LOCAL AND PERSONAL

John Spyer, a student in Thompson College, York, is at home at present, having come here last week.

A Holland furnace is being installed for Miss Bessie Coldron, manager of the Bell Telephone exchange, in the Coldron home. R. T. Hess is placing the plant.

Guy W. Jacobs, who about a week ago broke one of the bones in the leg near the ankle while playing volleyball in a gymnasium in Steubenville, Ohio, is in the Ohio Valley hospital, and from a letter to his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, in Centre Hall, it is learned he is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Zettle, Jennie Kline and Andrew Zettle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank, Ernest Frank, Jr., Mrs. F. K. Frank and Kenneth Frank, traveling in two cars, autoed to Berwick on Sunday where they visited with the Archey W. Zettle family, and that of W. M. Grove. Mr. Zettle is engaged in trucking and all his crops, except onions, are reported to have been very good.

Frank H. Buckwalter, who with his wife and young daughter are guests at the Packer-Brooks home, will be located at North Nig Eria, W. Africa, for several months. He is employed by the Surpass Leather company and has been the States about October 10th for the West African city. Mr. Buckwalter is a Penn State graduate and prepared specially for the class of work his employers are sending him out to do.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerlin, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartman, and son, Franklin Kerlin, of Harrisburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hosterman during last week. The elder Mr. Kerlin is connected with the Government store house near Harrisburg, and the son is a member of a faculty of one of the Harrisburg high schools. Another guest at the same house was Miss Nellie Smith, superintendent of the Ohio Valley hospital, Steubenville, Ohio.

Miss Ellen Burkholder is about to begin her fourth year as assistant Dean of Women at Penn State College. She returned from Philadelphia, on Thursday, where she visited her sister, Miss Alice, who is a student in the school for nurses at the Methodist hospital. Prior to that she had been a patient for ten days in the Geisinger hospital, during which time she underwent a tonsillectomy and was under observation. Her physical condition at present is much improved over that of a few months ago.

Hugh D. Bringer, who taught in the Centre Hall High school during the 1933-1934 term as a substitute for J. F. Wetzel, on Monday left here for Johnstown where he was elected a teacher in the Southmont High school, probably the most important high school in the city district. He will teach chemistry and physical education. While connected with the local high school Mr. Bringer was most successful as a teacher and won the favor of the school board to such an extent that he was elected to teach the term opened on Tuesday, but resigned the position when elected in Johnstown. The young man, a graduate of Susquehanna University, who while here earned credits in special work taken at Penn State, is not only admired and held in high regard as a teacher, but also as a man.
