College Glee Club concert Tuesday evening, 21st, Evangelical church.

The sale of household goods advertised by Mrs. F. J. McClellan for August 18th, has been postponed until a later date.

James Raymond, on Friday, returned home from Bellefonte where for a few days he visited his nephew, Harvey Raymond.

The eleventh Brungart reunion will be held Saturday of this week on the College campus, Elizabethtown, near Harrisburg.

Robert Dodds, the South Dakota horse dealer, last week disposed of the remainder of a car load of horses not sold at his sale.

Dorris Jackson, a spry lass of color, of Bellefonte, on Friday closed her annual summer outing of a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Stoner, in town.

The sixth annual Geberhart reunion will be held at Hoffer Park, Middletown, August 19. The clan is also known under the names of Gephart, Gerharts and Geperits.

Mrs. Pearl Decker and Miss Alice Neese, of Spring Mills, were in Centre Hall on Monday, the former on business and the latter to obtain professional services from Dr. White, the dentist.

Keystone 4-H club members will gather at the Pennsylvania State College, August 20 to 24 for the annual Leadership Training School and the fourteenth annual State Club week.

George Condo, of Greensburg, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Condo and son William, of Vandergrift, spent Sunday at the home of the former's brother-in-law, Charles Durst, east of town.

Tobacco cutting was started last week in Clinton county. Indications are that this year's crop will be above the average in quality as the rains of the past month have caused it to develop and mature perfectly.

North Carolina received $182,000 from the Federal government which with $420,000 furnished by the State, is to be invested in school buses. The Chevrolet company received an order for 450 bus chassis on this account.

Sunset club house was occupied for a few days last week and Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Daup, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Miller, and Misses Stella Hosterman and Ida Frazier. The group also entertained a number of friends at various times.

The latest new acting postmaster at Loganton is Charles H. Held, who moved the location of the office to his home. In June, Ray L. Hartach was appointed postmaster, but refused to accept the post. The former postmaster was A. D. Kerstetter, who served in that capacity for thirty years.

The grade school building was repaired recently by Orvis L. Horner, who replaced brick at some of the corners and filled mortar lines washed out by water draining through them. While the work was not at all extensive, it will have much to do with preserving the solid brick walls in the future.

Two Elk county commissioners, E. D. Brown, 48, and T. H. Ledden, 64, are serving six months sentences in Elk county jail for having illegally sold a valuable parcel of ground for $25,000. With the prison sentence goes a fine of $500 for each. Ledden had served as commissioner for twenty-nine years and Brown for twelve years.

The improvement of nearly seven miles of road, in Centre county, west of Phillipsburg to northwest of Julian, has been approved at Washington by the United States Bureau of Public Roads. The road, to be improved with bituminous crushed stone, was approved as a public highway project and the estimated cost was placed at $70,000.

A former Lewisburg tax collector, Harry Himmelreich, has been brought into Union county court to explain his shortage of $2000 in his 1932 school tax returns. He collected that much more than he turned over to the school board. Suspicion was created when he deeded a new home at Winfield to his mother. The action includes cancelling that deed.

A planned evening dinner in the woods was eaten from tables in the T. F. Delaney dining room Sunday evening, the change of scenery having been due to weather conditions. Mrs. Delaney had as invited guests Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clevenstine, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilson and children Bruce and Harvey, and Mrs. Kate Nitchman, of Bellefonte, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Runkle, of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebricht and Billy Morrow are back home from a ten days' visit in Raleigh, N. C., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fuller. They are all "het up" about the South and the hospitality of its people. Auto trips summing up to a thousand miles were made through the State over high-class concrete roads of which residents boast. Mr. Fuller, by the way, is in the road construction business and has already completed several small contracts this summer.

Since becoming postmaster almost twelve years ago, R. M. Smith issued over 40,000 more postal money orders than were issued in the Centre Hall office since money orders came into use. The information was gained from old records examined while the office force was cleaning house—destroying the class of records held only for ten years. The figures indicate a vast growth in post office business, and also that large sums of money are sent to the business centers in other than check form.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Isabel Snyder, of Mifflinburg, visited Miss Mary Durst, at the Durst homestead, east of Centre Hall.

Miss Jean Kryder, of Sunbury, was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kryder, in town, last week. Her companion while here was Miss Mildred Homan.

Mrs. Grace Breen, Miss Laura Breen and Jack Glenn, of Centre Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Sarj Mastellar, of Dewart, on Sunday autoed to Altoona where they visited with Mrs. Breen's mother, Mrs. Laura Lee, also Mrs. Lizzie Mullen and Miss Mary Herring.

After a few days confinement to his home, A. H. Spayd expected to be able to resume his duties as manager on Grange Park. He became ill Monday after the noon meal, from stomach and bowel trouble, a condition not new to him. The seriousness of his illness was much exaggerated by uninformed persons.

Witmer Smith and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Milesburg, were guests of Miss Grace Smith, a sister, and Mrs. Levan Smith, sister-in-law. Mr. Smith is not in good health at present. For many years he was employed by the Commercial Telephone company at a time when it was in supremacy in Penna Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliot Smith and children, Wendell and Myra, were at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. D. F. Smith, in town, over the week end. Before coming here the family had made an auto tour of a few days through the Virginias, visiting a number of historical points. Mr. Smith is an overseas veteran, and after the close of the conflict prepared himself for teaching in the Pittsburgh University, and has since been teaching in the schools at Braddock, where the family lives.

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION

YOU can have a telephone on the farm for "less than a dime a day." (Rural telephone service costs from $2.00 to $2.50 a month, according to locality.) It runs errands—saves time—helps you buy and sell advantageously—summons aid when needed—keeps you in touch with friends. As a business proposition, it doesn't pay to be without a telephone. It is useful every day; priceless when things go wrong!

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

announced that Centre Hall had won a 9-6 technical victory, due to the failure of the college-town outfit to appear. State College informed Centre Hall Saturday noon that they would not be present for the game, apparently surmising that the local field was unfit to play on, due to showers which had been falling Friday and Saturday. However, Manager George Timmey called the State outfit, and notified them that the field was in shape, and that he expected them to be here. Apparently unable to get a team together, State gave the locals the easiest victory of the season.

The Centre Hall players meet possibly their most dangerous opponents this week, when they clash with Bellefonte on the county-seat field Thursday and take on the first-half champions, Millheim, Saturday on the local diamond.

WHERE THEY PLAY.

Thursday (Twilight)
Centre Hall at Bellefonte; Pleasant Gap at Rebersburg; Howard at Millheim; Kato at Lamar; State College at Boalsburg.

Saturday's Games.

Millheim at Centre Hall; State College at Kato; Bellefonte at Pleasant Gap; Lamar at Rebersburg; Boalsburg at Howard.
