

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Prof. J. F. Wetzel is now living in the Bender home, having moved there on Tuesday.

Dr. W. E. Fischer, of Shamokin, expects to be in Centre Hall over the week-end.

Thomas Sankey is back to the Centre Hall hotel and expects to remain for the present.

Mrs. Edna Murray Cooney, and two daughters, of near Pittsburgh, are visiting among friends here this week.

Mrs. W. W. Reitz, of Ithaca, N. Y., is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Thomas, in town.

Mrs. James Stuart, of New Bloomfield is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Lucy Henney, during this week.

Mrs. L. H. Dalby, of Phoenixville, sister of J. R. Keller, came up this week to visit friends at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Royer, of Bellefonte, and the former's mother, Mrs. John L. Royer, of Madisonburg, and Miss Marian Treaster, of Centre Hall, were guests last week at the H. E. Royer home in Bellevue, Ohio.

Miss Julia Ford, of Philadelphia, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin. She came to Bellefonte to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Watson Luther, and from there came to Centre Hall to remain until Monday. Miss Ford is a sister of Mrs. John Bailey, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Finkle, of Buffalo, N. Y., are among the many visitors at the Grange fair this week. They also visited Mrs. Finkle's sister, Mrs. Samuel Brown, at Spring Mills. Mrs. Finkle is a native of the valley while Mr. Finkle was reared at Belleville. He has been a valued employe of the Washburn-Crosby Milling Co. in Buffalo for many years.

The present week opened with a clear sky, and Monday followed in a like manner. This reference is made because this is Grange fair week, which period seems in times past to have had the power to break in on a drought and produce copious rains. Since the drought of this season was broken earlier that function need not be exercised now.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bauer and small son and daughter, of Huntingdon, are at the home of Mrs. Bauer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bradford, for the week. Mr. Bauer holds a position in the office of the Huntingdon Industrial school, and reports that although there are about one thousand in the correctional institution, everything is moving along quietly.

Walter R. Hosterman and family, of State College, will take up their residence on their farm property near Potters Mills, beginning April 1st, next. Mr. Hosterman, however, will retain his position as a mechanic with the Pennsylvania State College in one of its power plants, and will motor to and from his home daily. He will give his farm acreage to Maynard Barger to handle on a share basis.

Rev. D. J. Wetzel, wife and children, Betty Jean and Mary Ellen, of Reading, and Miss Ruth Walter, Lewisburg visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wetzel, Thursday and Friday. Sunday visitors at the same home were: Mr. and Mrs. Reed E. Kline and daughter Marjorie, Yeagerstown; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Seasholtz and son Donald, Beaverstown; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brininger, McClure, and Mrs. H. J. Hughes, Cortland, N. Y.

Robert Keller and sisters, Catharine, now Mrs. Charles J. Charters, and daughter Betty, and Ruth, now Mrs. J. E. Deary, of the Pittsburgh district, arrived in town on Monday and will remain for the week to attend the Grange Encampment. Mr. Keller and the husbands of the two sisters were fortunate to be employed almost continuously throughout the depression. The trio are children of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Keller, both deceased.

The Bender family moved their household effects from Centre Hall to their new home on West College Ave., State College, on Monday. Mr. Bender had been a patient under observation in the Lewistown hospital for almost a week prior to Saturday, but was able to return home and to some extent engage in assisting in the moving operations. Again the Reporter expresses the attitude of the community toward the family when it states it greatly regrets losing the family as residents.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher and their son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Corman, of Wilkensburg, returned Sunday evening from a week's tour through the New England States, stopping at many points of historic interest. The trip of about fifteen hundred miles took them through Vermont, New Hampshire, and Maine, and back through Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey, entering Pennsylvania through Delaware Water Gap. The two families are now camping at Sunset club house.

Rev. Greenhoe was called back to one of his former parishes to assist in the funeral services for John Kreamer, Jr., who died in a Baltimore hospital a few hours following an automobile wreck close to Baltimore. Others in the car were John W. Kreamer, grandfather of the young man who died, his brother, Irvin, Jr., and father, Irvin, S. Kreamer, also the latter's wife and Miss Miriam Hoover, all of whom were seriously injured except the grandfather. The group, except Miss Hoover, were visitors of Rev. Greenhoe, beginning of this month and attended services here. They are residents of Pleasant Hill, Franklin county.

A comparatively new and extremely noxious and poisonous weed is spreading over many parts of the States since 1906, when it was first discovered. It is known as buffalo bur, a cross between a potato and thistle, and belongs to the cocklebur family. A specimen was brought here from a garden of a neighbor of Rev. M. S. Derstine, at Ramey, and was identified as a buffalo bur by a Penn State professor. The plant grows bushy, with burrs about the size of those on the common burdock, except that the spikes, while not as plentiful are longer and stiffer. In the center of the bur are black seeds. The plant at the same time has blooms and burrs in all stages of maturity. If by chance this weed is discovered, do not fail to dig it up and burn it.

"A Woman must have had a hand in styling the new FORD V-8"

• A handy compartment for gloves and purse. • A steering ratio that makes parking decidedly easy. • Plenty of body, hood, and leg rockers in the rear seat.

THE fact is, many women did. For this new Ford car was definitely planned to meet the needs of women as well as men.

That's why you'll find a special compartment for your purse in the dashboard and sun-visors for your eyes. That's why interior fittings have been so tastefully designed. Why a finer grade of upholstery has been used. Why brakes act on the slightest touch of your toe. Why the steering ratio is 15-to-1 in order to make this car easier for a woman to handle.

And remember, the Ford V-8 has all the safety features modern engineering skill can devise—a V-8 Engine, Torque-tube Drive, All Steel Body, Welded Steel Spoke Wheels, Safety Glass and many others.

Remember, too, that the Ford V-8 is the most economical car to operate Ford has ever built. Not only that—Ford V-8 delivered prices are decidedly low.
