thirteen of his followers are buried. The highest mountain observed on the tour was Mt. Marcy, which was 5,344 ft. After passing through the Adirondack Mountains a route was followed around Lake Ontario. The fourth night was spent in a State camp, on the lake at Mapleview, N. Y. From there the route led south along Seneca Lake to Watkins Glen, where the last important stop was made. The boys enjoyed swimming in Connecticut River, Ausable River and Lake Ontario.
